The Chocolate, Sugar Confectionery and Cocoa Products Order, 1951

1951 No. 417

Made - - - -	13*th March*, 1951
Laid before Parliament	13*th March*, 1951
Coming into Operation	15*th March*, 1951

The Minister of Food, in pursuance of the powers conferred upon him by Regulations 55, 55AA and 55AB of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a) (as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b) and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1950(c)), and of all other powers him enabling in that behalf, hereby orders as follows:—

Interpretation

1. In this Order—

" The Minister " means the Minister of Food.

" Approved mark " means, in respect of the manufacturer of any product, a name, number, or other mark approved by or on behalf of the Minister or by the appropriate Association, for the purpose of identifying such manufacturer.

" Approved name " means, in respect of any product, a name or description approved by or on behalf of the Minister or by the appropriate Association, for the purpose of identifying such product.

" Buy " includes offer or agree to buy ; and " sell " includes offer or agree to sell or expose for sale.

" Chocolate and chocolate confectionery " includes medicated chocolate confectionery, but does not include chocolate prepared for use in making a beverage, chocolate couverture, any product of a description specified in the First Schedule to this Order, or any product which would not be regarded in the confectionery industry as suitable for retail sale without further processing.

" Chocolate couverture " means a chocolate product sold in accordance with trade usage in the chocolate industry under the trade descriptions of chocolate couverture, bakers' covering compounds, unsweetened chocolate, neat work, chocolate vermicelli, or chocolate granulettes.

" Classified product " means a variety or description of confectionery or chocolate couverture which has for the purposes of this Order been classified by or on behalf of the Minister or by the appropriate Association.

" Confectionery " means chocolate and chocolate confectionery and sugar confectionery.

" Consumer price " means the price at which any confectionery is sold or offered for sale by retail, or at which it is intended to be so sold, being a price not exceeding the maximum price applicable thereto under the provisions of this Order.

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945 (Nos. 1611 and 1615–25) II, pp. 39 and 45–56.
(b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55.
(c) S.I. 1950 (No. 1769) III, p. 51.

" Sale by retail " means any sale to a person buying otherwise than for the purpose of resale, but does not include a sale to a manufacturer for the purposes of his manufacturing business.

" Sugar confectionery " includes boiled sugar goods, toffees, panned goods, cream paste goods, liquorice, lozenges, pastilles, clear gums, chewing gum, medicated sugar confectionery, and any other goods that would be regarded in the confectionery industry as sugar confectionery ; but does not include candy (or fairy) floss, any product of a description specified in the First Schedule to this Order, or any product that would not be regarded in the confectionery industry as suitable for retail sale without further processing:

Provided that for the purposes of this definition sugar means sucrose, glucose, fructose, maltose, lactose, any starch conversion product capable of reducing Fehling's solution, or any mixture of such substances ; and nothing shall be deemed not to be sugar confectionery by reason only of the fact that it does not contain any particular kind of sugar.

" The appropriate Association " means, in relation to chocolate and chocolate confectionery and chocolate couverture, the Cocoa and Chocolate (War Time) Association, and, in relation to sugar confectionery, the Sugar Confectionery (War Time) Association.

Licensing of manufacturers

2.—(1) Except under and in accordance with the terms of a licence (including a provisional licence) granted by or on behalf of the Minister for the purposes of this Article, no person shall by way of trade or business engage in the manufacture of—

(a) confectionery ;

(b) chocolate couverture ; or

(c) cocoa and drinking chocolate:

Provided that nothing in this Article shall prohibit the manufacture during the period of twelve months beginning on the date of the coming into force of this Order, or during any successive period of twelve months thereafter, of a total quantity of all such products not exceeding 25 tons by any person who was engaged in the manufacture of any such products during the year 1940 and who manufactured during that year a total quantity of all such products not exceeding 25 tons.

(2) In the event of the transfer of a business in respect of which a licence is held under this Article, or in the event of the death of the holder of such a licence, the transferee or other person succeeding to the business shall, on having duly made an application for a licence under this Article, and pending the decision of the Minister upon such application, be deemed to hold a provisional licence under this Article whereby he shall be entitled, unless the Minister shall otherwise direct, to manufacture such products as were authorised to be manufactured under the first-mentioned licence, subject to any conditions contained in such first-mentioned licence.

