COAL.

Supply.

ORDER, DATED 23RD JANUARY, 1943, MADE BY THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE UNDER REGULATION 55 OF THE DEFENCE (GENERAL) REGULATIONS, 1939.

1943. No. 11.

The Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland (in this Order referred to as " the Ministry ") by virtue and in exercise of the powers under Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, delegated to it by the Board of Trade, hereby orders as follows :—

1. Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in paragraphs 7 and 8 of the Coal Supply (Northern Ireland) Order, 1942, hereinafter referred to as the " Principal Order "—

(a) the quantity of coal which may be furnished or acquired for consumption in any of the premises covered by the Principal Order shall not exceed one quarter ton in any one consignment, and shall not exceed one quarter ton in any period of two weeks. The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply in respect of consignments to premises which are more than two miles from the merchant's last loading point and more than two miles outside the boundary of an urban district.

(b) no supplies of coal may be furnished to or acquired by a consumer registered under the Principal Order at any time while he has in stock a quantity of coal exceeding one half ton, and the declaration form set out in the Second Schedule of the Principal Order shall be amended accordingly by the substitution of the words " one half ton " for the words " one ton ".

(c) a bellman shall not supply more than four hundredweights of coal to a consumer in one consignment nor shall he supply more than four hundredweights of coal to a consumer within a period of two weeks.

2. Every occupier of premises in which coal is consumed, other than a gas, electricity or railway undertaking and other than an occupier registered under the Principal Order, shall on or before 1st February, 1943, furnish to the Ministry and to his suppliers of coal a certified statement showing the average of the quantities of coal consumed during each week of the three weeks period ending on 23rd January, 1943, hereinafter called the " average weekly consumption ". On and after the 1st day of February, 1943, no coal may be furnished or acquired for consumption in the premises mentioned in this paragraph until the occupier has certified to the supplier that his stock of coal amounts to less than six times the average weekly consumption, and thereafter no coal may be so furnished or acquired in excess of twice the average weekly consumption in any period of two weeks but in the event of the stock of coal on 1st February, 1943, being less than four weeks average weekly consumption sufficient additional coal may be furnished or acquired to bring the stock up to four weeks average weekly consumption. For the purposes of this paragraph the stock of coal shall be deemed to include coal specifically held by a merchant on behalf of the consumer concerned.

3. The expressions defined in paragraph 11 of the Principal Order shall, where used in this Order, have the meanings assigned to them in that Paragraph.

4. This Order shall come into effect on the 25th January, 1943, and shall cease to have effect on the 15th March, 1943.

5. This Order may be cited as the Coal Supply, Temporary Provisions (Northern Ireland) Order, 1943.

Sealed with the Official Seal of the Ministry of Commerce for Northern Ireland this 23rd day of January, 1943, in the presence of
