CHAPTER lxxxiii.

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936 relating to Coatbridge Burgh Extension &c. [20th July 1937.]

A.D. 1937.

WHEREAS the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed has been made by the Secretary of State under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936 and it is requisite that the said Order should be confirmed by Parliament:

26 Geo. 5. & 1 Edw. 8. c. 52.

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows:—

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed is hereby confirmed.

Confirmation of Order in Schedule.

2. This Act may be cited as the Coatbridge Burgh Extension &c. Order Confirmation Act 1937.

Short title.

A.D. 1937.

SCHEDULE.

COATBRIDGE BURGH EXTENSION &c.

Provisional Order to extend the municipal and police boundaries of the burgh of Coatbridge in the county of Lanark to authorise the provost magistrates and councillors of the said burgh to borrow money to make provision with respect to the local government health and finance of the burgh and for other purposes.

WHEREAS the provost magistrates and councillors of the burgh of Coatbridge in the county of Lanark (hereinafter referred to as "the Town Council" and "the burgh" respectively) are the police public health municipal local and road authority within the burgh and are charged with the administration and management thereof:

And whereas the lands available for the erection of dwelling-houses within the burgh are limited and it is necessary to provide for the erection of houses on lands outwith the existing boundaries thereof for the accommodation of persons employed therein and additional lands will be required for such purposes:

And whereas the demand for additional houses arising from and in consequence of an increased population the necessity of relieving the overcrowding which prevails in parts of the burgh and the clearance of slum property cannot be met within the existing burgh and it is expedient that such houses should be built within the burgh boundaries:

And whereas the areas described in the First Schedule to this Order are situate in the county of Lanark and immediately adjoin the existing burgh and there is community of interest between the said areas and the burgh and the Town Council are owners of certain lands and properties in the said areas:

And whereas it is expedient that the boundaries of the existing burgh should be extended so as to include the said areas as in this Order provided and that all franchises rights privileges and immunities of and pertaining to the existing burgh and the powers and jurisdictions of the Town Council and all other powers and jurisdictions applicable within the existing burgh and all public and local Acts and Orders relating to and in force for the time being within or applicable to the existing burgh should as by this Order provided be applied to the burgh as extended by this Order and to the inhabitants thereof:

And whereas it is expedient that subject to the provisions of this Order the said areas should be separated and disjoined for the purposes of this Order from the county of Lanark and that subject to the provisions of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1929 and of this Order all matters of administration and management and all jurisdictions powers functions and authorities within the said areas should devolve upon and be vested in the Town Council: 19 & 20 Geo. 5. c. 25.

And whereas it is expedient that the wards of the burgh should be increased and altered and that the number of the members of the Town Council should be increased and provision made for the election of town councillors as in this Order provided:

And whereas it is expedient to authorise the Town Council to borrow further money for the purposes in this Order mentioned and to make further provision with regard to the finances of the Town Council:

And whereas it is expedient that the further provisions in this Order contained should be enacted:

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without an Order confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1936:

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers contained in the said last-mentioned Act the Secretary of State orders as follows:—

PART I.

PRELIMINARY.

Short and collective titles.

1. This Order may be cited as the Coatbridge Burgh Extension &c. Order 1937.

This Order and the Coatbridge Burgh Act 1885 the Coatbridge Drainage and Burgh Extension Order 1914 48 & 49 Vict. c. xli.

A.D. 1937.

PART I. —cont.

the Coatbridge Burgh Order 1920 the Coatbridge Burgh Extension Order 1924 the Coatbridge Drainage Order 1928 and the Coatbridge Drainage Order 1932 may be cited together as the Coatbridge Burgh Act and Orders 1885 to 1937.

Commencement.

2. This Order shall except as otherwise expressly provided come into operation on the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order (which date is hereinafter referred to as " the commencement of this Order ").

Order divided into Parts.

3. This Order is divided into Parts as follows :—

Part I.—Preliminary.
Part II.—Extension of boundaries.
Part III.—Financial.
Part IV.—Miscellaneous.

Interpretation.

