CHAPTER v.

An Act to re-define the limits of supply of the Camborne Water Company to confer additional powers upon the Company and for other purposes. [12th June 1941.]

WHEREAS the Camborne Water Company (in this Act called "the Company") were incorporated by the Camborne Water Act 1867 (in this Act referred to as "the Act of 1867") and are by the Act of 1867 the Camborne Water Order 1890 (confirmed by the Water Orders Confirmation (No. 2) Act 1890) the Camborne Water Act 1908 and the Camborne Water Act 1935 empowered to construct works and to supply water within the limits of the county of Cornwall set forth in the Act of 1867: 30 Vict. c. lxxi. 53 & 54 Vict. c. ci. 8 Edw. 7. c. liii. 25 & 26 Geo. 5. c. ci.

And whereas a statement of the authorised share and loan capital of the Company is set forth in the First Schedule to this Act:

And whereas the Company have in recent years raised and expended capital amounting to upwards of twenty-five thousand pounds upon the construction of certain works authorised by the Act of 1935 and upon extensions of mains and other works for the supply of water at the request in certain instances of the local authorities concerned to certain sparsely populated rural areas within the said limits in which a public supply of water was urgently needed:

And whereas the rates and charges which the Company are authorised to demand and take for the supply of water for domestic purposes have never been increased but remain those authorised by the Act of 1867 and it is expedient that the methods of charge should be modernised and also that in view of the capital expenditure hereinbefore referred to of the increase in the cost of labour and materials since that date and of other causes not arising out of the present war the further powers contained in this Act with respect to such rates and charges should be conferred upon the Company:

And whereas at various dates the Company have borrowed the aggregate sum of seven thousand one hundred and twenty-five pounds secured by the issue of certain bonds (in this Act referred to as "the scheduled bonds") bearing interest at varying rates per centum per annum and it is expedient that doubts which have arisen as to the rights of the holders of such bonds should be removed as provided for by this Act:

And whereas it is expedient that such further provisions should be made with respect to the Company and their undertaking as are in this Act contained:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be attained without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

RATES AND CHARGES SUPPLY OF WATER &C.

Rates for supply of water for domestic purposes.

5.—(1) As from the first usual quarter-day after the passing of this Act section 41 (Rates for supply of water for domestic purposes) and section 42 (Rates for water-closets and baths) of the Act of 1867 shall be by virtue of this Act repealed except for the purpose of recovering rates rents and charges in arrear and in lieu thereof the following provisions of this section shall have effect.

(2) From and after the said quarter-day the Company shall at the request of the owner or occupier of any dwelling-house or part of a dwelling-house entitled under the provisions of the Acts from time to time relating to the Company to demand a supply of water for domestic purposes furnish to such owner or occupier a sufficient supply of water for domestic purposes at such rates per annum as the Company may from time to time determine not exceeding twelve and one-half per centum of the net annual value of the premises so supplied and so in proportion for any shorter period than a year:

Provided that the Company shall not be required to afford a supply of water for domestic purposes to any premises at a less rate than two pence per week.

(3) For the supply of water for domestic purposes at a higher level than four hundred and thirty-six feet above Ordnance datum (Liverpool) the Company may demand and take such additional rates and charges as they think fit not exceeding by more than twenty-five per centum the rates and charges for the time being authorised to be demanded by them for the supply of water for domestic purposes to other premises of similar net annual value within the limits of supply.

(4) The net annual value of any such premises as aforesaid shall be ascertained by the valuation list in force at the commencement of the quarter for which the rate accrues:

Provided that where the water rate is chargeable on the net annual value of a part only of any hereditament entered in the valuation list such net annual value shall be a fairly apportioned part of the net annual value of the whole tenement ascertained as aforesaid the apportionment in case of dispute to be ascertained by a court of summary jurisdiction.

