EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order gives effect to a Scheme of the Charity Commissioners for six Charities known collectively as the William Lambe (London) Trust.

The Charities derive from a gift made by William Lambe by will executed in 1574 and are now regulated principally by an Act of 1872 and a deed of 1985. Under that Act, property is held by The Clothworkers' Company subject to certain charitable obligations relating to St. James' Church, Islington, the relief of poverty and a scholarship at St. John's College, Oxford. In 1985 The Clothworkers' Company by deed settled its interest in the property on charitable trust for the benefit of St. James' Church, Islington.

The Scheme reconstitutes the Charities. Clause 3 provides for capital settlements corresponding to four of the charitable obligations under the 1872 Act. Clause 4 appoints the London Diocesan Fund as Trustee of the remaining property and provides that it is to be held for the repair and maintenance of St. James' Church, Islington. The Scheme also terminates provision for an accumulation account made by a previous Order of the Commissioners (clause 2) and contains introductory and supplementary provisions (clauses 1, 5 and 6).