4. In this Order the following words and expressions shall unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction have the meanings hereby assigned to them (that is to say) :—

" Added areas " means the portions of the county of Lanark by this Order incorporated with the existing burgh and shown on the map to be deposited in accordance with the provisions of the section of this Order of which the marginal note is " Map of burgh ";

" Burgh " means the burgh of Coatbridge as extended by this Order;

" Common good " means the common good of the burgh;

" County council " means the county council of the county of Lanark;

" Daily penalty " in relation to any offence means a penalty in respect of every day on which the offence is continued after conviction therefor;

" Dean of guild " means the dean of guild of the burgh elected in pursuance of the Coatbridge Burgh Act 1885;

" Dean of guild court " means the dean of guild court of the burgh;

" District council " means the No. 9 district council of the county of Lanark;

"Election Acts" means the Acts in force for the time being relating to the registration of parliamentary and local government electors and the election of town councillors;

"Existing burgh" means the burgh of Coatbridge within the limits and boundaries existing immediately previous to the commencement of Part II of this Order;

"Liabilities" unless where otherwise expressly provided includes all debts and liabilities to which any person is or but for the confirmation of this Order would be liable or subject whether accrued due at the commencement of Part II of this Order or subsequently accruing;

"Magistrates" means the magistrates of the existing burgh or of the burgh as the case may be;

"Office" includes any place situation or employment;

"Powers" includes rights authorities jurisdictions civil and criminal capacities privileges and immunities;

"Property" includes all property heritable and moveable and all estates interests servitudes and rights in to and out of property heritable and moveable including things forming the subject of suit claim or process and registers books and documents and when used in relation to any sheriff clerk town clerk clerk of the peace county clerk town council county council district council justices board or other authority includes any property which at the commencement of Part II of this Order belongs to or is vested in or held in trust for or would but for the passing of the Act confirming this Order have on or after that date belonged to or been vested in or held in trust for such sheriff clerk town clerk clerk of the peace county clerk town council county council district council justices board or other authority;

"Sheriff" and "sheriff clerk" mean respectively the sheriff of the county of Lanark and any of his substitutes and the sheriff clerk of the county of Lanark;

A.D. 1937.

Part I. —cont.

"Statutory security" means any security in which trustees are for the time being by or under any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed authorised to invest trust money and any mortgage bond debenture debenture stock stock or other security authorised by or under any Act of Parliament passed or to be passed or of any county council or municipal corporation or other local authority including the Town Council but does not include any security transferable by delivery;

"Town clerk" and "chamberlain" mean respectively the town clerk and the town chamberlain of the existing burgh or of the burgh as the case may be;

"Town Council" means the provost magistrates and councillors of the existing burgh or of the burgh as the case may be;

"Town Councils Acts" means the Town Councils (Scotland) Acts 1900 to 1923.

Part II.

Extension of Boundaries.

Commencement of Part II of Order.

5. This Part of this Order shall (except as hereinafter provided) be deemed to have come into operation on and from the sixteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven.

Extension of boundaries.

6. The municipal and police boundaries of the existing burgh shall be and are hereby extended to and shall include and comprehend in addition to the area embraced in the existing burgh the lands and areas within the limits defined in the First Schedule to this Order situated in the parish of Old Monkland and the county of Lanark Provided that the rules prescribed by the Representation of the People Acts shall be observed and receive effect with reference to the description of boundaries contained in the said schedule.

Map of burgh.

7. A map of the burgh (distinguishing the added areas) of which twelve copies have been signed by Matthew George Fisher Counsel to the Secretary of State under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland)

Act 1936 shall within one month after the date of the passing of the Act confirming this Order be deposited as follows (that is to say) one copy with the town clerk at his office two copies with the sheriff clerk that is one at each of his offices in Glasgow and Airdrie respectively one copy in the office of the Clerk of the Parliaments House of Lords one copy in the Committee and Private Bill Office of the House of Commons one copy at the Scottish Office Whitehall one copy with the Ministry of Agriculture and Fisheries one copy with the Commissioners of Inland Revenue one copy with the Commissioners of Customs and Excise one copy with the Board of Trade one copy with the Minister of Transport and one copy with the Registrar-General of Births Deaths and Marriages in Scotland If there be any discrepancy between the said map and the descriptions in the First Schedule to this Order the said map shall be deemed to be correct and shall prevail.

Added areas disjoined from county.

8. The added areas shall be and are hereby for the purposes of this Order separated and disjoined from the county of Lanark.

Division of burgh into wards.

9. The burgh shall be and is hereby divided into six wards (that is to say) :—

(a) The part first described in the Second Schedule to this Order shall form the First Ward or North-West Ward;

(b) The part second described in the said Second Schedule shall form the Second Ward or North Ward;

(c) The part third described in the said Second Schedule shall form the Third Ward or Centre Ward;

(d) The part fourth described in the said Second Schedule shall form the Fourth Ward or South-West Ward;

(e) The part fifth described in the said Second Schedule shall form the Fifth Ward or North-East Ward;

(f) The part sixth described in the said Second Schedule shall form the Sixth Ward or South-East Ward.