(3) Every licence (including every provisional licence) granted under this Article shall be deemed to be granted upon and shall take effect subject to the condition set out in the Third Schedule to this Order, except as the Minister may otherwise authorise or direct ; so however that a licence granted under this Article may contain such other conditions as the Minister may consider expedient.

(4) Except as the Minister may otherwise authorise or direct, any licence granted under this Article—

(a) shall extend only to authorise the manufacture of any product by the licensee or by any servant of the licensee ; and

(b) shall not extend to authorise the manufacture of any product on behalf of the licensee by any person other than such a servant, or by the licensee when acting as an agent for any other person unless such other person is licensed under this Article to produce the same product.

(5) A person licensed under this Article shall, before ceasing to carry on business as a manufacturer of any product to which his licence relates, give to the Minister not less than 14 days' notice in writing of his intention to do so, and shall return to the Minister any licence held by him under this Article:

Provided that if in any proceedings a person is charged with a contravention of this paragraph, it shall be a defence for him to prove that it was not practicable for him to give such notice or that he gave notice as soon as it was practicable for him to do so.

(6) Where confectionery, chocolate couverture, cocoa, or drinking chocolate is no longer being manufactured in connection with any business, owing to the death of a person licensed under this Article, without notice thereof having been given under the preceding paragraph, the licensee's personal representative shall forthwith give such notice to the Minister, and shall return to the Minister any licence granted under this Article in respect of such business.

Maximum prices

3.—(1) No person shall—

(a) sell any confectionery by retail, or

(b) sell any chocolate couverture,

at a price exceeding the price applicable in accordance with the Second Schedule to this Order.

(2) No charge in addition to the maximum price shall be made on a sale of confectionery or chocolate couverture in respect of packing or the provision of a wrapper or container :

Provided that, if the appropriate Association authorises an additional charge in respect of any deep-lid, rigid or fancy box, a charge in addition to the maximum price, not exceeding such additional charge, may be made on a sale of confectionery in such a box.

(3) If on a sale of any confectionery by retail the maximum price, calculated in accordance with the provisions of the Second Schedule to this Order and with the addition of any sum paid in respect of purchase tax, includes any fraction of a farthing, such fraction shall be regarded as one farthing.

(4) Paragraph (1) of this Article shall not apply to classified products which have been classified for the purposes of this Order under product group CX 100 in the case of chocolate or chocolate confectionery or under product group SX 100 in the case of sugar confectionery.

Chocolate couverture not to be sold unless classified

4. No person shall sell any chocolate couverture unless it is a classified product.

Retail sales, and deliveries, of confectionery and chocolate couverture; labelling and invoices

5.—(1) No person shall sell by retail any classified product (other than chocolate couverture) or any product specified in Table I or Table III in the Second Schedule to this Order, unless he shall indicate in distinctly legible words and figures, and so as to be clearly visible to a purchaser or intending purchaser, upon the wrapper or container of such product, or upon a label attached to the product or to the wrapper or container thereof, or by means of a label or ticket displayed in close proximity to the product, the following particulars—

(a) in the case of any such classified product—

(i) the number of the product group under which the product has been classified for the purposes of this Order;

(ii) the approved name of the product;

(iii) the name of the manufacturer thereof or his approved mark;

(iv) the consumer price, if any; and

(v) if any additional charge has been authorised in respect of a deep-lid, rigid or fancy box under the proviso to paragraph (2) of Article 3 hereof, the additional charge made in respect of such box;

(b) in the case of any one or more of such classified products, if sold in combination with an article or articles other than confectionery or chocolate couverture and other than a box, jar, tin or wrapper—

(i) the number of the product group or product groups under which the product or products (if more than one) has or have been classified for the purposes of this Order;

(ii) the approved name of the product or products (if more than one);

(iii) the name or approved mark of the manufacturer of the product or products, or of each such manufacturer (if more than one) identifying each manufacturer with his own product or products; and

(iv) the total consumer price of the product or products (without taking into account the price of the article or articles other than confectionery or chocolate couverture and other than a box, jar, tin or wrapper);

(c) in the case of any product specified in the said Table I or Table III, the description of the product, the name of the manufacturer thereof or his approved mark, and the consumer price.

