CHAPTER lxiv.

An Act to authorise the Mayor Aldermen and Burgesses of the borough of Brighton to consolidate their Loans and create Corporation Stock and for other purposes. A.D. 1886.

[25th June 1886.]

WHEREAS the borough of Brighton in the county of Sussex (hereinafter referred to as "the borough") is a municipal borough under the government of the mayor aldermen and burgesses thereof (hereinafter referred to as "the Corporation") and the Corporation acting by the council of the borough are the urban sanitary authority for the district of the borough:

And whereas the borough is subject to the provisions now in force of the several public Acts relating to municipal corporations and public health and also of the several local Acts and Orders mentioned and referred to in the Schedule A to this Act annexed:

And whereas the Corporation acting in execution of the aforesaid Acts and Orders have from time to time borrowed various sums of money and the particulars of the amounts of money which were outstanding and due on such loans of the Corporation on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five and the periods for which such loans are sanctioned are set forth in Schedule C to this Act annexed:

And whereas the several sums of money the particulars of which are set forth in Part II of the said Schedule C and the interest thereon are (under the provisions of the Brighton Borough Extension Act 1873) charged solely upon the old borough as it existed before the passing of that Act:

And whereas it is expedient that the Corporation should be empowered to consolidate their loans and exercise their statutory borrowing powers for the time being by means of the creation and issue of Corporation stock and otherwise to improve their financial arrangements:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

A.D. 1886.

And whereas an absolute majority of the whole number of the council at a meeting held on the seventeenth day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five after ten clear days' notice by public advertisement of such meeting and of the purpose thereof in the Brighton Times a local newspaper published and circulating in the borough such notice being in addition to the ordinary notices required for summoning such meeting resolved that the expense in relation to promoting the Bill for this Act should be charged on the borough fund and borough rate:

And whereas such resolution was published twice in the Brighton Examiner a newspaper published and circulating in the borough and has received the approval of one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State and of the Local Government Board:

And whereas the propriety of the promotion of the Bill for this Act was confirmed by an absolute majority of the whole number of the council at a further special meeting held in pursuance of a similar notice on the seventh day of January one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six being not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill for this Act in Parliament:

And whereas the owners and ratepayers of the borough by resolution in the manner provided in the third schedule of the Public Health Act 1875 consented to the promotion of the Bill for this Act:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

from the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six and thereupon the following provisions shall have effect (that is to say) :—

1. All provisions subsisting at the passing of this Act prescribing the time at which or the mode in which any such moneys shall be repaid shall be as regards the said moneys hereby annulled and repealed and all such moneys and all moneys borrowed by the Corporation in lieu thereof or of any portion or portions thereof which may be from time to time paid off by the Corporation otherwise than by instalments or by means of a sinking fund or appropriations or annual repayments or out of the proceeds of the sale of land or other property or out of fines or premiums on leases may be continued on loan or reborrowed as the case may be for any term not exceeding forty-six years from the said thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six Provided that any moneys from time to time reborrowed shall for the purposes of repayment be deemed to form part of the same loan as the moneys in respect of which such reborrowing has been made and the obligations of the Corporation with respect to the paying off of debt shall not be affected by reason of such reborrowing Provided also that nothing in this sub-section shall be construed to compel the holder of any mortgage or other security granted before the passing of this Act to accept payment of the principal due on his security before the time originally fixed or otherwise agreed in that behalf and the Corporation may continue on loan the sums of money secured by any such mortgage or other security until the expiration of the time originally fixed or otherwise agreed for the repayment thereof ;
2. All repayments of any of such moneys which shall not be paid off or redeemed with moneys raised by Corporation stock or in substitution for which Corporation stock shall not be issued under the powers hereafter in this Act contained shall be effected either by equal yearly or half-yearly instalments of principal or of principal and interest or by means of a sinking fund or partly by such instalments and partly by a sinking fund ;
3. The sinking fund shall be applicable to all such moneys as the Corporation are not or do not become bound to repay by instalments as aforesaid and shall be as follows: The Corporation year by year after the year one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six shall on or before the thirty-first day of December appropriate and set apart out of the respective funds and rates on the security of which such moneys have been borrowed such sums (the amount of which shall be equal in every year) as will together with the amount on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six standing to the credit of any existing sinking fund formed for the purpose of repaying any such money when accumulated by way of compound interest at a rate not exceeding three and a half per centum per annum be sufficient to pay off within the said period of forty-six years the balance outstanding at that date of so much of the principal moneys respectively set forth in Part I of the said Schedule C as is to be paid off by means of a sinking fund;

