EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

The Carriage by Air Act 1961 gives effect in the United Kingdom to the Warsaw Convention as amended at The Hague, 1955, relating to international carriage by air, and the Carriage by Air Acts (Application of Provisions) Order 1967 makes transitional provision for the application of that Act to carriage still governed by the unamended Warsaw Convention, to which the United Kingdom remains a party.

Under section 2(1) of the Act and Article 5 of that Order, Her Majesty may, by Order in Council from time to time certify, inter alia, who are the High Contracting Parties to the Warsaw Convention, and such an Order is conclusive evidence of the matters so certified.

This Order, which is supplementary to the Carriage by Air (Parties to Convention) Order 1977, and the Carriage by Air (Parties to Convention) (Supplementary) Order 1977 certifies additional High Contracting Parties to the Convention and the territories in respect of which they are Parties.
