ANNO VICESIMO QUINTO & VICESIMO SEXTO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

Cap. clxxxvi.

An Act for incorporating "The Brecon Markets Company;" and for vesting in them, and authorizing them to maintain and regulate, the Markets and Fairs in Brecon, and other Property of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Brecon; and for providing for the Discharge of Liabilities of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses; and for other Purposes.

[29th July 1862.]

WHEREAS by an Act (Local) of the Session of the First and Second Years of Her present Majesty, intituled An Act for providing Market Places and for regulating the Markets within the Borough of Brecon in the County of Brecon, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Brecon (in this Act called "the Corporation") were authorized to purchase the Lands in the Borough of Brecon (in this Act called "the Borough") specified in the First Schedule to the reciting Act annexed, and to appropriate the same and other Lands in the Borough for the Purposes of the reciting Act, and to provide thereon Market Houses and Market Places, and to preserve for the Corn Market a Portion of the then existing Market Place (that 1 & 2 Vict. c. xii.

Portion being situate under the Guildhall of the Borough), and to maintain and regulate the then Corn Market and the then Cattle Market (whether respectively removed under the reciting Act or not), and the Market House or Market Place by the reciting Act authorized to be provided; and (Section Thirty), for the Purpose of providing the new Market House or Market Places, the Corporation were authorized to borrow at Interest on the Credit of the Tolls, Rents, and Stallage specified in the Second Schedule to the reciting Act annexed (and in this Act referred to as "the scheduled Tolls"), and which are specified in the Third Schedule to this Act annexed, such Sums as they should think requisite, and to assign the scheduled Tolls by way of Mortgage accordingly, but subject to the Provisions of the reciting Act with respect to the Priority of Payment and Application of the scheduled Tolls; and (Section Thirty-two) for the Purposes of the reciting Act the Corporation were authorized to raise Money by Mortgage or Sale of their Messuages or Tenements, Lands or Hereditaments; and (Section Thirty-four) the Corporation were required to apply the Money to be received by virtue of the reciting Act, and (subject as therein expressed) the scheduled Tolls, first in paying the Expenses of obtaining the reciting Act, and next in paying the Expenses of providing the Market Places, and next in retaining and setting apart such Sums as, with the Rents, Tolls, and Dues which should be received by the Corporation from any Property belonging to them other than the scheduled Tolls, should be equal in Amount to or necessary to make up the annual Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds, the Amount of the net annual Income of the Corporation from the whole Tolls of the Borough and other Property of or belonging to them, of which Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds a competent Part should be applied by the Corporation towards defraying the Interest of any Incumbrance then affecting their Property, and the Remainder should be by them applied to such Purposes and in such Manner as by Law they were then authorized and empowered to apply their net annual Income, and afterwards the Surplus scheduled Tolls should be applied in paying the Interest of all Monies borrowed under and for the Purposes of the reciting Act; and subject to those Payments the Residue of the Surplus scheduled Tolls should be divided into Two equal Parts, one of which should be paid to the Persons entitled to any of the Securities for any Money so borrowed on Mortgage, and their respective Executors, Administrators, and Assigns, in proportion to the respective Sums advanced by them, without any Preference, and the other should be retained by the Corporation towards enabling them to pay off the Money borrowed on Mortgage, and after the Payment thereof the whole of the Surplus scheduled Tolls should be by them applied to such Purposes of public Benefit within the Borough as to them should seem meet; and (Section Forty-two) the Tolls theretofore payable in respect of the Market in the Borough should continue until the new Market Places were completed and opened for public Use, and thereafter there should should be paid to the Corporation or their Collector in respect of the Markets such Tolls, Rents, and Stallage as should from Time to Time be appointed by the Corporation, not exceeding the scheduled Tolls; and (Section Fifty-four) the Corporation were authorized to remove the Corn Market to some other convenient Place belonging to the Corporation in the Borough, and (Section Fifty-five) to appropriate Land belonging to the Corporation in the Borough for the Cattle Market, and (Section Fifty-six) to take Tolls for the Cattle Market, and (Section Sixty-two) Provision was made for the holding of the then Markets in the Streets in the Borough until other Market Places were provided, and (Section Sixty-five) the Corporation were authorized to provide Slaughter-houses in the Borough: And whereas the Corporation accordingly, under the Powers of the recited Act, provided a Market House, but they have not provided any Slaughter-house: And whereas the Corporation have removed their general Market to the new Market House so provided, but they have not removed the Corn Market from below the Guildhall, and the Cattle Market and the Fairs are still held in the Streets in the Borough: And whereas the Corporation borrowed at Interest on the Security of the scheduled Tolls divers Sums amounting in the whole to Nine thousand nine hundred and fourteen Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence, and under the recited Act the Corporation granted Assignments of the scheduled Tolls (in this Act called "Debentures") for securing the Repayment, with Interest thereon, of the Monies so borrowed: And whereas for securing the Repayment, with Interest, of One thousand five hundred Pounds, Part of the Money so borrowed, the Corporation made a Mortgage of Parts of their Corporate Estates by way of collateral Security for the same, and their Mortgage Creditor afterwards obtained a Judgment against them for the Amount of the Debt: And whereas the Repayment, with Interest, of Eight thousand four hundred and fourteen Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence, the Residue of the Money so borrowed, is secured only by the Debentures for the same: And whereas the whole of the One thousand five hundred Pounds so secured by Debentures, and collaterally secured by Mortgage, and in respect of which Judgment against the Corporation has been obtained, and almost the whole of the Interest thereon which has become payable since the Fourth Day of September One thousand eight hundred and fifty-five, are now due and unpaid: And whereas the whole of the Eight thousand four hundred and fourteen Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence so secured by Debentures alone, and almost the whole of the Interest thereon which has become payable since the First Day of January One thousand eight hundred and fifty-one, are now due and unpaid: And whereas the Property of the Corporation, other than their Property under the recited Act, comprises the Guildhall of the Borough, and the Borough Lock-up or Police Station, and a Manor or reputed Manor (if any), and divers Messuages, Lands, Chief Rents, and Tenements, and their Markets and Fairs, and Tolls and Dues arising from the same, same, and Drift Tolls payable on Goods of divers Persons passing through the Borough, and the same are in this Act referred to as "the Corporate Estates:" And whereas the net Income arising from the Corporate Estates averages about One hundred and forty Pounds a Year, consisting of about Forty Pounds a Year for the Drift Tolls, and about One hundred Pounds a Year from Rents and Profits of other Parts of the Corporate Estates: And whereas the Corporate Estates or Parts thereof are subject to divers Incumbrances: And whereas the Corporate Estates, with the Exception of the Drift Tolls, have been extended, and are now held by a Creditor by Elegit for a Debt originally of Seven hundred and fifty Pounds and Costs, but the net Income arising from the same is insufficient to keep down the Interest on his Debt: And whereas the scheduled Tolls are received by a Receiver appointed by the Court of Chancery on behalf of the Debenture Holders: And whereas the average net Amount of the scheduled Tolls is about Three hundred and twenty Pounds a Year, out of which about Seventy Pounds a Year is paid to the Corporation, in order to make up their Income, as provided by the recited Act, to Two hundred and ten Pounds a Year, and the Residue thereof is insufficient to keep down the Interest payable to the Debenture Holders: And whereas the only Income which the Corporation now derive for their own Benefit from their Corporate Estates and their Property under the recited Act together is about One hundred and ten Pounds a Year, consisting of about Forty Pounds a Year arising from the Tolls and Dues forming Part of the Corporate Estates, and about Seventy Pounds a Year paid to them out of the scheduled Tolls, the Residue of their Two hundred and ten Pounds a Year being taken by their Elegit Creditor: And whereas by reason of the Manner in which the scheduled Tolls and the Corporate Estates respectively are now managed they do not produce so great an Amount of Income as they might produce if they were placed under One Management: And whereas the Debenture Holders, except Edward Evans, who cannot be found, are willing to accept a Composition for their respective Debts, on condition of the Provision by this Act made in that Behalf, and for the better Management of the Corporate Estates and the Property of the Corporation under the recited Act being made: And whereas it is expedient that Parts of the Estates and Property of the Corporation be vested in and managed by a Company, and that such Provision as by this Act is made be made for the Discharge of the Debts and Liabilities of the Corporation: And whereas divers of the Debenture Holders and other Persons interested in the Welfare of the Borough are willing and it is expedient that they should be united into a Company for the Purpose: And whereas it is expedient that the recited Act be repealed, and that other Provisions with respect to the Markets and Fairs in the Borough be made: And whereas it is expedient that the Company be authorized to provide a new Market Place in the Borough for the Cattle Market and Slaughter-houses, and to acquire Lands for the

