(iii) planning protective measures for works and plant;
(iv) training employees, and also members of the Civil Defence Corps whose services are made available for the purpose, in the repair of damage to mains, plant and other works; and
(v) arranging mutual aid schemes with neighbouring statutory water undertakers to operate in the event of hostile action or a threat of hostile action; and

(b) to take within such time as the Minister may specify such measures with respect to any of the matters mentioned in the preceding provisions of this regulation as the Minister may direct.

3. If any statutory water undertakers fail to comply with any requirement of the last preceding regulation, they shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding one hundred pounds, and, if the failure in respect of which they were so convicted continues after the conviction, they shall be liable on summary conviction, to a fine not exceeding ten pounds for each day on which the failure so continues:

Provided that if any undertakers are convicted for failing to comply with a direction given by the Minister under paragraph (b) of the last preceding regulation, the court by which they are convicted may give a reasonable period from the date of conviction for compliance by the undertakers with the requirements of the direction, and, where a court has fixed such a period, the said daily penalty shall not be recoverable in respect of any day before the expiration thereof.

4. Sections 36 to 39 of the Civil Defence Act, 1939(a), in so far as they relate to statutory water undertakers, are hereby repealed.

Given under the official seal of the Minister of Health this twenty-first day of November, nineteen hundred and forty-nine.

(L.S.) Aneurin Bevan,
Minister of Health.

(2) SCOTLAND

The Civil Defence (Water Supplies) (Scotland) Regulations, 1949*

1949 No. 2137 (S. 145)

Made - - - - 18*th November,* 1949
Coming into Operation 22*nd November,* 1949

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by sections two and six as read along with the proviso to subsection (2) of section nine of the Civil Defence Act, 1948(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf, I hereby make the following regulations:—

1.—(1) These regulations which shall apply to Scotland only may be cited as the Civil Defence (Water Supplies) (Scotland) Regulations, 1949, and shall come into operation on the 22nd day of November, 1949.

(a) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 31. (b) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 5.

* A draft of these Regulations was approved by resolution of the House of Commons 2nd November, 1949, and the House of Lords 15th November, 1949, in accordance with section 8 (3) of the Civil Defence Act, 1948.

(2) In these regulations the expression "local water authority" has the meaning assigned to it by subsection (4) of section 5 of the Water (Scotland) Act, 1946(a).

(3) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

2. It shall be the duty of all local water authorities—

(a) to supply the Secretary of State within such time as he may specify with such information as he may require regarding the measures they have taken or are taking or proposing to take to secure the discharge of their functions under the Water (Scotland) Act, 1946, in the event of hostile action, by way of—

(i) planning such control centres and stores for the dispersal of stocks, and such additional works for the purpose of by-passing vulnerable points or supplementing existing supplies of water, as may seem necessary in areas likely to be subject to hostile attack;

(ii) the provision and maintenance of an adequate number of vehicles, and adequate stocks of materials, plant and equipment for such repairs and works as may be required in consequence of damage by hostile action to mains, plant, equipment or other works, and for ensuring emergency supplies of water until the repairs or other works are completed;

(iii) planning protective measures for works and plant;

(iv) training their employees, and also members of the Civil Defence Corps whose services are made available for the purpose, in the repair of damage to mains, plant and other works; and

(v) arranging mutual aid schemes with other local water authorities to operate in the event of hostile action or a threat of hostile action; and

(b) to take within such time as the Secretary of State may specify such measures with respect to any of the matters mentioned in the preceding provisions of this regulation as the Secretary of State may direct.

3.—(1) Where the services of members or units of the Civil Defence Corps are made available by their divisional authority to a local water authority to enable that local water authority to perform any of the functions conferred on them by Regulation 2 of these regulations, the function of the divisional authority in relation to such members or units shall by virtue hereof be transferred to and become a function of the local water authority and shall, subject to such directions as may be given to the authority from time to time by the Secretary of State, be performed by them accordingly; and it shall be a duty of the local water authority to make all payments necessary in connection with exercise of the function hereby conferred on them:

Provided that nothing in this regulation shall apply in relation to any case where it is agreed between a divisional authority and a local water authority that the services of the members or units are being made available temporarily.

(2) For the purposes of this regulation the expression "divisional authority" in relation to particular members or units of the Civil Defence Corps means

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 42. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

the authority responsible under Regulation 1 of the Civil Defence Corps (Scotland) Regulations, 1949(a), for the organisation of the division to which such members or units belong.

4. Sections 36 to 39 of the Civil Defence Act, 1939(b), in so far as they relate to local water authorities, are hereby repealed.

Dated this 18th day of November, 1949.

Arthur Woodburn,
One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh 1.

CLERGY PENSIONS

The Clergy Pensions (Channel Islands) Order, 1949

1949 No. 1443

Made - - - - 28*th July*, 1949
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1950

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of July, 1949

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas by section two of the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measure, 1931(c), it is provided that any Measure receiving the Royal Assent after the passing of that Measure, which contains an express provision that it may be applied to the Channel Islands, or either of them, in accordance with that Measure, may, within two years after its passing, be so applied in accordance with the procedure set out in the Schedule to that Measure:

And Whereas by section sixty-four of the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948(d), it is provided that that Measure may be applied to the Channel Islands, or either of them, in accordance with the provisions of the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measure, 1931:

And Whereas the Bishop of Winchester has come to the conclusion that the Clergy Pensions Measure, 1948, ought to be applied, with certain variations, to the Channel Islands and has prepared in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of the Schedule to the Channel Islands (Church Legislation) Measure, 1931, and has presented to the Church Assembly, the Scheme set out in the Schedule to this Order:

(a) S.I. 1949 No. 1417, p. 645 above.
(b) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 31.
(c) 21 & 22 Geo. 5. No. 4.
(d) 11 & 12 Geo. 6. No. 1.