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

Number of councillors and representation of wards.

10. At and after the date of the first election of town councillors after the commencement of this Part of this Order the Town Council shall consist of eighteen members and each of the wards as defined by this Order shall be represented in the Town Council by three members.

Retirement of councillors.

11. Subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned all the members of the Town Council of the existing burgh shall on the first Tuesday of November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven or on such other date as may be fixed by the sheriff under the powers conferred by the section of this Order of which the marginal note is "Power to sheriff to sanction procedure with respect to elections" cease to hold their respective offices.

Election of councillors.

12.—(1) On the first Tuesday in November one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven or on such other date as may be fixed by the sheriff under the powers conferred by the section of this Order of which the marginal note is "Power to sheriff to sanction procedure with respect to elections" the electors in each of the six wards into which the burgh is by this Order divided shall elect the number of councillors hereinbefore prescribed for each of the wards before mentioned from among the persons qualified to be councillors and such election and all subsequent elections shall be conducted and the whole procedure in connection with the election induction and tenure of and retirement from office of such councillors and the election of the provost magistrates and other office bearers shall be regulated in all respects in the way and manner prescribed by the Coatbridge Burgh Act 1885 and this Order.

(2) The right of electing the Town Council shall be in and belong to all such persons as have or shall have the qualifications specified and prescribed in the Town Councils Acts.

Register of voters and valuation roll.

13. For the purpose of the Election Acts the added areas shall notwithstanding anything in this Order contained be deemed to be and to have always been a part of the existing burgh and to have been included in the wards specified in the section of this Order of which the marginal note is "Division of burgh into wards" for the making up of the register of voters.

Number of magistrates.

14. The number of magistrates shall be six of whom one shall be the provost and section 19 (Magistrates to be elected) of the Coatbridge Burgh Act 1885 shall be read and construed accordingly.

Magistrates and councillors &c. to retain office until council elected.

15. The provost magistrates and councillors and other office bearers of the Town Council of the existing burgh holding office immediately previous to the commencement of this Part of this Order shall retain their several offices and exercise the respective functions thereof until the election provided for in the section of this Order of which the marginal note is " Election of councillors " has taken place.

Power to sheriff to sanction procedure with respect to elections.

16. In the event of circumstances arising in connection with the first election of councillors magistrates or other office bearers by this Order authorised which may render it necessary or expedient to postpone or vary any date prescribed by or in pursuance of the provisions of the Town Councils Acts or this Order or any other matter arising thereunder the sheriff may on the application of the town clerk sanction such postponement or variation or such procedure as shall in his judgment be best fitted to meet the circumstances of the case and the whole procedure following upon such sanction shall be valid and not challengeable.

Town Council to administer affairs of burgh.

17. The Town Council shall in all respects stand in relation to the administration of the affairs and property of the burgh and of property under the care and management of the Town Council in the same position in which the Town Council of the existing burgh stood previous to the commencement of this Part of this Order and the Town Council shall have the same rights and powers of administration of the property and affairs of the burgh and of making all usual and necessary appointments as lawfully belonged to and were exerciseable or exercised by the Town Council of the existing burgh in regard thereto anything in the set usage or customs of the existing burgh to the contrary notwithstanding.

Property of existing burgh vested in Town Council.

18. Subject to the provisions of this Order the common good and all property (including all means revenues and income of every description arising therefrom) belonging to or leviable within the existing burgh or to which the existing burgh is entitled or which is held or administered by any person for or on behalf of the community of the existing burgh or for the public ends and purposes thereof shall be vested in and be held by the Town Council for the behoof and benefit of the burgh or (as the case may be) be administered by such person for or on behalf of the community of the burgh or for the public ends and purposes thereof and all debts and obligations due by or exigible from the existing burgh shall be due by and exigible from the burgh and all debts due to the Town Council by any person prior to the commencement of this Part of this Order may be demanded and recovered from such person and received and applied by the Town Council for the behoof of the burgh.

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

Powers of local authorities to cease in added areas.

19. Subject to the provisions of this Order all jurisdictions rights powers and authorities which previous to the commencement of this Part of this Order were exercised or exerciseable by the county council or other local or licensing or other authority within or over the added areas or any part or parts thereof (with the exception of such powers as were before that date exercised by the county council or other local or licensing or other authority other than the Town Council within the existing burgh or any part thereof) shall cease and determine.