4. Every such sinking fund existing on the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six shall be transferred to the corresponding account in the sinking fund to be accumulated under this section;

5. The yearly sums so to be appropriated and set apart and the sums so to be transferred shall be invested from time to time and accumulated in the way of compound interest by investing the same respectively and the dividends interest and annual income thereof in any statutory security;

6. The Corporation may at any time apply the whole or part of the sinking fund set apart or transferred as aforesaid by them under this Act in or towards the repayment of the borrowed moneys for the repayment of which such sinking fund was set apart in such order and manner as they deem proper Provided that in such case they pay into such sinking fund in each year afterwards and accumulate as hereinbefore prescribed until the whole of the borrowed moneys to which such sinking fund is applicable are discharged a sum equal to the interest produced by the sinking fund or part thereof so applied Provided also that when the amount standing to the credit of the sinking fund shall be equal to the amount of the loan outstanding for the repayment of which it was set aside the Corporation may in lieu of investing the said yearly income apply the same in payment of such interest and may during such periods discontinue the payment to such sinking fund of the yearly sums required to be so paid thereto;

7. The town clerk shall within forty-two days after the expiration of each year during which any sum is required to be set apart for a sinking fund or any instalment is required to be paid under this section transmit to the Local Government Board a return in such form as may be prescribed by that Board and verified by statutory declaration if so required by them showing the amount which has been paid as an instalment or invested for the purposes of such sinking fund during the year next preceding the making of such return and the description of the securities upon which the same has been invested and also showing the purposes to which any portion of the moneys invested for the sinking fund and the interest thereof have been applied during the same period and the total amount if any remaining invested at the end of the year and in the event of any wilful default in making such return the town clerk shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds which shall be paid to the Local Government Board and shall be recoverable by that Board in the same manner as penalties recoverable under the Public Health Act 1875 in a summary manner may be recovered by parties aggrieved within the meaning of that Act If it appear to the Local Government Board by such return or otherwise that the Corporation have failed to pay any such instalment or to set apart the sum required by this section for the sinking fund or have applied any portion of the moneys set apart for that fund or any interest thereof to any other purposes than those authorised by this section the Local Government Board may by order direct that a sum not exceeding double the amount in respect of which such default shall have been made shall be set apart and invested or applied by the Corporation as part of the sinking fund and any such order may be enforced by mandamus to be obtained by the Local Government Board out of the Queen's Bench Division of the High Court of Justice;

8. If at the expiration of the aforesaid period of forty-six years any mortgages granted before the passing of this Act the holders of which cannot be compelled to accept payment of the sums due to them within the said period are still outstanding the Corporation may keep invested after the expiration of the aforesaid period of forty-six years such portion of the aforesaid sinking fund as shall be sufficient to pay off the principal moneys secured by such mortgages and the Corporation shall pay off the same at the times respectively mentioned in that behalf in the respective mortgage deeds and the interest on any such mortgages after the expiration of the said period of forty-six years and until the same are respectively paid off as hereinbefore provided shall be paid out of the interest and annual proceeds of the moneys which the Corporation are by this sub-section empowered to keep invested as aforesaid and if at any time such interest and annual proceeds are insufficient to pay in full the interest on the said mortgages the deficiency so arising shall be made good out of the respective funds or rates which at the passing of this Act are liable in respect of such mortgages and in the order in which they are so liable.