(2) Every trader (including a manufacturer) who delivers to any other trader any classified product or products (other than chocolate couverture) or any product specified in the said Table I or Table III shall deliver such product or products marked in such a way, or with such labels or price tickets, as may be necessary to enable a retail trader to comply with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this Article and shall also clearly indicate to such other trader, either—

(a) in the case of any such classified product or products—

(i) the particulars referred to in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (1) (a), or in sub-paragraphs (i), (ii), (iii) and (iv) of paragraph (1) (b) (as the case may be), of this Article, by means of distinctly legible words and figures upon, or upon a label attached to, the outside of the outer wrapper or container in which the product is, or the products are, delivered to such other trader;

(ii) the particulars referred to in sub-paragraphs (ii) and (iv) of the said paragraph (1) (a), or in sub-paragraphs (ii) and (iv) of the said paragraph (1) (b) (as the case may be), by means of distinctly legible words and figures (subject to any reasonable abbreviation) upon an invoice furnished to such other trader; and

(iii) if an additional charge has been authorised in respect of any deep-lid, rigid or fancy box, the amount of such additional charge; or

(b) in the case of any product specified in the said Table I or Table III—

(i) the description of the product, the name of the manufacturer thereof or his approved mark, and the consumer price, by means of distinctly legible words and figures upon, or upon a label attached to, the outside of the outer wrapper or container in which the product is delivered to such other trader;

(ii) the description of the product and the consumer price, by means of distinctly legible words and figures (subject to any reasonable abbreviation) upon an invoice furnished to such other trader.

(3) Every trader (including a manufacturer) who delivers to any other trader any chocolate couverture (being a classified product) shall clearly indicate to such other trader by means of distinctly legible words and figures upon, or upon a label attached to, the wrapper or container in which the product is delivered, and upon an invoice furnished to such other trader—

(a) the number of the product group under which the product has been classified for the purposes of this Order;

(b) the approved name of the product;

(c) the name of the manufacturer thereof, or his approved mark.

Labels not to be removed or defaced

6. No person shall remove, add to, alter, deface, or render illegible any label, ticket or marking on or attached to or delivered or enclosed with any classified product or products or with any product specified in Table I or Table III in the Second Schedule to this Order:

Provided that it shall be a defence in any proceedings for an infringement of this Article for the person charged to prove either—

(a) that the product was in his possession, at the time of the infringement, otherwise than for sale; or

(b) that he acted without intent to deceive.

Deliveries of unclassified confectionery or chocolate couverture

7. No trader (including a manufacturer) who delivers to any other trader any confectionery or chocolate couverture which is not a classified product shall deliver with it or supply in respect of it any label, price ticket or other indication purporting to show that it is a classified product.

Changes of classification

8. Where a product has been classified for the purposes of this Order, such classification may be revoked or amended at any time by or on behalf of the Minister or by the appropriate Association.

Confectionery not to be mixed for sale (except by manufacturer)

9. No person shall—

(a) sell any confectionery as supplied by the manufacturer thereof, mixed with any other confectionery or with any other article; or

(b) for the purposes of sale, alter the composition of any confectionery as supplied by the manufacturer thereof;

Provided that—

(i) where confectionery has been supplied to a manufacturer in accordance with trade usage in the confectionery industry for the purpose of further processing or manufacture, nothing in this Article shall prohibit the use of the confectionery for such purpose, or the sale of the confectionery after such further processing or manufacture;

(ii) the provisions of this Article shall not apply to the use of any confectionery by a person in the manufacture for sale of any product other than confectionery.

Defence; infringement caused by another person

10. In any proceedings in respect of an infringement of paragraph (1) of Article 3 or Articles 4, 5 or 7 of this Order, it shall be a defence for the person charged to prove that the infringement was due to the act or default of some person over whom he had no control, and that he had no reason to believe at the time of the commission of the alleged offence that such infringement had occurred.

