EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

By Regulation 4 of the Claims for Depreciation of Land Values (Scotland) Regulations, 1948, it was provided that a claim for a payment under a scheme made under section 55 of the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act, 1947, was required to be made to the Central Land Board within a period ending on the 31st day of March, 1949, subject to the exercise by the Board of the power conferred on them by Regulation 11 of the said regulations to extend the period within which claims could be made to the 30th day of June, 1949, in certain cases.

These regulations extend the period for making claims to the Central Land Board until the 30th day of June, 1949, in all cases, and consequentially revoke the power of the Board to grant extensions up to that date.