The Corporation may if they think fit with the previous consent in writing of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury by such resolution determine that the provisions of this section shall extend and apply to the loan set forth in Part III of the said schedule and in that event the provisions of this section shall extend and apply to such loan in as full and complete a manner as if the same had been included in Part I of the said schedule.

Notwithstanding anything in this section contained all existing provisions for the repayment of the moneys set forth in Parts I and III of Schedule C to this Act either by instalments or appropriations or by means of a sinking fund shall remain in force until the thirty-first day of December one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six and (in the event of no such resolution as aforesaid being passed by the Corporation or of such resolution not including the loan set forth in Part III of the said Schedule) thereafter in respect of all such moneys or of the loan set forth in Part III of the said schedule as the case may be as if this Act had not been passed.

(b.) As regards the balance of the loan set forth in Part III of the said schedule in the event of the same not being included in such resolution of the Corporation and as regards all the said balances of loans in the event of the Corporation not so resolving as aforesaid and as regards existing loans not set forth in Part I or Part III of Schedule C and as regards loans to be hereafter raised under any statutory borrowing power whether existing at the passing of this Act or to be hereafter created within such period as the Act or Provisional Order or departmental order or sanction authorising the raising of the respective loan shall prescribe for the payment off thereof.

(4.) The Corporation shall from time to time by investment on statutory securities of the sums paid into the loans fund in respect of those several contributions or of proper parts thereof and by like investment of the interest and annual proceeds arising from those securities make and maintain such accumulations as are in this section referred to.

(5.) But if the extinction of any portion of Corporation stock or any part thereof is accelerated by the application to such extinction of any part of the loans fund required by this Act to be applied to the making and maintenance of those accumulations then a sum or sums equal to the dividends on the stock so extinguished shall thenceforth in every year during the residue of the period expressly or by implication limited for the continuance of any loan be paid into the loans fund out of the Corporation revenues chargeable with payment of the dividends on that portion of stock.

Raising of contributions to loans fund.

11. (1.) The Corporation shall from time to time in order to raise the amounts of the several contributions of the two kinds aforesaid out of the several Corporation revenues do all such acts exercise all such powers collect all such money and make and levy all such rates as they lawfully can or ought to do exercise collect make and levy for the purposes of or in relation to the respective statutory borrowing powers in exercise whereof the several portions of Corporation stock are issued.

(2.) If by reason of any limit of a rate or for any other reason there is a deficiency on any Corporation revenue in respect of any required contribution the Corporation shall advance the amount of the deficiency out of the borough fund and borough rate or district fund and general district rate as the Corporation having regard to the provisions of this Act and the objects for which the statutory borrowing power was exercised may consider equitable.

(3.) The amount so advanced shall be a debt due from the Corporation revenue on which the deficiency existed to the fund or rate out of which the advance is made and interest shall be payable thereon at the rate of three and a half per centum per annum until repayment and the same debt and interest shall as soon as in the judgment of the Corporation reasonably may be be raised and paid out of the Corporation revenue on which the deficiency existed.

24. (1.) The Corporation may if they think fit and on and subject to such terms and instructions not inconsistent with any provision of this Act as they think expedient appoint and keep appointed an officer of the Corporation or other person or the Bank of England or any other bank or a banker as registrar for all or any of the purposes of this Act (in this Act referred to as the registrar).

(2.) The Corporation in relation to the provisions of this Act and the registrar shall respectively be deemed a banker within the Bankers Books Evidence Act 1879.

Corporation stock register.

25. (1.) The Corporation or the registrar shall keep books in which shall be entered the names and addresses of holders from time to time of Corporation stock and the amounts held by them (in this Act referred to as the Corporation stock register).

(2.) The Corporation stock register shall be primâ facie evidence of any matter entered therein in accordance with this Act and of the title of the persons entered therein as holders of stock.

