CHAPTER 27

An Act to indemnify Charles Beattie, Esquire, from any penal consequences which he may have incurred by sitting and voting as a member of the House of Commons while holding the office or place of member of certain panels constituted in pursuance of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1946, and the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1946, or of member of an appeal tribunal constituted in pursuance of the National Assistance Act (Northern Ireland) 1948. [15th March, 1956]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Indemnity.

1. Charles Beattie, Esquire, is hereby discharged, freed and indemnified from all penal consequences whatsoever which he may have incurred by sitting or voting as a member of the Commons House of Parliament at any time before the passing of this Act, while holding the office or place of member of panels constituted for purposes of local tribunals in pursuance of section forty-three of the National Insurance (Industrial Injuries) Act (Northern Ireland) 1946, and of regulations made under section forty of the National Insurance Act (Northern Ireland) 1946, or the office or place of member of an appeal tribunal constituted in pursuance of section twenty-six of the National Assistance Act (Northern Ireland) 1948.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Charles Beattie Indemnity Act, 1956.
