EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Central Institutions (Scotland) Regulations 1974 (which apply to those central institutions, other than the Dundee Institute of Art and Technology, the governing bodies of which are grant-aided under section 75(c) of the Education (Scotland) Act 1962). They provide—

(a) in respect of such central institutions, other than Robert Gordon's Institute of Technology,

(i) for each of the governing bodies to be enlarged by the addition of two governors;

(ii) in respect of the additional governors for one being the President of the Students' Representative Council in the institution ex officio and for the other being a full-time matriculated student of the institution appointed by the full-time matriculated students in the institution in terms of a scheme made by the Students' Representative Council and approved by the governing body;

(iii) for the additional governor who is so appointed by the students holding office for a period not exceeding one year and for his office being declared vacant when he ceases to be a full-time matriculated student of the institution;

(iv) for both additional governors withdrawing, unless invited to remain, from meetings of the governing body or any committee thereof when matters relating to staff are to be considered;

(b) in respect of Robert Gordon's Institute of Technology, for the Institute Committee to be enlarged by the addition of two members; for one additional member being the President of the Students' Representative Council in the Institute ex officio and the other being a full-time matriculated student of the Institute nominated by the full-time matriculated students in the Institute in terms of a scheme made by the Students' Representative Council and approved by the Institute Committee and for both additional members withdrawing, unless invited to remain, from any meeting of the Institute Committee or any committee thereof when matters relating to staff are to be considered; and

(c) for the amendment of the governing instruments of each of such central institutions to the extent to which the provisions of such instruments are in the opinion of the Secretary of State inconsistent with the Regulations.