Certificates of proprietorship of stock.

26. (1.) On demand of a holder of Corporation stock the Corporation may if they think fit give to him a certificate of the proprietorship thereof under their common seal specifying the amount of Corporation stock to which he is entitled (in this Act referred to as a stock certificate).

(2.) A stock certificate shall be primâ facie evidence of the title of the person therein named his executors administrators successors or assigns to the stock therein specified but the want of a stock certificate if such want be accounted for to the satisfaction of the Corporation shall not prevent the holder of stock from disposing of and transferring the same.

(3.) If a stock certificate is worn out or damaged the Corporation on production thereof may cancel it and give a similar stock certificate to the party in whom the property in the stock certificate and in the stock therein specified is then vested.

(4.) If a stock certificate is lost or destroyed the Corporation on proof thereof to their satisfaction may give a similar stock certificate to the party entitled to the certificate lost or destroyed.

(5.) An entry of the issue of a stock certificate or a substituted certificate as the case may be shall be made in the Corporation stock register.

Transfer.

Power for stockholder to transfer.

27. Subject to the provisions of this Act every Corporation stockholder may transfer all or any part of his stock in books or by deed.

Transfer in books.

28. (1.) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of Corporation stock makes the same transferable in books and not by deed the provisions of this section shall apply and have effect but not otherwise.

A.D. 1886.

(2.) The Corporation or the registrar shall keep books wherein transfers of Corporation stock so transferable shall be entered (in this Act referred to as the Corporation stock transfer books).

(3.) Every such entry shall be conceived in proper words for the purpose of transfer and shall be signed by the party making the transfer or if he is absent by his agent thereunto lawfully authorised in writing under his hand attested by a witness.

(4.) Where any bank are the registrar they may if they think fit require that the agent be so authorised by power of attorney under the hand and seal of the party making the transfer attested by two or more credible witnesses.

(5.) The person to whom a transfer is made may if he thinks fit underwrite his acceptance thereof.

(6.) Except as otherwise provided by some other Act of Parliament and subject to the provisions of this Act respecting any portion of Corporation stock which the resolution for creation thereof makes transferable by deed and not in books no mode of transferring Corporation stock other than that prescribed in this section shall be good in law.

Transfer by deed.

29. (1.) If and where the resolution for creation of any portion of Corporation stock makes the same transferable by deed and not in books the provisions of this section shall apply and have effect but not otherwise.

(2.) Every transfer of Corporation stock so transferable shall be by deed.

(3.) The deed of transfer shall relate only to the transfer and shall not contain any recital trust power or proviso whatsoever.

(4.) The deed of transfer when duly executed shall be delivered to and kept by the Corporation or the registrar and the Corporation or the registrar shall enter a memorial thereof in a book to be called the register of transfers of Corporation stock and shall indorse on the deed of transfer a notice of that entry.

(5.) The Corporation or the registrar shall on demand and on delivery up of the old stock certificate or on proof satisfactory to the Corporation of its absence deliver a new stock certificate to the purchaser or shall at the option of the purchaser make an indorsement of the transfer on the existing stock certificate which indorsement being signed by direction of the Corporation or by the registrar shall be equivalent to a new stock certificate.

(6.) Until the deed of transfer has been so delivered to the Corporation or the registrar the Corporation or the registrar shall not be affected thereby and the purchaser of the stock shall not be entitled to receive any dividend thereon.

Evidence on transfer.

30. (1.) The Corporation or the registrar before allowing any transfer of stock may if the circumstances of the case appear to them or him to make it expedient require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to make the transfer.

(2.) That evidence shall be a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons or of such other nature as the Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation may require.

Closing of transfer books.

31. (1.) The Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation may as regards any portion of Corporation stock close the Corporation stock transfer books or the register of transfers of Corporation stock (as the case may be) on any day not more than thirty days next before the date on which dividends on that portion of Corporation stock are payable but so that the books be not at any time kept closed for more than twenty-one days.