(5) In addition to the foregoing rates the Company may charge in respect of every water-closet beyond the first (for which no additional charge shall be made) on any premises supplied with water a sum not exceeding five shillings per annum and in respect of every fixed bath beyond the first (for which no additional charge shall be made unless the same shall have a capacity in excess of fifty gallons) capable of containing not more than fifty gallons in any premises supplied with water a sum not exceeding ten shillings per annum and in respect of every bath capable of containing more than fifty gallons such sum as the Company may think fit For the purposes of this subsection the capacity of a bath shall be measured to the centre line of the overflow pipe or in such other manner as the Minister of Health may by regulations prescribe.

(6) Any sums charged under subsection (5) of this section shall be recoverable at the like dates and in the same manner as other water rates or charges leviable by the Company under this section can be recovered.

(7) The demanding and taking by the Company prior to the passing of this Act of additional rates and charges in respect of the supply of water for domestic purposes at a higher level than that which was capable of being afforded by gravitation from the several reservoirs and works of the Company is hereby sanctioned and confirmed.

Amendment of section 20 of Act of 1908.

6. Section 20 (Price of supply by measure) of the Act of 1908 shall be read and have effect as if the words "two shillings and sixpence" were inserted therein in lieu of the words "two shillings."

Power to require supply to certain premises and for certain purposes to be taken by measure.

7.—(1) The Company shall not be bound to supply with water otherwise than by measure—

(a) any premises used as a house whereof a part is used by the same occupier for any business trade or manufacturing purpose for which water is required;

(b) any public institution hospital mental institution nursing home sanatorium school club hostel assembly hall place of public entertainment hotel restaurant or licensed premises within the meaning of that expression as used in the Licensing (Consolidation) Act 1910;

10 Edw. 7. & 1 Geo. 5. c. 24.

(c) any boarding-house capable of accommodating twelve or more persons including the persons usually resident therein; or

(d) any premises which are used solely for business trade or manufacturing purposes and in which a supply of water for domestic purposes only is required.

(2) Where a supply of water to a farmhouse is used for farming purposes the Company may require that the supply for farming purposes shall be taken by measure but nothing in this section shall authorise the Company to refuse a supply of water for domestic purposes to a farmhouse at the ordinary rate.

(3) The minimum annual charge for a supply of water by measure to any of the premises in subsection (1) of this section mentioned shall be a sum equal to the annual amount which would be payable according to the scale for the time being in force for a domestic supply furnished to a dwelling-house of the same net annual value.

Charges for horses and washing vehicles.

8.—(1) Where a person who takes a supply of water for domestic purposes otherwise than by measure is the occupier of stables garages or other premises where horses or motor cars or other carriages are kept and the water supplied to that person for domestic purposes is used for horses or washing motor cars or carriages or for other purposes in or in connection with such premises the Company may—

(a) if the water so used can be taken from a stand-pipe or tap (not being a stand-pipe or tap within any house occupied with such premises) but no hose-pipe or other similar apparatus be used in connection with such stand-pipe or tap charge in respect of the water so used such sum not exceeding ten shillings per annum as they may prescribe and where more motor cars or carriages than one are kept a further sum not exceeding five shillings for each motor car or carriage beyond the first; or

(b) if the water so used be used by means of a hose-pipe or other similar apparatus charge in respect of the water so used such sum not exceeding twenty shillings per annum as they may prescribe and where more motor cars or carriages than one are kept a further sum not exceeding ten shillings per annum for each motor car or carriage beyond the first.

(2) Any sums chargeable under subsection (1) of this section shall be in addition to the rates authorised for the supply of water for domestic purposes and shall be payable at the same dates and be recoverable in all respects with and in the same manner as those rates.

(3) Where water supplied by the Company to a person who takes a supply both for domestic purposes and by meter for trade or other purposes is used by him by means of a hose-pipe or other similar apparatus for horses or washing motor cars or carriages or for other purposes in or in connection with stables garages or premises where horses motor cars or carriages are kept the Company may if they think fit require that all water so used by means of such hose-pipe or other apparatus shall be taken by meter on the conditions and at the rates for the time being in force for the supply of water by meter.