Powers extended over added areas.

20. The Town Council the provost the magistrates and the dean of guild of the existing burgh and their respective courts shall have possess and may exercise the same powers including (subject to the provisions of this Order) powers of assessment respectively in and over the burgh and over the inhabitants thereof as they and their respective courts had possessed and exercised in their several characters and capacities in and over the existing burgh and over the inhabitants thereof whether at common law or by statute and all rights and privileges and immunities and obligations enjoyed and possessed by or incumbent on the inhabitants of the existing burgh shall subject to the provisions of this Order extend and apply to the inhabitants of the burgh.

Existing trusts vested in Town Council.

21. Subject to the provisions of this Order all mortifications endowments and trusts however constituted charitable bequests or other grants held or administered by the Town Council or the magistrates or office bearers of the existing burgh by themselves or in conjunction with any person or persons body or bodies (but under the liabilities to which the same are legally subject) shall be vested in held and administered by the Town Council or the magistrates or office bearers of the burgh or so many of their number to be chosen by the Town Council for that purpose as are appointed by the deeds or writings under which such mortifications endowments trusts bequests or other grants are constituted together with the other trustees also therein nominated for the purposes and with the rights powers and authorities and subject to all the conditions and provisions under and upon which the same were conveyed granted or settled by the grantors or makers of such mortifications endowments trusts bequests or other grants.

Officers in existing burgh.

22. The several officers of or appointed by the Town Council shall possess and may exercise in their several characters and capacities the same powers in and over the burgh as they had possessed and exercised in their several characters and capacities in and over the existing burgh whether at common law or by statute but without prejudice to the right of the Town Council to make such arrangements in regard to the said officers and their respective duties as before the commencement of this Part of this Order they were entitled to make with reference to the officers of the existing burgh.

Transfer of property and liabilities.

23.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order and except as otherwise in this Order expressly provided the lands buildings depots sewers drains lamps lamp-posts pipes mains cables wires apparatus plant and all other property assets and powers of every description vested in held by or due or belonging to the county council the district council or other authorities in the added areas are by virtue of this Order and without the necessity of recording in the register of sasines any conveyance notarial instrument notice of title or other deed or writing transferred to and vested in and shall be held by and be due and belong to the Town Council and shall form part of the property and assets of the Town Council for all the estate and interest therein of the county council the district council or such authorities and shall be received held and enjoyed by the Town Council accordingly.

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

(2) All the powers duties liabilities contracts and agreements of the county council the district council or such authorities in relation to the added areas are by virtue of this Order transferred and shall attach to the Town Council and shall form part of the powers duties liabilities contracts and agreements of the Town Council and be enjoyed performed paid and discharged by them.

(3) For the purpose of enabling the Town Council to complete a title if thought fit to any part of the lands buildings and other heritable property transferred to and vested in them by virtue of this Order by expeding a notarial instrument notice of title or otherwise this Order shall be deemed to be and may be used as a general disposition or assignation as the case may be of such lands buildings and other property in favour of the Town Council.

(4) The Town Council shall determine any question which shall arise as to the department of the Town Council to which any part of such property ought to belong and any question as to the fund of the Town Council out of which such liabilities and obligations shall be defrayed.

(5) This section shall not apply to the property and assets situated beyond the burgh which belong to the county council the district council or other authority.

Assessment of burgh.

24. Subject to the provisions of this Order every rate charge or assessment authorised to be requisitioned for levied and collected by the county council over the added areas or any part or parts thereof which has not been actually imposed previous to the commencement of this Part of this Order shall thereupon cease and determine within the added areas and thereafter all assessments and rates leviable within the existing burgh by the Town Council shall be leviable on and within the burgh in the same way and manner as the same were leviable on and within the existing burgh:

Provided that the Town Council shall pay over to the county council a sum equal to (1) one-fourth of the rates charges or assessments which would have been levied and collected by the county council within the added areas for the year from Whitsunday one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven to Whitsunday one thousand nine hundred and thirty-eight had the Act confirming this Order not been passed in respect of functions which consequent upon the inclusion within the boundaries of the burgh of the added areas the county council will cease to exercise within the added areas and (2) one-fourth of so much of the General Exchequer Grant under the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1929 which the Town Council will receive for the year commencing Whitsunday one thousand nine hundred and thirty-seven as is attributable to expenditure upon functions which the county council will cease to exercise within the added areas.

Recovery of assessments within added areas.