Keeping of records

11.—(1) Every person holding a licence under Article 2 of this Order shall keep an accurate record showing—

(a) the quantity and description of all products manufactured by him under the authority of such licence during the period of 4 weeks ending on the 24th day of March, 1951, and during each successive period of 4 weeks thereafter, and of the quantity (if any) of each of the following ingredients used in the manufacture thereof, that is to say—

(i) any rationed foods within the meaning of the Food Rationing Orders, 1950(a), or any Order or Orders replacing the said Orders;

(ii) glucose;

(iii) raw cocoa beans; and

(iv) chocolate couverture;

(b) his stock of such products at the beginning of each such period of 4 weeks as aforesaid, and

(c) such other information relating to his undertaking as may be specified in a notice served upon him by or on behalf of the Minister.

(2) Every person who sells confectionery otherwise than by retail, and every person who sells chocolate couverture, shall keep an accurate record of all purchases and sales thereof by him; and such records shall include particulars identifying the persons from whom the confectionery or chocolate couverture was purchased, or to whom it was sold, and particulars of the quantities thereof purchased or sold (as the case may be) and the prices paid or charged.

(3) Every person who sells confectionery by retail shall keep an accurate record of all purchases thereof by him; and such record shall include particulars identifying the persons from whom the confectionery was purchased and particulars of the quantities thereof purchased and the prices paid.

(a) S.I. 1950 (No. 790) III, p. 420.

(4) The retention by any person of an invoice or a copy of an invoice shall, as regards the particulars mentioned therein, be a sufficient compliance by him with the provisions of paragraphs (2) and (3) of this Article.

(5) Every person required by this Article to keep any record shall retain it for one year from the last date to which the record relates.

Certificate of public analyst or Government Chemist

12.—(1) In any proceedings in respect of an infringement of this Order, the production by one of the parties of (i) a document purporting to be a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist or (ii) a document supplied to him by the other party as being a copy of such a certificate shall be sufficient evidence of the facts stated therein, unless in the case mentioned under head (i) above the other party requires that the person making the analysis shall be called as a witness.

(2) In any such proceedings—

(a) if the prosecution intends to produce a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist, a copy of such certificate shall be served with the summons; and

(b) if a defendant intends to produce a certificate of a public analyst or the Government Chemist, or to require that the person making the analysis shall be called as a witness, he shall give to the other party at least three clear days' notice of his intention, and, if any of these requirements is not complied with, the Court may, if it thinks fit, adjourn the hearing on such terms as it deems proper.

(3) In this Article "public analyst" has in relation to England and Wales the meaning assigned to it by the Food and Drugs Act, 1938(a), in relation to Scotland the meaning assigned to it by the Food and Drugs (Adulteration) Act, 1928(b), and in relation to Northern Ireland the meaning assigned to it by the Sale of Food and Drugs Acts (Northern Ireland) 1875 to 1939, and "Government Chemist" means, in relation to Northern Ireland, the Government Chemist for Northern Ireland.

Artificial transactions

13. No person shall, in connection with the sale or disposition or proposed sale or disposition of any confectionery or chocolate couverture, enter or offer to enter into any artificial transaction or make or demand any unreasonable charge.

Directions, authorisations and licences

14.—(1) The provisions of this Order are subject to any directions that may at any time be given by or on behalf of the Minister, and to any licence or authorisation that may be granted by or on behalf of the Minister under this Order.

(2) Every person holding a licence or authorisation granted under this Order shall comply with every condition imposed by such licence or authorisation.

(3) Every licence or authorisation granted under this Order is and shall remain the property of the Minister; and the licensee or any person being in possession of any such licence or authorisation shall, if requested to do so by or on behalf of the Minister, produce or deliver it to such person or to a person of such class or description, and within such time, as may be specified in the request.

(a) 1 & 2 Geo. 6. c. 56. (b) 18 & 19 Geo. 5. c. 31.

Infringements

15. Infringements of this Order are offences against the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939.

16.—(1) The Chocolate, Sugar Confectionery and Cocoa Products Order, 1949 as amended(a) is hereby revoked but without prejudice to any proceedings in respect of any contravention thereof; provided that any licence granted thereunder or having effect by virtue thereof, and subsisting immediately before the coming into force of this Order, shall continue to have effect as though granted under this Order.

(2) Every person shall, notwithstanding the revocation of the said Order, retain any record of any transaction required to be kept by him thereunder for one year from the date of the transaction.

