EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the regulations but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These regulations provide for a general increase in the level of the fees payable in the Registry in connection with the exercise by the Registrar of his functions under the Building Societies Act (Northern Ireland) 1967, and for the inspection and the furnishing of copies or extracts of documents. The fees payable for reference of a dispute to the Registrar and for his award remain unchanged. These regulations supersede the Building Societies (Fees) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1975.