the Purpose, and that the Cattle Market be removed from the Streets in the Borough to the Market Place so provided: And whereas Plans of the Lands to be taken for the Purposes of this Act, and Books of Reference thereto specifying the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and Occupiers of the Lands, have been deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Brecon, and the same are in this Act referred to as "the deposited Plans and Books of Reference:" And whereas the Objects of this Act cannot be attained without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)

Goods of Persons passing through the Borough, and the Manor or reputed Manor (if any), and all Messuages, Lands, Chief Rents, Tenements, and Hereditaments of the Corporation, and all other the Real, Personal, and Mixed Estates and Effects of or to which the Corporation or any Persons on their Behalf were immediately before the passing of this Act seised, possessed, or entitled, either at Law or in Equity, or otherwise howsoever, with their and every of their respective Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, including all such Parts thereof as immediately before the Commencement of this Act were comprised in any Mortgage or held by any Tenant by Elegit, are by this Act vested in the Company as their own Property, but, except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, subject and without Prejudice to the Estates, Interests, Claims, and Demands whatsoever of all Mortgagees and Tenants by Elegit of the same or any Parts thereof respectively, and subject and without Prejudice to all other Charges and Incumbrances on and all Liabilities of and Claims and Demands against the Corporation in respect of the same.

Parts of Property of Corporation reserved to them.

22. Provided, That the Guildhall in the Borough and the Borough Lock-up or Police Station in the Borough respectively belonging to the Corporation, with their respective Rights, Members, and Appurtenances, and a Sum of Two hundred Pounds or thereabouts due and payable to the Corporation as Purchase Money or Compensation in respect of the Gaol Field lately taken by the Authorities of the County of Brecon for the Purposes of the County Gaol, and all Interest (if any) thereon, shall not be vested by this Act in the Company, but are by this Act expressly excepted and reserved to the Corporation as their own Property, and (except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided) for their own Use absolutely, and free from all Rent or other Payment whatsoever: Provided nevertheless, that the Company shall at all Times be entitled to and have the User, as heretofore and now had, for the Purposes of and connected with the Corn Market, of the Corn Market Place under the Guildhall, free from all Rent or other Payment whatsoever; and the Corporation shall apply the Sum of One hundred and fifty Pounds, Part of that Sum of Two hundred Pounds, or thereabouts, when received by them from the Authorities of the County of Brecon, towards Payment of the Expenses of obtaining this Act.

General Saving of Rights.

23. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, and the vesting of Parts of the Property of the Corporation in the Company, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, everything before the Commencement of this Act done, suffered, and confirmed respectively under or by the recited Act, or with respect to the vested Property or any Part thereof, shall be as valid as if the Repeal and vesting had not happened, and the Repeal and vesting and this Act respectively shall be subject and without Prejudice to everything so done, suffered, and confirmed firmed respectively, and to all Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, both present and future, which if the Repeal and vesting had not happened would be incident to and consequent on any and every thing so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively, and with respect to all such Things so done, suffered, and confirmed respectively, and all such Rights, Liabilities, Claims, and Demands, the Company shall to all Intents and Purposes represent the Corporation; provided that the Generality of this Provision shall not be restricted by any other of the Sections and Provisions of this Act.

