BRICKS AND STONE.

Control of Bricks, Stone, Cement, Tar and Bitumen.

ORDER, DATED 30TH APRIL, 1941, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE UNDER REGULATION 55 OF THE DEFENCE (GENERAL) REGULATIONS, 1939.

1941. No. 117.

WHEREAS by paragraph 1 of Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, it is provided that a competent authority may, for the purposes of maintaining supplies essential to the life of the community, provide for regulating the production, treatment, keeping, storage, movement, transport, distribution, disposal, acquisition, use or consumption of articles of any description, and, in particular, for controlling the prices at which such articles may be sold :

AND WHEREAS for the purposes of the said Regulation, in its application to Northern Ireland, the Secretary of State is a competent authority :

AND WHEREAS the Secretary of State has delegated to the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland (hereinafter called " the Ministry ") his powers under the said Regulation for the purpose of the control of bricks, stone, cement, tar and bitumen ;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Ministry makes the following order :—

1.—Every person who produces bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen, in Northern Ireland, or who brings bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen into Northern Ireland, shall if required so to do hold the same at the disposal of the Ministry and shall not sell or otherwise dispose of any bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen except in accordance with such prices and terms (if any) as may from time to time be determined by the Ministry.

2.—Every person who produces bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen in Northern Ireland, or who brings bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen into Northern Ireland shall furnish to the Ministry such estimates, returns or information in regard to his production, disposal and stocks as may be requested by the Ministry and shall upon request produce to any person authorised by the Ministry in that behalf such books, accounts or other documents relating to his undertaking as may be mentioned in the request.

3.—Every person who produces bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen in Northern Ireland or who brings bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen into Northern Ireland shall carry out any directions given by the Ministry in regard to his production, treatment, keeping, storage, movement, transport, distribution, and disposal of bricks, stone, cement, tar or bitumen.

4.—This Order may be cited as the Bricks and Stone (Control) (Northern Ireland) Order, 1941.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland this thirtieth day of April, 1941, in the presence of ORDER, DATED 14TH FEBRUARY, 1941, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF PUBLIC SECURITY UNDER REGULATION 26A OF THE DEFENCE (GENERAL) REGULATIONS, 1939.

1941. No. 35.

WHEREAS by the Delegation of Emergency Powers (Northern Ireland) Order, 1941 (a), made on January 23, 1941, by the Secretary of State under Regulation 102A (1) of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939 (b), the Secretary of State delegated his powers as respects Northern Ireland under Regulation 26A of the said Regulations to the Ministry of Public Security for Northern Ireland:

NOW, THEREFORE, the Ministry of Public Security for Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers so delegated to it and of all other powers enabling it in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Areas to which order applies.

1.—If the Ministry is satisfied, on the report of a local authority or otherwise, that the number of persons voluntarily enrolled for the performance of fire prevention duties in the area of a local authority is insufficient to enable that authority to discharge the duties imposed on it by Regulation twenty-seven B of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, the Ministry may direct that this order shall apply to the area of that authority.

Registration.

2.—(1) The local authority for any area to which this order applies shall from time to time, by notice published in the prescribed manner, require all male persons, being British subjects who at the date of the notice are resident in the area or in such part thereof as may be prescribed and are of the prescribed age and are not exempted as hereinafter provided, to make, at such place and time, in such manner and to