(2.) The persons who on the day of such closing are inscribed as Corporation stockholders shall as between them and their transferees of Corporation stock be entitled to the dividend next payable thereon.

Stamp duty on transfers.

32. Unless the Corporation have compounded for stamp duty all stock issued by the Corporation shall notwithstanding anything in any resolution of the Corporation be transferable by deed and not in books and every deed of transfer of stock transferable by deed shall be duly stamped and the consideration shall be truly stated therein.

Transmission.

Transmission on death.

33. (1.) The interest in Corporation stock of a stockholder dying shall be transferable by his executors or administrators notwithstanding any specific bequest thereof.

(2.) The Corporation or the registrar shall not be required to allow any executors or administrators to transfer any stock until the probate of the will of or the letters of administration to the deceased has or have been left with the Corporation or the registrar for registration and may require all the executors who have proved the will to join in the transfer.

Transmission on bankruptcy marriage &c.

34. (1.) If the interest in any Corporation stock has become transmitted in consequence of the bankruptcy of a stockholder or the marriage of a female stockholder or by any lawful means other than a transfer in books or by deed or than the death of a stockholder that transmission shall be authenticated by a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons or in such other manner as the Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation require.

A.D. 1886.

(2.) The declaration shall state the manner in which and the party to whom the stock has been transmitted and shall be left with the Corporation or the registrar.

(3.) If the transmission is in consequence of the marriage of a female stockholder the declaration shall if the Corporation or the registrar so require set forth a copy of the register of the marriage or other particulars of the celebration thereof and declare the identity of the wife with the holder of the stock.

(4.) The name of the person entitled under the transmission shall be entered in the Corporation stock register.

(5.) Until the transmission has been so authenticated the Corporation or the registrar shall not be affected thereby and no person claiming by virtue thereof shall be entitled to receive any dividend on the stock.

(6.) In this section the term transmission includes any case of apparent transmission in consequence of the change of name of the stockholder although the actual ownership of the stock may remain unaltered.

Dividends.

Payment of dividends.

35. The Corporation may pay by the registrar the dividends on Corporation stock.

Dividends to executors &c.

36. The Corporation or the registrar shall not be required to allow any executors or administrators to receive any dividend on Corporation stock held by their testator or intestate until the probate of the will or the letters of administration has or have been left with the Corporation or the registrar for registration.

Evidence of title.

37. The Corporation or the registrar before allowing the receipt of any dividend on any Corporation stock may if the circumstances of the case appear to them or him to make it expedient require evidence of the title of any person claiming a right to receive the dividend and that evidence shall be a statutory declaration of competent persons or of such other nature as the Corporation or the registrar may with the approval of the Corporation require.

Dividends to joint holders.

38. (1.) Where more persons than one are registered as joint holders of any Corporation stock any one of them may give an effectual receipt for any dividend thereon unless notice to the contrary has been given to the Corporation and to the registrar by any other of them.

(2.) Where Corporation stock is standing in the name of an infant or person of unsound mind jointly with any person not under legal disability a letter of attorney for receipt of the dividends on the stock shall be sufficient authority in that behalf if given under the hand and seal of the person not under disability attested by two or more credible witnesses but the Corporation or the registrar before acting on the letter of attorney may if they or he think fit require proof to their or his satisfaction of the alleged infancy or unsoundness of mind by a statutory declaration of one or more competent persons.

Dividend warrants by post.

39. (1.) Where a Corporation stockholder desires to have his dividends sent to him by post he may make a request for that purpose to the Corporation or the registrar in writing signed by him in a form approved by the Corporation and shall give to the Corporation or the registrar an address in the United Kingdom or in the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man to which the letters containing the warrants are from time to time to be sent.

