Appointment of Receiver.

XV. And be it enacted, That every such Application for a Receiver in the Cases aforesaid shall be made to Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County of Middlesex; and on any such Application so made, and after hearing the Parties it shall be lawful for such Justices, by Order in Writing, to appoint some Person to receive the whole, or, at the Discretion of such Justices, a competent Part of the Rents and other Payments due and to become due to the said Company for the Supply of Gas, until such Interest, or until such Principal and Interest (as the Case may be), together with all Costs, including the Charges of receiving the Sums aforesaid, (the Amount of such Charges to be fixed by the said Justices,) be fully paid; and upon such Appointment being made all such Sums of Money as aforesaid shall be paid to and received by the Person so to be appointed, and the Money so to be received shall be so much Money received by or to the Use of the Party to whom such Interest, or such Principal and Interest (as the Case may be), shall be then due, and on whose Behalf such Receiver shall have been appointed, and after such Interest and Costs, or such Principal, Interest, and Costs, have been so received, the Power of such Receiver shall cease.

Bond Creditors not to vote.

XVI. And be it enacted, That no Party shall in right of any Bond be deemed a Proprietor or Shareholder, or be capable of acting or voting as such at any Meeting of the said Company.

XVII. And be it enacted, That at all reasonable Times the Books of Account of the said Company shall be open to the Inspection of the respective Bond Creditors thereof, with Liberty to take Extracts therefrom, without Fee or Reward.

Annual Account to be transmitted to the Clerk of the Peace.

XVIII. And be it enacted, That the said Company shall every Year cause an annual Account in abstract to be prepared, showing the total Receipt and Expenditure of all Funds levied by virtue of the said recited Act and this Act for the Year ending on the Thirty-first Day of December or some other convenient Day in each Year, under the several distinct Heads of Receipt and Expenditure, with a Statement of the Balance of such Account, duly audited and certified by the Clerk for the Time being of the said Company, and shall transmit a Copy of such Account, free of Charge, to the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, on or before the Thirty-first Day of January then next, which Account shall be open to the Inspection of the Public at all seasonable Hours, on Payment of the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection: Provided always, that if the said Company shall omit to prepare and transmit such Account as aforesaid they shall forfeit for every such Omission the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

Power to convert Loan into Capital.

XIX. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Company, if they think fit, to raise the additional Sum herein-before authorized to be borrowed, or any Part thereof, by creating new Shares in the Capital of the said Company, instead of borrowing the same, or, having borrowed the same, it shall be lawful for them to continue at Interest only a Part of such additional Sum, if they so think fit, and to raise the Remainder thereof, or any Part of the Remainder thereof, by creating new Shares in the Capital of the said Company; but no such Augmentation of Capital as aforesaid shall take place without the Authority of an Order of a General Meeting of the said Company called for the Purpose previously obtained.

New Shares to be considered same as original Shares.

XX. And be it enacted, That the Capital so to be raised by the Creation of new Shares shall be considered as Part of the general Capital, and shall be subject to the same Provisions in all respects, whether with reference to the Payment of Calls, or the Forfeiture of Shares on Nonpayment of Calls, or otherwise, as if it had been Part of the original Capital, except as to the Times of making Calls for such additional Capital, and the Amount of such Calls, which respectively it shall be lawful for the Committee of Management of the said Company from Time to Time to fix as they shall think fit.

If old Shares at Premium, new Shares to be offered to original Shareholders.

XXI. And be it enacted, That if at the Time of any such Augmentation of Capital taking place by the Creation of new Shares the then existing Shares of the Capital of the said Company be at a Premium, or of greater actual Value than the nominal Value thereof, then the Sum so to be raised shall be divided into Shares of such Amount as will conveniently allow the said Sum to be apportioned among the then Shareholders in proportion to the existing Shares held by them respectively; and such new Shares shall be offered to the then Shareholders by Letter under the Hand of the Clerk of the said Company, given to or sent by Post to each Shareholder, or left at his usual or last Place of Abode; and such new Shares shall vest in and belong to the Shareholders who shall accept the same and pay the Value thereof to the said Company at the Time and by the Instalments which shall be fixed by the said Committee of Management; and if any Shareholder shall fail for One Calendar Month after such Offer of new Shares to accept the same, or to pay the Instalment called for in respect thereof, it shall be lawful for the said Company to dispose of such Shares to any Party willing to become the Purchaser thereof, for such Sum as the said Company can obtain for the same.

If not at a Premium to be issued as Company think fit.

XXII. And be it enacted, That if at the Time of such Augmentation of Capital taking place the existing Shares of the Capital of the said Company be not at a Premium, then such new Shares may be of such Amount and may be issued in such Manner as the said Company shall think fit.

