The Charities (Exception of Religious Charities from Registration) Regulations, 1961

Made - - - -	18*th May*, 1961
Laid before Parliament	29*th May*, 1961
Coming into Operation	22*nd June*, 1961

In pursuance of subsection (4) of section four, section forty-three and subsection (6) of section forty-five of the Charities Act, 1960(a), I hereby make the following Regulations :—

1. All charities to which these Regulations apply are hereby excepted until the first day of January, 1963, from the duty to be registered under subsection (2) of section four of the Charities Act, 1960.

2.—(1) These Regulations shall apply to all charities wholly or mainly concerned with the advancement of religion.

(2) In this Regulation the expression "advancement of religion" includes the relief of ministers and former ministers of religion and their families.

3. These Regulations may be cited as the Charities (Exception of Religious Charities from Registration) Regulations, 1961, and shall come into operation on the twenty-second day of June, 1961.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
18th May, 1961.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations except religious charities, including those for the relief of ministers and former ministers of religion and their families, from the duty to register under the Charities Act, 1960, until 1st January, 1963.