(2.) The posting by the Corporation or the registrar of a letter containing a dividend warrant addressed to a stockholder at his request at the address so given by him shall as respects the liability of the Corporation and of the registrar be equivalent to the delivery of the warrant to the stockholder himself.

(3.) Every warrant so sent by post shall be deemed a cheque and the Corporation and the registrar shall in relation thereto be deemed a banker within the Bills of Exchange Act, 1882.

Stock Certificates with Coupons to Bearer.

Provisions respecting stock certificates with coupons to bearer.

40. (1.) On demand of a Corporation stockholder the Corporation or the registrar with the approval of the Corporation may issue to the stockholder a Corporation stock certificate to bearer that is to say a certificate of title to his stock or any part thereof entitling the bearer to the stock therein specified and transferable by delivery with coupons entitling the bearer of the coupons to the dividends on the stock but so that no such certificate or coupons shall give a title to dividends beyond the time limited for redemption of the stock.

(2.) A Corporation stock certificate to bearer shall not be issued in respect of any sum of stock other than ten pounds or a multiple of ten pounds.

(3.) Notwithstanding anything in this Act a trustee shall not apply for purchase take or hold a Corporation stock certificate to bearer unless he is in express words authorised to do so by the instrument creating his trust and any contravention of this provision by a trustee shall be deemed a breach of trust but this provision shall not impose on the Corporation or the registrar an obligation to inquire or to take notice whether a person applying for or holding a stock certificate to bearer is or is not a trustee or subject the Corporation or the registrar to any liability in case of their or his with or without notice issuing to a trustee a stock certificate to bearer or invalidate any stock certificate to bearer issued.

(4.) Where a Corporation stock certificate to bearer is outstanding the stock represented thereby shall cease to be transferable in books or by deed under and according to the provisions of this Act.

(5.) The bearer of a Corporation stock certificate to bearer may on delivery up to the Corporation or the registrar of the certificate and of all unpaid coupons belonging thereto require to be entered in the Corporation stock register as the holder of the stock described in the certificate under which he derives title and thereupon the stock shall be re-entered in the register as transferable and shall become and again be transferable in the Corporation stock transfer books or by deed as the case may require and shall as regards the mode of payment of the dividends thereon be in the like condition as if no stock certificate to bearer had been issued in respect thereof.

(6.) The coupons issued with a Corporation stock certificate to bearer shall comprise the dividends to be paid in respect of the stock therein specified for such period as the Corporation approve.

(7.) At the end of that period fresh coupons may be issued for such further period as the Corporation approve and so for successive periods during the continuance in force of the stock certificate but the Corporation or the registrar may in lieu of issuing fresh coupons in respect of any stock certificate give in exchange a fresh stock certificate with coupons.

(8.) Payment to the bearer of a coupon of the amount expressed therein shall be a full discharge to the Corporation and to the registrar from all liability in respect of that coupon and the dividend represented thereby.

(9.) Where any bank are the registrar coupons shall be payable at the chief establishment of such bank at the expiration of three clear days from the day of presentation and at any branch establishment of such bank situate more than ten miles from the chief establishment at the expiration of five clear days from the day of presentation.

(10.) If a Corporation stock certificate to bearer or coupon is worn out or damaged the Corporation or the registrar on production and delivery up thereof may cancel it and issue a new certificate or coupon.

(11.) If a Corporation stock certificate to bearer or coupon is lost or destroyed the Corporation or the registrar may issue a new certificate or coupon on receiving indemnity to the satisfaction of the Corporation against the claims of all persons deriving title under the certificate or coupon lost or destroyed.

(12.) All coupons issued under this Act in respect of any Corporation stock certificate to bearer shall for the purposes of the Acts relating to stamp duties be deemed to have been attached to and issued with such stock certificate.

(13.) Corporation stock specified in a stock certificate to bearer shall be charged on the same securities and be subject to the same powers of redemption if any and other powers and save as regards the mode of transfer and of payment of dividends thereon and save so far as a stock certificate to bearer is a negotiable instrument shall be subject to the same incidents in all respects as if that stock had continued to be registered in the Corporation stock register as transferable in books or by deed.

