CHAPTER 25.

An Act to amend sections seventeen and eighteen of the Children Act, 1908. [3rd August 1910.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Amendment of sections 17 and 18 of the Children Act, 1908. 8 Edw. 7. c. 67.

1. Subsections (1) and (2) of section seventeen of the Children Act, 1908, shall be read as if in each of these subsections the words "or unlawful carnal knowledge" were inserted after the words "seduction or prostitution," and as if the words "or been unlawfully carnally known" were inserted after the words "become a prostitute," and section eighteen of the same Act shall be read as if the words "or of being unlawfully carnally known" were inserted after the words "seduction or prostitution."

Short title and construction.

2. This Act may be cited as the Children Act (1908) Amendment Act, 1910, and shall be construed as one with the Children Act, 1908.

CHAPTER 26.

An Act to provide for the Administration of the Government in case the Crown should descend to any issue of His Majesty while such issue shall be under the age of eighteen years, and for the care and guardianship of such issue. [3rd August 1910.]

WHEREAS Your Majesty, by Your Majesty's Royal message to both Houses of Parliament, has been pleased to recommend that provision should be made for a Regency in certain events:

Now therefore we, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in Parliament assembled, do most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Her Majesty Queen Mary to be Regent.

1.—(1) If on the demise of His present Majesty (whom God long preserve) any child of His Majesty succeeds to the Crown whilst under the age of eighteen years, Her Majesty Queen Mary shall be the guardian, and have the care and tuition of such child until the child attain the age of eighteen years, and until that
