WHEREAS by the Local and Personal Act, 6th Vict. Chapter 12, intituled An Act for removing the present Markets held in the County of the Borough of Carmarthen, and for providing other Market Places, and regulating the Markets to be held therein, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough were authorized to provide and maintain Market Places for the Sale of Cattle, Live Stock, Provisions, and other marketable Commodities, and to take Tolls in such Markets, and also to take Tolls for the Use of the Slaughter-houses provided by the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses: And whereas under the Powers of the said Act, the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses have constructed a new and convenient Market for the Sale of Provisions and other marketable Commodities, and have used the Site of the former Provision Market for a Cattle Market: And whereas by reason of the Increase of the Population, lation, and the Extension of the Trade and Commerce of the Borough, the Place now used for holding the Cattle Market thereof is too small and confined, and in consequence of the Want of sufficient Space and Accommodation therein Cattle and Live Stock are exposed for Sale in the public Streets and Thoroughfares adjacent to the said Market Place, to the great Inconvenience of the Inhabitants of such Streets and of the Public, and it is necessary and expedient that a larger and more convenient Cattle Market Place should be provided, and that the Site of the existing Cattle Market should be sold or otherwise appropriated for the Benefit of the Borough: And whereas the Slaughter-house belonging to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses is situate in a low and populous Part of the Borough, and is injurious to the Health of the Inhabitants, and it is expedient that another Slaughter-house in a more convenient Situation should be provided, and that the Use of the existing Slaughter-house should be discontinued, and the Building and the Site thereof sold or otherwise applied for the Benefit of the Borough: And whereas it is expedient that Provision should be made for preventing Frauds in the weighing and Sale of Cask Butter within the Limits of this Act, and for enabling Persons selling Cask Butter therein to have the same weighed and classified by a public Officer, and the Weight and Quality of such Butter branded or marked on the Casks containing the same: And whereas it is expedient that Powers to provide such new Market Place and Slaughter-houses, and that further Powers for regulating the Cattle Market and Slaughter-houses of the Borough, and for taking Tolls therein or for the Use thereof, should be vested in the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough, and that other Powers should be granted to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses: And whereas the several Objects and Purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without the Authority of Parliament: May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, as follows; (that is to say,)