25. Every rate charge or assessment which has been actually imposed by the county council within the added areas or any part thereof before the commencement of this Part of this Order together with all arrears thereof shall continue to be due and payable to and may be collected and levied by the county council and by the same ways and means and under the same restrictions and regulations as if the Act confirming this Order had not been passed and shall be received and applied by the county council to and for the purposes for which the same were authorised to be levied.

Roads streets and footpaths.

26. All bridges highways roads streets footpaths lanes and courts in the added areas which were vested in the county council the district council or other authorities or which the said councils or authorities by minute or otherwise at or before the commencement of this Part of this Order have taken over or have agreed to take over and maintain or have maintained are by virtue of this Order transferred to and vested in and shall be managed maintained and repaired by the Town Council along with and in the same way and manner and to the same extent as the bridges highways roads streets footpaths lanes and courts within the existing burgh and the said councils or authorities shall be freed and relieved of the liability to repair and maintain all such bridges highways roads streets footpaths lanes and courts in all time coming.

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

Books to be evidence.

27.—(1) All books documents (including certified copies of agreements relating to the added areas) maps and plans directed or authorised to be kept by the county council or any other authority in the added areas or any of them by any Act or otherwise shall so far as they relate to the added areas belong and be transferred to the Town Council and in so far as they would at the commencement of this Part of this Order be receivable in evidence shall be admitted as evidence in all courts and proceedings notwithstanding the cesser of the powers of the county council or other authorities.

(2) The foregoing provision shall not apply to the books documents maps and plans kept by the county council and other authorities which relate to parts of the county other than the added areas but the Town Council and their officers shall be entitled to access to such books documents maps and plans in so far as may be necessary in relation to matters affecting the added areas and the respective clerks or other officers of the county council and other authorities shall afford all reasonable facilities for that purpose.

Application of general and local Acts.

28.—(1) Except so far as inconsistent with or varied by this Order all public and general and local and personal Acts and Orders relating to and in force in the existing burgh and all byelaws rules regulations and orders made thereunder shall subject to the provisions of this Order be exercised over and be applicable to the burgh Provided that nothing in this section shall extend the area of supply defined by the Coatbridge Electric Lighting Orders 1890 and 1905.

(2) Notwithstanding anything in this section contained the byelaws and regulations which shall be made to affect the added areas in regard to the construction occupation use cleansing or sanitation of or any other matter affecting any dwelling-houses cottar-houses cow-byres dairy premises and sculleries milk-houses piggeries dungsteads and other buildings and erections thereon or any renewals extensions or enlargements thereof shall not during the period of five years after the commencement of this Part of this Order be made in terms more onerous on owners or tenants than the byelaws and regulations in regard to such matters in force at the time in the respective districts of the county of Lanark of which the added areas formed part prior to the commencement of this Part of this Order.

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

29. The Secretary of State may in order to meet the circumstances arising from the extension of the boundaries of the existing burgh by this Order authorised by order vary the procedure prescribed by or in pursuance of the Temperance (Scotland) Act 1913 in connection with the taking of polls under the last-mentioned Act or otherwise including any dates fixed in connection with such procedure.

Variation of procedure under Temperance (Scotland) Act 1913.

3 & 4 Geo. 5. c. 33.

30. The powers of the Department of Health for Scotland (hereinafter in this section referred to as "the department") shall operate for the purpose of reconstituting by order made by the department the insurance committees for the county of Lanark and for the burgh as from the commencement of this Part of this Order or such subsequent date as shall be determined by the department and that in such manner and to such extent if any as the department may deem necessary in consequence of the provisions of this Order and for the adjustment consequent on the said provisions of the boundaries of the areas and the financial rights and obligations of the said committees and any such order made by the department may contain such incidental supplemental and consequential provisions as may appear to the department necessary or expedient for carrying the order made by them into effect and for adapting thereto the provisions of the National Health Insurance Acts 1936 and 1937 Provided that any order so made shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament as soon as may be after it is made.

Insurance committees.

26 Geo. 5. & 1 Edw. 8. c. 32.
1 Edw. 8. & 1 Geo. 6. c. 24.

31.—(1) Every person whose settlement is derived from birth or residence for the statutory period of three years in the added areas shall be deemed to have a settlement within the burgh.

Poor law settlement.

(2) Every person who at the commencement of this Part of this Order is resident in the added areas and is in course of acquiring a settlement in the county of Lanark by reason of such residence shall for the purposes of his settlement be deemed to have resided within the burgh during the period during which he has

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

prior to the commencement of this Part of this Order resided within the added areas.