24. Notwithstanding the Repeal and the vesting, all the Provisions of any and every Local or Local and Personal Act of Parliament (other than the recited Act) relating to the Corporation and their Officers and Servants respectively, and on the Commencement of this Act in force, shall be of like Force as if the Repeal and vesting had not happened, and may be exercised, enforced, and enjoyed by and against the Company, and their Directors, Officers, and Servants respectively, accordingly.

25. Notwithstanding the Repeal, the scheduled Tolls shall continue to be payable and may from Time to Time be collected and recovered by the Company and their Officers.

Conveyances &c. preserved.

26. Notwithstanding the Repeal and the vesting, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, all Purchases, Sales, Conveyances, Mortgages, Bonds, Deeds, Securities, and Contracts before the Commencement of this Act made under or by virtue of the recited Act, or with respect to the Purposes thereof, or with respect to the Property by this Act vested in the Company, shall be as effectual to all Intents for, against, and with respect to the Company instead of the Corporation, and may be proceeded on and enforced by and against the Company in like Manner to all Intents and Purposes, as if the Company instead of the Corporation had been party or privy thereto or referred to therein.

Tolls, &c. due to be paid to Company.

27. Notwithstanding the Repeal and the vesting, all Chief Rents, Tolls, Rents, Stallages, and other Dues and Payments immediately before the Commencement of this Act due and payable to the Corporation and the Receiver of the scheduled Tolls respectively shall be payable and paid to and may be collected and recovered by the Company in like Manner as if the same were Tolls payable under this Act.

Payment of Debts of Corporation.

28. Notwithstanding the Repeal and the vesting, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, all Persons who immediately before the Commencement of this Act owed any Money to the Corporation, or to any Person on their Behalf, shall pay the same, with all Interest (if any) due and payable or accruing for the same, to the Company, and all Monies which immediately before the Commencement of this Act were owing by or recoverable from the Corporation, and for the Payment of which they but for this Act would be liable, with all Interest (if any) due and payable or accruing for the same, shall, as regards so much thereof as on the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one was so owing or recoverable, be paid by or be recoverable from the Company, and as regards the Residue thereof be paid by or be recoverable from the Corporation.

Actions not to abate, &c.

29. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, and the vesting, and except only as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided, any Action, Suit, Prosecution, or other Proceeding commenced or Execution or other Process issued or executed before the Commencement of this Act, either by or against the Corporation, in respect of the Property by this Act vested in the Company, or any Part thereof, shall not abate or be discontinued or prejudicially affected by this Act, but shall continue and take effect both in favour of and against the Company in the same Manner to all Intents as (in case the Repeal and vesting had not happened) the same respectively might continue and take effect in favour of or against the Corporation, save only that, where necessary, the Company shall be substituted therein for the Corporation.

Penalties to be recoverable.

30. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all Penalties, Damages, Costs, and Expenses which, if the Repeal had not happened, would under the recited Act be and become payable to or recoverable by the Corporation or any other Person, shall be payable and recoverable in like Manner as if the Repeal had not happened, nevertheless the Company, where necessary, being substituted in that Behalf for the Corporation.

Books, &c., continued Evidence.

31. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, all Documents, Books, and Writings by the recited Act directed or authorized to be kept, and which if the Repeal had not happened would be receivable in Evidence, shall be admitted as Evidence in all Courts of Law and Equity and elsewhere accordingly.

Officers, &c., of Corporation to account to them.

32. Notwithstanding the Repeal of the recited Act, every Officer and Servant of the Corporation appointed by virtue of or acting under the recited Act shall be deemed an Officer and Servant of the Corporation until he be removed by them, and shall account to them, and be subject to like Power of Removal, Regulations, Pains, and Penalties as if the Repeal had not happened.