XXIII. And whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that the Affairs and Concerns of the said Company should be conducted and managed under and subject to the several Rules and Regulations therein-after contained; that is to say, that the Proprietors of Shares in the said Undertaking should assemble as therein is mentioned, and for the Purposes therein mentioned, and that at such Meetings all Questions should be decided by a Majority of Votes of the Proprietors present (and not declining to vote), the Number present not being less than Fifteen, according to their respective Number of Shares, as in the said recited Act is mentioned: And whereas it is expedient to alter the said Enactment as regards the Number to be present at any such Meeting, by reason that it has been occasionally found difficult to procure the Attendance of a sufficient Number of Proprietors of Shares; now therefore be it enacted, That at any such Meeting of the Proprietors or Holders of Shares of the said Company, at which it is by the said Act required that the Number present shall not be less than Fifteen, according to their respective Number of Shares, it shall shall be sufficient if the Number present shall be Ten instead of Fifteen, according to their respective Number of Shares; and that the said recited Act and this Act shall in all respects be construed as if the Number Ten had been in the said recited Act contained instead of the Number Fifteen.

Altering Place of Meeting of Committee.

XXIV. And whereas it was by the said recited Act further enacted, that the Committee of Management in the said recited Act mentioned should hold their Meetings at such Place within the Village of Turnham Green in the County of Middlesex at such Times and in manner therein mentioned, and it is expedient to alter such Provision; be it therefore enacted, That the said Committee of Management may hold their Meetings either within the said Village of Turnham Green, or within any Part of the Cities of London or Westminster, or within any Part of any District lighted by the said Company, and as the Members of the said Committee shall from Time to Time direct.

Repeal of Prohibition in recited Act against selling Machinery, &c.

XXV. And whereas it was by the said Act further enacted, that the said Company should not, by any Ways or Means, or under any Pretence or Pretences, contract to sell and furnish, or should sell or furnish, any Stove, or Pipe or Pipes, or Apparatus or Machinery of any Description whatever, for the Purpose of conveying or whereby such inflammable Air as therein is mentioned, or any Quantity thereof, might be conveyed into any Dwelling House or Houses, Manufactories, public or private Buildings, for the Purpose of lighting the same; and further, that the said Company, in carrying into execution the Power thereby granted in respect of fitting up any such Dwelling Houses, Manufactories, public or private Buildings, should employ or appoint such Manufacturers of or Dealers in the Materials to be used as to the said Company should seem meet and proper; and such Manufacturers or Dealers should execute the same under and subject to the Superintendence, Control, and Direction of the said Company, provided that the said Company should not on any Account or upon any Pretence whatsoever employ or set to work in fitting up any such Dwelling Houses, Manufactories, public or private Buildings, any Workmen or Servants or any other Person in the Pay or Employ of the said Company, nor should the said Company themselves manufacture, sell, or vend any of the Materials requisite, Stop-cocks, and Burners, nor directly or indirectly take or derive any Emolument, Advantage, or Profit from such Works: And whereas it is expedient to repeal such Parts of the said recited Act as are lastly herein-before recited, in order to remove the aforesaid Restrictions on the said Company; now therefore be it enacted, That the said Two Provisions in the said Act lastly herein-before recited so as aforesaid imposing such Restrictions shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Enabling the Company to appoint an Agent to enter into Contracts, &c.

XXVI. And in order to obviate the Inconvenience that might otherwise arise to the said Company from their not being able in some Cases to contract, except under and by virtue of their Common Seal, be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for every Agent of the said Company (such Agent to be for these Purposes appointed under under their Common Seal) from Time to Time, and until his Appointment shall be cancelled or revoked, to enter, on behalf of the said Company, into any Contract or Engagement with any Person or Persons for the Purchase and Delivery from, or for the Sale and Delivery or for the supplying to any Person or Persons, any Article or Thing (other than Land, and any Interest in Land,) which it may be requisite in the ordinary Business Transactions and Engagements of the said Company to buy, sell, or supply, and every such Contract and Engagement shall be deemed the Contract or Engagement of the said Company; and the said Company and the said other Party or Parties shall mutually have, prosecute, and urge, by way of Plea, Answer, or Defence in respect of every such Contract and Engagement, and also in respect of any Breach or Result to arise therein or therefrom respectively, all the same Rights and Remedies, Forms of Actions, Suits, and Proceedings whatsoever, both at Law and in Equity, as those to which they would have been respectively entitled, or might have had, adopted, prosecuted, taken, or urged, if the said Contract had in fact been entered into under the Common Seal of the said Company.

Fund for Contingencies.

XXVII. And be it enacted, That before apportioning the Profits of the said Undertaking the said Committee of Management may, if they think fit, set aside thereout such Sum as they may think proper, not exceeding the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, as a Fund to meet Contingencies, or for enlarging, repairing, and improving the Works, or for any other Purpose connected with the said Undertaking or any Part thereof, and may divide the Balance only among the Proprietors.

Limiting the Amount of Profits to be divided amongst the Proprietors.

XXVIII. And be it enacted, That the Profits of the said Undertaking divisible amongst the Proprietors of the said Company shall not exceed Ten Pounds per Centum per Annum upon an Average of the Three preceding Years on the actual Capital of the said Company, consisting of the said Sum of Thirty-seven thousand five hundred Pounds authorized to be raised by the said recited Act, and such additional Sum as may be raised by creating new Shares in manner authorized by this Act.

