At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of October, 1961

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is proposed that an agreement, to be entitled the Buganda Agreement, 1961, should be made between Her Majesty on the one part and the Kabaka, Chiefs and people of Buganda on the other part revoking certain agreements now subsisting between them and making fresh provision in lieu thereof:

And whereas it is proposed that in due course provision should be made by Order of Her Majesty in Council for giving effect to certain provisions of the Buganda Agreement, 1961, and it is expedient that in the meantime the Governor of the Uganda Protectorate should have power to give effect to the provisions of the said Agreement to such extent as appears to him desirable:

2.—(1) When the Buganda Agreement, 1961, has been executed it shall be published in the Gazette.

(2) If, in the opinion of the Governor, it is desirable at any time after the execution of the Buganda Agreement, 1961, that any of the provisions of that Agreement should, in accordance with the terms thereof, be given the force of law or otherwise given effect to by law, then he may, by regulation published in the Gazette, make such provision as in his opinion is necessary or expedient in that behalf.

(a) 53 & 54 Vict. c. 37. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) Regulations made under this section may provide that any of the provisions of the Buganda Agreement, 1955, that have the force of law by virtue of any Proclamation made under the Buganda Agreement, 1955, Order in Council, 1955(a), shall cease to have the force of law on such date as may be prescribed:
