EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Carriage by Air Act, 1932, provides that, in cases of international carriage, the liability of a carrier in the event of the death of a passenger is enforceable for the benefit of members of his family. The Act was extended to the Isle of Man by the Carriage by Air (Isle of Man) Order, 1935. Section 1 (5) of the Fatal Accidents Act, 1959, amended the Act of 1932 by extending the class of persons who count as members of the deceased's family for this purpose. This Order provides that those amendments shall extend also to the Isle of Man.