Charges for refrigerating apparatus &c.

9. If a person who takes a supply of water for domestic purposes from the Company otherwise than by measure desires to use any of the water so supplied—

(a) for operating a water-cooled refrigerating apparatus;

(b) for operating any apparatus depending while in use upon a supply of continuously running water not being an apparatus used solely for heating the water; or

(c) for cleaning regenerating or supplying motive power to any apparatus used for softening water;

the Company may require that all water so used shall be taken by measure and paid for accordingly or may charge for water so used on such other terms as may be agreed between such person and the Company:

Provided that nothing in this section shall apply to apparatus used for softening water if one such apparatus only is used and the water softened thereby is used solely for domestic purposes.

Revision of rates and charges.

10.—(1) Within three years after the passing of this Act (or within such extended period as upon the application of the Company and after considering any representations with respect to any such proposed extended period made by any local authority having jurisdiction within the limits of supply the Minister of Health may allow) the Company shall make application to the Minister of Health so as to afford to him an opportunity of making an order varying either by way of increase or decrease the rates and charges for the supply of water authorised by this Act or altering the basis of such rates and charges and if the said Minister is satisfied having regard to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section that such variation or alteration ought to be made he may make such order accordingly.

(2) If the Company or a local authority having jurisdiction within the limits of supply apply to the Minister for a revision of the rates and charges for the supply of water authorised by this Act or for the time being in force under any order of the said Minister made in pursuance of this section and the said Minister is satisfied that the cost of labour and materials or other circumstances affecting the undertaking have substantially altered he may by order vary either by way of increase or decrease such rates and charges or any of them and such order shall fix the date on which the rates and charges so varied shall come into force:

Provided that in the absence of exceptional circumstances the said Minister shall not vary any of the said rates and charges in pursuance of an application under this subsection until after the expiration of five years from the date of his decision on the last preceding application under this section.

15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 90.

(3) The making of any new valuation list under Part II of the Rating and Valuation Act 1925 shall be deemed to be a circumstance affecting the undertaking within the meaning and for the purposes of this section.

(4) The rates and charges prescribed in any order made in pursuance of this section shall be of such respective amounts as to produce (after providing for all proper expenses of and in connection with the working management and maintenance of the undertaking and making good depreciation and providing for any contribution which the Company may carry to any reserve fund or contingency fund formed under the provisions of this or any other Act and paying all other costs charges and expenses (if any) properly chargeable to revenue) a reasonable return on the share capital of the Company due regard being had to any capital which may be reasonably expected to be expended by the Company during the five years immediately following the date of such order.

As to section 72 of Waterworks Clauses Act 1847.

11. Section 72 of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 as incorporated with this Act shall in relation to the undertaking be read and have effect as if for the reference therein to "annual value" there were substituted a reference to the net annual value ascertained by the valuation list in force for the time being under the Rating and Valuation Act 1925.

Water rates on small tenements may be demanded from owners.

12.—(1) Where a house supplied with water by the Company has a net annual value not exceeding thirteen pounds and is let to tenants holding for any period less than a quarter of a year the owner instead of the occupier shall if the Company so determine pay the rate for the supply of water:

Provided that in any area in which a higher limit of value than thirteen pounds is in force for the purposes of the proviso to subsection (1) of section eleven of the Rating and Valuation Act 1925 that higher limit shall be deemed to be substituted in this section for thirteen pounds.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in the preceding subsection any such rate may be demanded and recovered by the Company from the occupier and if it is so recovered the occupier shall unless as between himself and the owner he is liable to pay the rate be entitled to deduct the amount so paid from his rent:

Provided that an occupier shall not be required to pay at any one time any sum in excess of the amount which was due from him on account of rent at or has become due from him on account of rent since the date on which he received a demand from the Company together with a notice requiring him not to pay rent to his landlord without deducting the sum so demanded.

