Prisoners detained elsewhere than in one of His Majesty's Prisons by Order of the Civil Authority.

REGULATIONS MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS AS TO PRISONERS DETAINED ELSEWHERE THAN IN ANY OF H.M. PRISONS BY ORDER OF THE CIVIL AUTHORITIES (SPECIAL POWERS) ACT, 1922, AND REGULATION 23 THEREUNDER.

1922. No. 86.

I, the Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, being the Civil Authority under the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, by virtue of the powers vested in me by the said Act and the Regulations made thereunder and of all other powers me thereunto enabling do hereby direct that every prisoner detained elsewhere than in one of His Majesty's Prisons by Order of the Civil Authority under Regulation 23 of the said Regulations shall be detained upon the following conditions, that is to say :—

1. A prisoner shall be required to keep himself clean and decent in his person, and to conform to such regulations as may be laid down for that purpose. He shall also obey such regulations as regards washing, bathing, and hair cutting as may be prescribed with a view to the maintenance of health and cleanliness.

2. Each prisoner shall keep his utensils, books, and other articles issued for his use, and his clothing and bedding, clean and neatly arranged, and shall clean and sweep any part of his place of detention as may be directed.

3. A prisoner may not procure for himself food or intoxicating liquors, except on the order of the medical officer.

4. A prisoner while so detained shall not be permitted to be visited without the sanction of the Civil Authority.

5. With the exception of communications sent bona fide as instructions to a Solicitor no communications may be sent by a prisoner except post cards which shall be supplied for the use of prisoners to such an extent as may be considered reasonable. All communications from, or to a prisoner shall be examined by the officer in charge, or another officer appointed by him for the purpose.

6. The Officer in charge shall on the application of any prisoner permit him to have any books, papers, documents, or other articles in his possession at the time of his arrest which are not required to be taken from him for the due maintenance of discipline, or for purposes connected with the preservation of the peace and the maintenance of order.

7. A prisoner may be required to wear the prison dress if his own clothes are unfit for use, or if the Officer in charge considers it necessary for the safe custody of the prisoner.

8. A prisoner who shall be proved to be guilty of an offence against discipline and good order may be ordered by the Officer in charge to be punished by reduction of diet for a period not exceeding 3 days, the said diet to consist of 1 lb. bread per diem with water.

Dated at Belfast this 24th June, 1922.

(Signed) R. Dawson Bates,
Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, Civil Authority.

Registration of Lodgers.

REGULATION DATED 20TH SEPTEMBER, 1922, UNDER THE CIVIL AUTHORITIES (SPECIAL POWERS) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1922, PROVIDING FOR THE REGISTRATION OF LODGERS AND INMATES OF DWELLING HOUSES IN SPECIFIED AREAS.

1922. No. 56.

Whereas certain Regulations for Peace and Order in Northern Ireland are contained in the Schedule to the Civil Authorities (Special Powers) Act (Northern Ireland), 1922, and it is provided by Sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the said Act that the Minister of Home Affairs shall have power to make Regulations (a) for making further provision for the Preservation of the Peace and Maintenance of Order; and (b) for varying or revoking any provision of the Regulations, whether contained in the said Schedule, or made as aforesaid, and that any Regulations made as aforesaid shall, subject to the provisions of the said Act, have effect and be enforced in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule:

Now, therefore, I, the Right Honourable Sir Richard Dawson Bates, Minister of Home Affairs for Northern Ireland, do make the following Regulation for the making further provision for the Preservation of the Peace and the Maintenance of Order, and the said Regulation shall be enforced and have effect in like manner as Regulations contained in the said Schedule, and the said Regulation now made, and the Regulations contained in said Schedule shall have effect and be construed as if the said Regulation now made formed part of said Regulations in said Schedule, that is to say:—
