TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING, ENGLAND

CENTRAL AND LOCAL ADMINISTRATION

1959 No. 530

The Central Land Board (Dissolution and Transfer of Functions) Order, 1959

Laid before Parliament in Draft

Made - - - - 24*th March*, 1959
Coming into Operation 1*st April*, 1959

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of March, 1959

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty, in pursuance of section 63 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1954(a), as extended by section 63 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1954(b), is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, in the terms of a draft approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament:—

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Central Land Board (Dissolution and Transfer of Functions) Order, 1959.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

(a) 2 & 3 Eliz. 2. c. 72.

(b) 2 & 3 Eliz. 2. c. 73

(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(3) This Order shall come into operation on the first day of April, 1959.

2. The Central Land Board (hereinafter called "the Board") is hereby dissolved.

3. There are hereby transferred to the Minister of Housing and Local Government (hereinafter called "the Minister") the functions of the Board in England and Wales under the Town and Country Planning Acts, 1947 to 1954, and to the Secretary of State for Scotland the functions of the Board in Scotland under the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Acts, 1947 to 1954, in so far as such functions in England and Wales or in Scotland have not been fully performed on the first day of April, 1959.

4.—(1) In the construction and for the purposes of any enactment, regulation, judgment, award, order, deed, contract, certificate, decree, notice, or other document passed or made before the coming into operation of this Order, any reference to, or which is to be construed as a reference to, the Board or the officers of the Board shall, so far as may be necessary for or in consequence of the transfer of functions in England and Wales effected by this Order, be construed as a reference to the Minister or his officers and shall, so far as may be necessary for or in consequence of the transfer of functions in Scotland be construed as a reference to the Secretary of State for Scotland or his officers.

(2) The transfer of functions effected by this Order shall not prejudice the operation of any order, determination, direction, instructions, requirement, authorisation or notice, or anything made, given or done by the Board in relation to the functions transferred by this Order, before the coming into operation thereof, but any such matter shall, if then in force, continue in force to the like extent and subject to the like provisions as if it had been duly made, given or done by the Minister or by the Secretary of State for Scotland as the case may be.

(3) Anything commenced before the coming into operation of this Order by or under the authority of the Board may, so far as it relates to any functions transferred by this Order, be carried on or be completed by or under the authority of the Minister or the Secretary of State for Scotland, as the case may be.

(4) Where at the coming into operation of this Order any legal proceedings or arbitration to which the Board is a party are pending in England or Wales the Minister shall be substituted for the Board, and where at such date any such legal proceedings or arbitrations are pending in Scotland, the Secretary of State for Scotland shall be substituted for the Board; and in neither instance shall the proceedings or arbitration be abated by reason of the substitution.

(5) Every document purporting to be made or issued by the Board and to be signed by the Secretary to the Board or any person authorised to act in that behalf shall be received in evidence, and shall, until the contrary is proved, be deemed to be an instrument made or issued by the Board: and prima facie evidence of any such instrument may, in any legal proceedings or arbitration, be given by the production of a document purporting to be certified to be a true copy of the instrument by or on behalf of the Minister or the Secretary of State for Scotland, as the case may require.

5. There are hereby transferred to the Minister and to the Secretary of State for Scotland, as the case may be, all property and rights held or enjoyed by the Board immediately before the coming into operation of this Order in connection with any of the functions hereby transferred and all liabilities then incumbent on the Board in connection with any of those functions.

6. Subsection (3) of section one hundred and ten of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1947(a), and subsection (3) of section one hundred and five of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947(b), (which provide respectively for appeals to the Minister or the Secretary of State for Scotland by persons dissatisfied with determinations of the Board relating to the use which prevails generally in the case of certain land) shall cease to have effect.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order in Council is made under section 63 of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1954, as extended by section 63 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1954. It dissolves the Central Land Board and transfers to the Minister of Housing and Local Government and to the Secretary of State for Scotland respectively the functions of the Board under the enactments set out in clause 3 of the Order. These functions relate principally to—

Payments in respect of development value under Part I of the Town and Country Planning Act, 1954, and Part I of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1954.

Recovery of such payments in certain cases from acquiring authorities.

Issue of certificates of unexpended balances of established development value.

Assessment and collection of outstanding development charges.

Assessment of outstanding claims for loss of development value.

The Order in Council also contains other incidental, consequential and supplemental provisions necessary for the transfer of functions.