Powers of Receiver to cease.

33. On the Commencement of this Act the Powers and Authorities of the Receiver appointed by the Court of Chancery to receive the scheduled scheduled Tolls shall cease: Provided that the Receiver shall duly account for all Monies received or receivable by him as Receiver, and for the Application thereof, and shall be entitled to his Fees and Allowances accordingly.

Possession by Elegit Creditors to cease.

34. From and after the Commencement of this Act, the Elegit Creditor of the Corporation shall cease to have or to be entitled to the Possession or Receipt of or any Estate or Interest in or Claim or Demand affecting or in respect of the Rents, Issues, and Profits of any Part of the Property of the Corporation by this Act vested in the Company, and instead thereof shall have the Security provided for him by this Act.

Limit of Liability of Company to Claims against Corporation.

35. Provided, That the Lands and other Property vested in the Company by or under this Act, or any Part thereof, or the Company, shall not, under any of the Provisions of this Act or otherwise, except by their own Agreement, be subject or liable to any Charge, Incumbrance, Claim, or Demand whatsoever made, occasioned, or suffered by the Corporation, or by reason of any Act or Default of the Corporation, subsequently to the Thirtieth Day of November One thousand eight hundred and sixty-one.

Substitution of Debentures under Act for Debentures under recited Act.

36. In order to the Discharge of the Principal Monies and Interest secured by the Debentures issued under the recited Act for Nine thousand nine hundred and fourteen Pounds Fourteen Shillings and Sixpence, which are specified in the First Schedule to this Act annexed, the Company, from Time to Time, by Agreement with the Holder of any of those Debentures, may issue to him, by way of Substitution for his Debenture under the recited Act, a Debenture in the Form given in the Second Schedule to this Act annexed, or to the like Effect, and when any Debenture under this Act is substituted for any Debenture under the recited Act, the Debenture under the recited Act shall be cancelled, and all Rights and Liabilities in respect thereof shall be by this Act extinguished.

Application of Provisions of Companies Clauses Act to Debentures under Act.

37. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Provisions "with respect to the borrowing of Money by the Company on Mortgage or Bond" of "The Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845," except so much of those Provisions as relates to Bonds and to the Payment of the Principal Sums secured by the Mortgages, are incorporated with this Act, and apply to the Debentures so from Time to Time granted under this Act, and Transfers thereof, and the Debenture Holders and the Company respectively, with respect to the same.

Extinguishment of Debentures under Act.

38. If the Interest payable under this Act for any Year on the Principal Monies specified in the Debentures under this Act amounts to Five

Five Pounds per Centum, then, on the Expiration of that Year, all those Debentures, and all Rights and Liabilities in respect thereof, shall be by this Act extinguished.

Addition to Capital on Extinguishment of Debentures under Act.

39. On the Extinguishment of those Debentures the Capital of the Company shall be by this Act increased by a Sum of Stock equal to the Amount of the Principal Monies specified in the extinguished Debentures, and thenceforth the Company's Capital of Three thousand Pounds and the additional Capital so created shall be their Capital under this Act.

Additional Capital vested in Holders of extinguished Debentures.

40. The Stock so created shall be by this Act vested as fully paid up Stock in the several Persons who at the Time of the Extinguishment of those Debentures were the several registered Holders of those Debentures, in rateable Proportion to the Amounts of the Principal Sums specified in their respective Debentures so extinguished.

Stock to be subject to same Trusts, &c. as Interest secured by extinguished Debenture.

41. Every Portion of Stock so vested shall be vested in the Person entitled thereto, subject to the same Trusts, Provisions, and Liabilities as those which immediately before the vesting thereof affected the Interest secured by the extinguished Debenture in respect of which the Portion of Stock is so vested, but so as not to revoke but give Effect to any Will or Testamentary or other Disposition of or affecting the same Interest.

Company to pay 210*l.* a Year to Corporation.