Approval may be general.

41. The approval of the Corporation required by this Act to be given to any act of the registrar may be a general approval applying to all or any cases in which such approval is or may from time to time be required.

N.B.—Stockholders may arrange for the receipt of their dividends free of charge at any of the country branches on application to the agent.

II. By transmission of dividend warrants by post at the risk of the stockholder under the following regulations:—

1. Any stockholder residing within the United Kingdom or in the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man who desires to have his dividend warrant sent to his address by post must fill up a form of application to be obtained at the bank or at any of its branches.
2. In the case of joint accounts the application must be signed by all the members of the account directing the warrant to be sent to one of them at a given address.
3. Post dividend warrants will be crossed & Co. and will only be payable through a banker. They will be drawn to the order of the stockholder and must be endorsed.

☞Stockholders whose warrants are sent by post should give notice to the bank if they are not received on the day on which they ought to be delivered but need not acknowledge those that arrive in due course.

STOCK CERTIFICATES TO BEARER.

Stock certificates to bearer of the denominations of [£10 or any multiple of £10 with coupons] for the quarterly dividends attached may be obtained in exchange for inscribed stock except in the case of trust property.

NOTICE TO HOLDERS OF BRIGHTON CORPORATION REDEEMABLE STOCK.
(£ PER CENT.)
TRANSMISSSION OF DIVIDEND WARRANTS BY POST.

Dividends upon the above-named stock may be transmitted through the post to the stockholder in sole accounts, and to any one of the stockholders in joint accounts at their risk upon a form of request being duly filled up and forwarded to the Registrar of Brighton Corporation Stock at ,
(Forms are obtainable at the [ ] BANK and at any of its branches.)

N.B.—This arrangement does not apply to stockholders whose addresses are beyond the United Kingdom the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man.

Persons receiving dividends under letter of attorney cannot have the warrants for such dividends sent to them by post.

A separate form must be used for each separate holding of stock.

When forwarding a form of request care should be taken to state the number of overdue dividends if any.

Dividends are payable on [1*st January* 1*st April* 1*st July* and 1*st October*].

When the [1*st*] happens on a Sunday or Christmas Day Good Friday or Bank Holiday the dividends are not payable until the [2*nd*].

Forms of request may be delivered at the bank at any date either by hand or through the post but when received between the day on which the balance for a dividend is struck and the day on which the dividend is payable the warrants for such next dividend will be forwarded as soon as possible but the bank will not guarantee their being posted on the day before the dividend is payable.

For the dividend payable [1*st January*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st December*].

For the dividend payable [1*st April*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st March*].

For the dividend payable [1*st July*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st June*].

For the dividend payable [1*st October*] the balance is struck on or about the [1*st September*].

Warrants for overdue dividends will be forwarded as promptly as possible but not necessarily by return of post.

Any change of address of the stockholder in sole accounts or of the nominee in joint accounts should be notified at once to the Registrar. When any such notification reaches the bank less than a fortnight before the next dividend is due there may be a delay of a few days in the delivery of the warrant for such next dividend.

In the absence of any notification to the contrary it will be taken for granted that dividend warrants have duly reached their destinations When they are not received on the correct day notice should be given to the Registrar without delay.

As postal dividend warrants are made payable to order they must be indorsed They are crossed in blank and consequently are only payable on presentation by a banker (The bank will not undertake to cross postal dividend warrants with the names of particular bankers).

Instructions to transmit warrants by post remain in force although the stock may have been added to or a part sold.

Stockholders selling stock by attorney if they wish to continue to receive their dividends through the post should instruct their bankers or brokers to obtain letters of attorney for sale only.

All communications with reference to postal dividend warrants should be addressed to the Registrar of Brighton Corporation Stock at and the postage should be prepaid.