Accounts to be made up annually for that Purpose.

XXIX. And in order to ascertain the Profits of the said Undertaking, be it enacted, That the said Company or their Committee of Management shall cause a true Account to be kept, and annually made out up to the Twenty-fifth Day of December in each Year, of all Monies received by them under the Authority of the said recited Act and of this Act, and of all Payments, Charges, and Expences attending the Construction, repairing, and maintaining the Works by the said recited Act and this Act authorized to be made, or otherwise relating to the carrying on the said Undertaking.

Providing for Surplus and Reduction of Price of Gas.

XXX. And be it enacted, That when and so soon as the said Fund to meet Contingencies, or for other Purposes herein-before mentioned, shall by Accumulation or otherwise amount to the Sum of Five thousand Pounds, an Account of such contingent Fund, and of the Receipts, Expenditure, and Profits of the said Company, shall be laid before the Justices assembled at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the County of Middlesex, and be filed with the Clerk of the Peace of the said County; and if it shall thereupon appear to such Justices that the Profits of the said Company for the Three preceding Years shall have exceeded the Sum herein-before authorized to be divided amongst the several Proprietors of Shares in the said Undertaking, the Justices may order any Surplus to be disposed of in the better lighting of the Districts lighted by the said Company, or for such other public Purposes as they may direct, and the said Company shall make such a rateable Reduction in the Rents and Prices of Gas to be furnished by the said Company for the then current Year as the said Company may deem prudent, or as in the Judgment of the said Justices shall be proper, until by the Expenditure and Payments of the said Company the contingent Fund shall have been reduced below the said Sum of Five thousand Pounds, when the Price of the Gas may, if necessary, be again raised, and so from Time to Time as often as such Event shall happen.

Repeal of Power to make Bye Laws.

XXXI. And whereas it was by the said recited Act enacted, that the said Company should have full Power and Authority, from Time to Time, at any of their General Meetings, to make such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws as to them should seem meet and proper for the good Government of the said Undertaking, and for regulating the Proceedings of the Committee of Management, and for the regulating of all Officers, Workmen, and Servants to be employed in and about the Affairs and Business of the said Company, and for the Superintendence and Management of the said Undertaking in all respects whatsoever, and from Time to Time to alter or repeal such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws, or any of them, and to make others, and to impose and inflict such reasonable Fines and Forfeitures upon all Persons offending against such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws, or any of them, not exceeding the Sum of Five Pounds for any One Offence, as to the said Company at a General Meeting should seem meet and expedient; and all Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws so made as aforesaid (being reduced into Writing, and a Common Seal of the said Company thereto affixed,) should be binding upon all Persons, and should be sufficient in any Court of Law or Equity to justify all Persons who should act under the same: Provided always, that such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws be not repugnant to the Laws of that Part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, or any of the express Directions or Provisions of the said Act, or to the Provisions of any Act then in force or thereafter to be enacted for regulating the several Roads, Highways, or Trusts through or upon which the Main Pipes and other the necessary Apparatus whatsoever of the said Company might be laid: Provided also, that Copies thereof should be printed, and fixed and continued in the Office of the Clerk, or some other Building of the said Company, and all such Rules, Orders, and Bye Laws should be subject to Appeal in manner by the said recited Act directed; now be it enacted, That the Enactment lastly herein-before recited shall be and the same is hereby repealed.

Penalties to be summarily recovered.

XXXII. Imprisonment in default of Distress.

XXXIII. And be it enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Justices to order any Offender so convicted as aforesaid to be detained and kept in safe Custody until Return can be conveniently made to the Warrant of Distress to be issued for levying such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, unless the Offender give sufficient Security, by way of Recognizance or otherwise, to the Satisfaction of the Justices, for his Appearance before them on the Day appointed for such Return, such Day not being more than Eight Days from the Time of taking such Security; but if before issuing such Warrant of Distress it shall appear to the Justices, by the Admission of the Offender or otherwise, that no sufficient Distress can be had whereon to levy such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs, they may, if they think fit, refrain from issuing such Warrant of Distress; and in such Case, or if such Warrant shall have been issued, and upon the Return thereof such Insufficiency as aforesaid shall be made to appear to the Justices, then such Justices shall by Warrant cause such Offender to be committed to Gaol, there to remain without Bail for any Term not exceeding Three Calendar Months, unless such Penalty or Forfeiture and Costs be sooner paid and satisfied.

For paying the Expences of the Act.

XXXIV. And be it enacted, That all the Costs, Charges, and Expences attending the applying for, obtaining, and passing this Act, and all other Expences incident thereto, shall, in the first place, and in preference to all other Payments whatsoever, be paid by and out of the Money in the Hands of the said Company, or out of the first Money which shall be raised or received under or by virtue of the said recited Act or of this Act, or either of them.