42. From and after the Commencement of this Act the Company shall pay to the Corporation the yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds by equal half-yearly Payments on or within Twenty-eight Days after the Thirtieth Day of June and the Thirty-first Day of December in every Year, and the First half-yearly Payment thereof shall be made on or within Twenty-eight Days after whichever of those Days happens next after the Commencement of this Act, but with a proportionate Abatement in respect of a broken Half Year.

210*l.* a Year to be First Charge on scheduled Tolls.

43. The yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds so payable to the Corporation is by this Act charged on the scheduled Tolls, Markets, and Market Places by this Act vested in the Company, and shall be the First Charge on those scheduled Tolls next after the Costs, Charges, and Expenses of and incident to the Collection and Recovery thereof, and shall be the First Charge on the said Markets and Market Places.

Application by Corporation of 210*l.* a Year.

44. The yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds so payable to the Corporation is by this Act substituted for the yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds provided for by Section Thirty-four of the recited recited Act, and accordingly a competent Part thereof shall be applied by the Corporation towards defraying the Interest of any Incumbrance which at the Time of the passing of the recited Act affected any of their then Property other than the scheduled Tolls, and which immediately before the Commencement of this Act remained undischarged, and the Remainder thereof shall be by them applied to such Purposes and in such Manner as they were by Law at the Time of the passing of the recited Act authorized and empowered to apply their net annual Income referred to in that Section.

Corporation to pay off their Elegit Creditor.

45. The Corporation shall pay, satisfy, or discharge the Debt, Costs, and Claims of their present Elegit Creditor, and in order thereto may grant any Mortgage of or Security on all or any Parts of their Guildhall and Borough Lock-up or Police Station, and that yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds, as they think fit, and the Company, and their Property, Revenues, and Effects, shall be by this Act wholly freed from the Debt, Costs, and Claims of that Elegit Creditor, and all Securities for and Liabilities in respect of the same.

Company to pay off Judgment Creditor of Corporation.

46. The Company shall pay, satisfy, or discharge the Debt, Costs, and Claims of the Judgment Creditor of the Corporation (who is also a Mortgagee and Debenture Holder), and the Corporation, and their Property, Revenues, and Effects, shall be by this Act wholly freed from the Debts, Costs, and Claims of that Judgment Creditor, and all Securities for and Liabilities in respect of the same, and the Company shall within Six Months after the passing of this Act procure Satisfaction of that Judgment to be duly entered up.

Order of Application of Company's Income.

47. The Income of the Company from Time to Time applicable for the Payment of Interest on their Debt and Dividends on their Capital shall, but without Prejudice to the Claims, in accordance with this Act, of the Creditors of and Claimants against the Company, and subject to the Payment of the yearly Sum of Two hundred and ten Pounds to the Corporation, be applied as follows, and in the following Order; (that is to say,)

First, in Payment of the Interest from Time to Time payable on Monies borrowed by the Company under this Act:

Secondly, in Payment of the Interest on Monies (if any) from Time to Time received by the Company in advance of Calls on Shares of the Company's Capital:

Thirdly, so long as the Debentures under this Act are not extinguished, in Payment half-yearly of Dividends not exceeding Five Pounds per Centum per Annum on the Amount from Time to Time called and paid up in respect of the Company's Capital of Three thousand Pounds:

Fourthly, so long as the Debentures under this Act are not extinguished, the Residue of the Company's Income so applicable shall be applied in Payment half-yearly to the several Holders of those Debentures rateably of Interest on the Principal Sums specified in their Debentures respectively:

Fifthly, when the Debentures under this Act are extinguished, the Surplus of the Company's Income so applicable, after making the First and Second Payments, shall be applied in Payment half-yearly of Dividends on the Amount from Time to Time called and paid up, or, in accordance with this Act, deemed to be paid up, in respect of the Company's then Capital under this Act.

As to Votes of Stockholders.

