FACTORIES

The Chemical Works Ambulance (Amendment) Regulations, 1961

Made - - - -	19th December, 1961
Laid before Parliament	22nd December, 1961
Coming into Operation	19th January, 1962

The Minister of Labour—

(a) by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section forty-six of the Factories Act, 1937(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf; and

(b) after publishing, pursuant to the Second Schedule to the said Act of 1937, notice of the proposal to make the Regulations and not having received any objection to the draft in regard to which he is required by the said Schedule to direct an inquiry to be held, hereby makes the following special Regulations:—

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Chemical Works Ambulance (Amendment) Regulations, 1961, and shall come into operation at the expiration of one month after the date on which the Regulations are made.

2. The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

3. The following Regulation shall be substituted for Regulation thirteen of the Chemical Works Regulations, 1922(c), that is to say—

"13. In every works there shall always be readily available during working hours a responsible person or responsible persons whose duty it is to summon an ambulance or other means of transport if needed in cases of accident or illness. Legible copies of a notice indicating that person or, as the case may be, those persons, shall be affixed in prominent positions in the works."

Dated this 19th day of December, 1961.

John Hare,
Minister of Labour.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, which apply to chemical works, require that a responsible person shall always be available during working hours to summon an ambulance. The Regulations replace a requirement that the occupier shall provide and maintain an ambulance unless he has made arrangements for one to be obtained.
