Provided that the seller shall at the time of such sale be able and willing to sell to any buyer, to the extent of that buyer's reasonable requirements, bread that is not so wrapped.

4. If, on a sale of bread, the maximum price calculated in accordance with the provisions of this Order includes any fraction of a farthing, such fraction shall if equal to half a farthing or more be regarded as one farthing and shall otherwise be disregarded.

5. Except as aforesaid, no additional charge in respect of wrapping, packing or slicing shall be made or demanded by the seller on or in connection with any sale of bread.".

2. This Order may be cited as the Bread (Amendment No. 3) Order, 1949; and shall come into operation on the 30th day of October, 1949.

Dated the 20th day of October, 1949.

John Strachey,
Minister of Food.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order:—

(1) removes the restriction on the buying and selling of sliced bread and wrapped bread; and

(2) permits an addition, at the rate of one farthing for each fourteen ounces (net weight) of bread sold, to the maximum price of bread sold by retail in sealed wrappers made of waxed paper or cellulose film.