(3) The provisions of section 73 of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 shall mutatis mutandis extend and apply to a payment made under this section by the owner of any house and as if that section applied in the case of any lease or agreement whether entered into before or after the passing of this Act.

Source of supply may be determined by Company.

13. The Company shall be at liberty to supply water to any part of the area within the limits of supply from such source authorised by the Acts and Orders relating to their undertaking as in the exercise of their discretion and in the administration and management of the undertaking they shall deem necessary or expedient:

Provided that the Company shall not under this section cease to afford a constant supply of water under adequate pressure to any consumer to whom such a supply is being afforded by them.

Cisterns to be provided for high level supplies.

14. The Company may require that any dwelling-house the erection of which is commenced after the passing of this Act and which is situate on land at a higher level than fifty feet below the draw-off level of the service reservoir from which a supply of water is furnished or to be furnished by them to such dwelling-house shall be provided with a cistern or cisterns capable of containing a total quantity of water sufficient to provide an adequate supply to such dwelling-house for a period of twenty-four hours and the Company shall not be required to supply any such dwelling-house until the same is provided with a cistern or cisterns in conformity with the requirements of this section.

Power to sell meters.

15. The Company may sell meters and any fittings connected therewith upon and subject to such terms (pecuniary or otherwise) and conditions as they think fit.

Communication pipes not to be connected with trunk mains.

16. Notwithstanding anything in any former Act relating to the Company or in this Act the provisions of the Waterworks Clauses Act 1847 with respect to—the communication pipes to be laid by the undertakers; and the communication pipes to be laid by the inhabitants;

shall not extend to impose any obligation on the Company to lay or to empower any owner or occupier of a dwelling-house or other person except with the consent of the Company to lay any pipe to communicate with any of the lines of pipes specifically authorised by any former Act relating to the Company and shown on the deposited plans relating to any such Act or with any existing line of pipes of the Company having an internal diameter of not less than six inches and accordingly none of those lines of pipes shall be deemed to be pipes laid down by the undertakers or pipes of the undertakers for the purposes of the said provisions of the said Act of 1847.

Purchase of water in bulk.

17. The Company may enter into and carry into effect agreements with any authority water board company body or person supplying water under parliamentary authority and with the approval of the Minister of Health in the case of any water intended for domestic consumption with any other authority company body or person for the purchase of water in bulk by the Company for such price and on such terms and conditions and for such period as may be agreed upon and any water so purchased may be used by the Company for the purpose of the undertaking.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS.

Power to borrow.

18.—(1) The Company may without the certificate of a justice borrow on mortgage of the undertaking in respect of any share capital issued before the first day of November nineteen hundred and forty any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole (when added to any money borrowed on mortgage or by the scheduled bonds or raised by the creation and issue of debenture stock by the Company before the passing of this Act and outstanding at the date or respective dates on which the Company may exercise the powers of this section) twenty-six thousand eight hundred and thirty-four pounds.

(2) The Company may also borrow on mortgage of the undertaking in respect of any share capital issued by them after the first day of November nineteen hundred and forty any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole one-half of the amount (including premiums and allowing for discounts) which at the time of borrowing has been so issued and in the case of any capital raised by the issue of redeemable preference shares or stock has not been redeemed by paying off the shares or stock:

Provided that no sum shall be borrowed in respect of any such share capital until the Company have proved to a justice before he gives his certificate under section 40 of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 that the whole of the amounts payable in respect of such share capital at the time issued together with the premium (if any) realised on the sale thereof has been fully paid up.

As to scheduled bonds.

