The British Protectorates, Protected States and Protected Persons (Amendment) Order in Council 1962

Made - - - - 27th June 1962

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of June 1962

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 30 (3) of the British Nationality Act 1948(a) and paragraph 7 of the First Schedule to the South Africa Act 1962(b) and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order may be cited as the British Protectorates, Protected States and Protected Persons (Amendment) Order in Council 1962; and the British Protectorates, Protected States and Protected Persons Orders in Council 1949 to 1961(c) and this Order may be cited together as the British Protectorates, Protected States and Protected Persons Orders in Council 1949 to 1962.

2. Section 8 (1) of the British Protectorates, Protected States and Protected Persons Order in Council 1949(d), as amended(e), is amended by the deletion of the word "and" in the two places where it occurs immediately after the word "Act" and by the insertion immediately after the figure "1958" of the words "and in paragraph 2 of the First Schedule to the South Africa Act 1962".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the South Africa Act 1962 citizens of the Republic of South Africa are given for a limited period the same rights as British subjects to apply for registration as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies. An application cannot be made after the end of 1965 unless the applicant has before then given notice of his intention to apply. Among the persons entitled to give notice are persons ordinarily resident in a protectorate or employed by a society, company, or body of persons established in a protectorate. Under this Order the protected state of Brunei will count as a protectorate for this purpose.
