EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the Chartered Associations (Protection of Names and Uniforms) Act, 1926, an Order in Council may be made on the application of an association incorporated by Royal charter (not being an association representative of any profession or business) protecting any name, designation, uniform or badge used by that association and specified in the Order, and thereupon it is, subject to the provisions of the Act, an offence to use, without the authority of that association, any such name, designation, uniform or badge. Under this Order the names "air scout" and "senior scout" and the badge described in the Order, all used by the Boy Scouts Association, are so protected.