48. Where the Company's Capital or any Part thereof consists of Stock, every entire Sum of Ten Pounds of the Stock held by any Stockholder (Fractions being rejected) shall, for the Purpose of ascertaining his Rights of voting, be deemed equivalent to One Share, and no Portion of Stock being less than Ten Pounds shall confer on any Person any Right of voting.

Power for Company to purchase Lands for Purposes of Act.

49. Subject to the Provisions of this Act, the Company from Time to Time may enter upon, take, and use such of the Lands shown on the deposited Plans and specified in the deposited Books of Reference as they think requisite for any of the Purposes of this Act.

Period for compulsory Purchase of Lands.

50. The Powers of the Company for the compulsory Purchase of Lands for the Purposes of this Act shall not be exercised after the Expiration of Three Years after the passing of this Act.

Lands for extraordinary Purposes.

51. The Company from Time to Time may, by Agreement, purchase, in addition to the Lands by this Act authorized to be purchased compulsorily, any Quantity of Land for extraordinary Purposes not exceeding One Acre.

Lands vested in Company for Purposes of Act.

52. All Lands and other Property from Time to Time vested in the Company by or under this Act shall be vested in them for the Purposes of this Act.

Power for Company to sell Lands not required for Purposes of Act.

53. When the Company shall have paid, satisfied, or discharged the Debt, Costs, and Claims of the said Judgment Creditor they may from Time to Time sell and dispose of all or any of the Lands and other Property, Parts of the Property of the Corporation, by this Act vested in the Company, and not required for the Purposes of the Markets, free from all the Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands subject to which the same are by this Act vested in the Company.

54. The Sales may be by Auction, &c., with public Notice.

54. The Sales may be made by the Company by Public Auction or Private Contract at such Times, in such Manner, on such Terms and Conditions, and to such Persons as the Company from Time to Time think fit; provided that before making any Sale the Company shall give not more than Twenty-eight Days nor less than Ten Days public Notice thereof by Advertisement in at least Three Newspapers published in the County of Brecon.

Claimants on Lands sold to have like Claims on Monies produced by Sale thereof.

55. If any Land, Part of the Property of the Corporation by this Act vested in the Company, is so sold and disposed of by the Company free from all Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands, any Person who may prove to be entitled to any Charge, Incumbrance, Claim, or Demand on or in respect of the said Land shall have the like Charge, Incumbrance, Claim, or Demand on or in respect of the net Monies produced by the Sale thereof.

Purchasers not to see to Application of Purchase Monies.

56. Provided, That no Purchaser paying his Purchase Money to the Treasurer of the Company, and taking his Receipt for the same, shall be bound or at liberty to see or inquire as to the Application thereof, or be prejudiced by any Misapplication thereof.

Application of Monies produced by Sales.

57. The net Monies produced by the Sales of such Lands shall be applied by the Company in or towards repaying to their Capital Account all Sums paid by them in satisfaction or discharge of the Debt, Costs, and Claims of the said Judgment Creditor, and in Payment of any other Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands, should such hereafter be made against the Corporation in respect of the said Lands, on such net Monies, according to the respective Priorities of such Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands, with Interest on such Sums, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands respectively; and if, when such Sums, Charges, Incumbrances, Claims, and Demands, and Interest, are fully paid, there shall be any Surplus of those net Monies, the Company shall pay the Surplus to the Corporation; but the Interest of the Corporation in the Surplus shall not give to them any Interest in those Lands, or any Right to interfere with the Sale thereof, or any Right to interfere in any other Manner with the Company or their Affairs, except only the Right, when the Surplus (if any) is paid to them, of ascertaining by Inspection of the Accounts and Vouchers of the Company that the Sum so paid is the whole Sum so payable.

Accounts of the Monies and Application thereof.

58. In order that the due Application of the Monies produced by Sales of Lands under this Act shall appear, the Company shall keep proper and sufficient Accounts of the Sales, and the gross Monies produced thereby, and the Application of the same and the Accounts so kept shall be audited with their other Accounts, and an Abstract of the
