'WHEREAS an Act was passed in the Fifty-ninth Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled An Act to amend and render more effectual an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, for building and promoting the building of additional Churches in populous Parishes, whereby it is (amongst other Things) enacted, that it should be lawful for the Commissioners appointed for the Execution of the thereinrecited Act, with certain Consents in the now-reciting Act mentioned or referred to, to unite and consolidate contiguous Parts of Parishes and Extra-parochial Places into a separate and distinct District for all Ecclesiastical Purposes, and to make Grants or Loans towards the building of any Chapel or Chapels in any such District, and to constitute any such District a consolidated Chapelry; and that all such Chapelries should be deemed to be Benefices, and be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Bishop and Archdeacon within whose Diocese and Archdeaconry the Altar of such Chapel should be locally situate: And whereas Doubts have arisen touching such Jurisdiction in the Case of Chapels or Districts situated wholly or in part within exempt or peculiar Jurisdictions;' be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That every such Chapel and District, whether situated wholly or in part within any exempt or peculiar Jurisdiction, shall be subject to the Jurisdiction of the Bishop and Archdeacon within the Limits of whose Diocese and Archdeaconry the Altar of any such Chapel shall be locally situate, in as full and ample a Manner as it would be if no Part of such Chapelry were within some exempt or peculiar Jurisdiction; and in every such Case all other Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction over the said Chapel and Chapelry shall wholly cease, and no other such Jurisdiction shall be exercised in the said Chapelry, save and except the Jurisdiction of the Bishop and Archdeacon as aforesaid; any Law, Usage, or Custom to the contrary notwithstanding.