19. For the removal of doubts it is hereby declared that the scheduled bonds shall for all purposes (notwithstanding that the amount borrowed upon the security of the same or part thereof was or may have been in excess of the amount which the Company were at the respective dates of the said bonds entitled to borrow) confer the same rights and be subject to the like incidents as if they had been mortgages of the undertaking for securing the repayment on the dates stated therein of the amounts thereby secured together with interest at the respective rates so stated validly issued by the Company in exercise of the powers of subsection (2) of section 59 (Power to borrow) of the Act of 1935 except that all mortgages created or issued or granted or renewed or re-issued by the Company prior to the passing of this Act shall (notwithstanding anything contained in section 15 (All future debenture stock and mortgages of Company to rank pari passu) of the Act of 1908) have priority over the scheduled bonds and the provisions of section 62 (Priority of mortgages over other debts) of the Act of 1935 shall apply to the said bonds accordingly as if they had been mortgages so issued.

Debenture stock. 32 & 33 Vict. c. 48.

20. The Company may create and issue debenture stock subject to the provisions of Part III of the Companies Clauses Act 1863 as amended by the Companies Clauses Act 1869 and of section 20 (Power to create debenture stock) of the Order of 1890.

Appointment of receiver.

21. Section 61 (Appointment of receiver) of the Act of 1935 shall extend to mortgagees of the Company in respect of mortgages granted under this Act.

Priority of mortgages over other debts.

22. All moneys raised or to be raised by the Company on mortgage or by the creation and issue of debenture stock under the provisions of this Act shall have priority against the Company and the property from time to time of the Company over all other claims on account of any debts incurred or engagements entered into by them after the passing of this Act:

Provided that this priority shall not affect any claim against the Company or their property in respect of any rentcharge granted or to be granted by them in pursuance of the Lands Clauses Acts or in respect of any rent or sum reserved by or payable under any lease granted or made to or vested in the Company which is entitled to rank in priority to or pari passu with the interest on their mortgages or debenture stock nor shall anything in this section contained affect any claim for land taken used or occupied by the Company for the purposes of the undertaking and works of the Company or injuriously affected by the construction thereof or by the exercise of any powers conferred on the Company.

Priority of existing mortgages.

23. The principal moneys secured by all mortgages granted by the Company before the passing of this Act and by the scheduled bonds and subsisting at the passing thereof shall during the continuance of such mortgages and bonds respectively and subject to the provisions of the Act or Order under which such mortgages or bonds were respectively granted (including the provisions of this Act relating to the said bonds) have priority over the principal moneys secured by any mortgages granted by virtue of this Act but nothing in this section contained shall affect any priority of the interest of any debenture stock at any time created and issued by the Company.

Limit on reserve and contingency fund.

24. Notwithstanding anything in section 64 (Reserve fund) of the Act of 1935—

(1) The aggregate amount which may be carried by the Company in any year to any reserve fund formed under the said section 64 and to any contingency fund formed under section 122 of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act 1845 shall not exceed a sum equal to one and a half per centum of the capital of the Company for the time being authorised;

(2) The aggregate amount standing to the credit of any such reserve fund and contingency fund of the Company shall together not at any time exceed a sum equal to fifteen per centum of the capital of the Company for the time being authorised.

Limit on carry forward.

25. It shall be lawful for the Company to carry forward at the end of any year to the credit of the profit and loss (net revenue) account any sum not exceeding the total of the following amounts:—

(a) The amount required by the Company for paying any dividend or interest which the Company are entitled or required to pay but have not paid in respect of that year;

(b) An amount equal to the total sum which the Company would be lawfully entitled to distribute as dividends on their preference and ordinary capital in respect of the next following year; and

(c) An amount equal to the total sum which the Company will be required to pay during the next following year as interest on any mortgages debentures or debenture stock or on the scheduled bonds.

Saving for emergency powers of Treasury.
2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 62.
3 & 4 Geo. 6. c. 20.

26. So long as the making of an issue of capital in the United Kingdom without the consent of the Treasury is prohibited by regulations made under the Emergency Powers (Defence) Acts 1939 and 1940 it shall not be lawful to exercise the powers of borrowing conferred by this Act without such consent.

MISCELLANEOUS.