(3) Where immediately before the coming into force of this Order any product was classified for the purposes of the said Order, such classification shall continue to have effect as though it had been made for the purposes of this Order.

17. This Order may be cited as the Chocolate, Sugar Confectionery and Cocoa Products Order, 1951; and shall come into operation on the 15th day of March, 1951.

Maurice Webb,
Minister of Food.

Dated the 13th day of March, 1951.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE

PRODUCTS DEEMED NOT TO BE SUGAR CONFECTIONERY, CHOCOLATE OR CHOCOLATE CONFECTIONERY

Any Product—

(a) which complies with a formula in the British Pharmacopoeia, the British Pharmaceutical Codex, the National Formulary, or recognised hospital formularies or pharmacopoeias; or

(b) the manufacturer of which has been authorised by the Minister to manufacture and sell it free from all the provisions of this Order; or

(c) consists of compressed tablets of which each tablet contains one or more of the following ingredients in not less a quantity than that specified—

(i) phenolphthalein—$\frac{1}{2}$ grain;

(ii) santonin—$\frac{1}{10}$th grain;

(iii) calomel—$\frac{1}{20}$th grain.

2. The maximum prices in Table V are subject to the following adjustments:—

(a) If the product is supplied in blocks of 40 lb. or more, the said maximum prices shall be reduced by ¼d. per lb.;

(b) if the quantity delivered on any occasion is 56 lb. or less, the said maximum prices may be increased by a sum not exceeding 2d. per lb.;

(c) if the quantity delivered on any occasion is less than one ton but not less than 5 cwt., the said maximum prices shall be reduced by the sum of ¼d. per lb.;

(d) if the quantity delivered on any occasion is one ton or more, the said maximum price shall be reduced by the sum of ½d. per lb.

3. The maximum prices prescribed in this Part of this Schedule include the cost of delivery to the buyer's premises, and no additional charge shall be made by the seller in respect of transport or delivery.

THE THIRD SCHEDULE

CONDITION SUBJECT TO WHICH LICENCES UNDER ARTICLE 2 OF THE ORDER ARE DEEMED TO TAKE EFFECT

The holder of a licence or provisional licence granted under this Article shall not, except under the authority of the Minister, knowingly permit—

(a) any person who was the holder of a licence granted to him by or on behalf of the Minister or a Food Control Committee, but whose licence has been revoked as a result of his being convicted of any of the following offences:—
  (i) an offence against any of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, or any Order made thereunder, in respect of any article of food;
  (ii) an offence against the Defence (Sale of Food) Regulations, 1943(a), or any Order made thereunder;
  (iii) an offence against the Larceny Act, 1916(b), in respect of any article of food;
  (iv) an offence against the Sale of Food (Weights and Measures) Act, 1926(c), or any Regulation made thereunder;
  (v) an offence against the Food and Drugs Act, 1938(d), or any Regulation made thereunder; or

(b) any person who was a director or officer of any body corporate whose licence has been revoked for the reason aforesaid, if such director or officer was convicted together with that body corporate in respect of the offence or offences in question; to exercise any control, direct or indirect, financial, managerial or otherwise, over the policy, management or conduct of the business in respect of which such licence has been granted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order replaces the Chocolate, Sugar Confectionery and Cocoa Products Order, 1949 as amended.

The principal changes are:—

(1) the Cocoa and Chocolate (War Time) Association is empowered to classify chocolate, chocolate confectionery and chocolate couverture, and the Sugar Confectionery (War Time) Association to classify sugar confectionery, without any further authority from the Minister; each Association is similarly empowered to alter or revoke classifications, to authorise extra charges for fancy boxes, and to approve "approved marks" for manufacturers and "approved names" for confectionery;

(2) provisions have been made relating to invoices and labelling when classified confectionery is delivered or sold by retail in combination with an article that is not confectionery;

(3) provision has been made for certificates of a public analyst or the Government Chemist to be receivable in evidence;

(4) the scale of maximum prices of classified chocolate and chocolate confectionery (previously limited to 7s. 2d. a pound) has been extended to 8s. a pound; and

(5) the maximum prices of chocolate couverture have been increased.