(3) Where at the commencement of this Part of this Order a person has a settlement within the county of Lanark by reason of residence partly in the added areas and partly in another part of the county of Lanark the burgh or the county of Lanark as the case may be shall be deemed to be the area of settlement of that person according as the place of his residence at the time of his acquiring a settlement was within the added areas or within another part of the county of Lanark.

61 & 62 Vict. c. 21.
24 & 25 Geo. 5. c. 52.

(4) For the purposes of section 4 of the Poor Law (Scotland) Act 1898 and subsection (3) of section 3 of the Poor Law (Scotland) Act 1934 every person who at the commencement of this Part of this Order is resident in the added areas shall be deemed to have resided within the burgh during the period during which he has prior to the commencement of this Part of this Order resided within the added areas or within any other part of the county of Lanark.

Town Council may enter into agreements.

32.—(1) Subject and without prejudice to any of the provisions of this Order the Town Council and the county council the district council or other authority (all of whom are hereinafter in this section referred to as "the authorities") or any of them may make and carry into effect agreements with respect to the transfer of property from the authorities or any of them to the Town Council and for settling and adjusting any claims or any doubt or difference arising in relation thereto.

(2) The provisions of any such agreement shall be deemed to be within the powers of the Town Council and of the authorities or any of them respectively and shall have and be carried into effect accordingly.

(3) Any difference arising as to any such agreement or as to any other matter or thing in relation to the transference under this Order of the property liabilities or powers of the authorities or any of them shall failing agreement be determined by an arbiter to be appointed by the Secretary of State on the application of any of the parties concerned If any question of law shall arise in the course of such arbitration the arbiter shall have power at the request of any of the parties concerned to state a case for the opinion of the court of session and the said court shall determine such question.

Financial adjustments.

33. The financial adjustments as between the Town Council and the county council consequent upon the inclusion within the boundaries of the burgh of the added areas shall be made upon the basis of the provisions of the Local Government (Adjustments) (Scotland) Act 1914 and in accordance with the rules contained in the schedule to that Act and section 50 of the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1889 shall apply and have effect on the extension of the boundaries of the existing burgh by this Order and any dispute or difference arising in connection with such adjustments shall be settled by arbitration by an arbiter to be agreed upon or failing agreement to be appointed by the Secretary of State on the application of the Town Council or the county council.

4 & 5 Geo. 5. c. 74.

52 & 53 Vict. c. 50.

Compensation to clerks of peace &c.

34.—(1) The Town Council shall pay to the persons now holding the respective offices of justice of the peace procurator fiscal clerk of the peace and county assessor under the Election Acts for the added areas compensation in respect of any loss which they may respectively sustain by diminution of salary or emoluments or loss of office consequent upon the extension of the boundaries of the existing burgh by this Order authorised.

(2) In the event of the several compensations to be paid under this section not being agreed between the parties or in so far as such compensations are not so agreed the same shall be determined by an arbiter to be appointed by the Secretary of State on the application of any of the parties concerned and the decision of such arbiter shall be final.

Saving of existing jurisdictions &c.

35. Except as otherwise in this Order expressly provided nothing in this Order contained shall transfer or be deemed or construed to transfer to the Town Council—

(1) (a) any jurisdiction power or right hitherto exercised or exerciseable by the county council within the added areas which was also exercised or exerciseable within the existing burgh by the county council previous to the commencement of this Part of this Order;

A.D. 1937.

PART II. —cont.

(b) any liability debt duty or obligation incurred by or incumbent on the county council in connection with the exercise of any such jurisdiction power or right; or

(c) any property officer or servant held or employed for the future exercise of any such jurisdiction power or right or for the discharge of any such liability debt duty or obligation:

(2) any property in the added areas belonging to a railway company the Airdrie Coatbridge and District Water Board the Coatbridge Gas Company or an electricity supply company or any powers of such companies or board exercised or exerciseable in the added areas.

Saving for county councillors &c.

36. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Local Government (Scotland) Act 1889 or this Order any member of the county council or of the district council who at the commencement of this Part of this Order represents any electoral division situated partly within and partly without the added areas shall continue to be a member of the county council or of the district council as the case may be (unless he resigns) until the next election of county councillors or district councillors as the case may be after the commencement of this Part of this Order.

Actions &c. not to abate.

37.—(1) No action arbitration prosecution or proceeding commenced pending or existing by or against the county council the district council or any other authority in relation to any powers duties liabilities or property by this Order transferred to the Town Council shall in anywise abate or be discontinued or prejudicially affected by reason of the passing of the Act confirming this Order but may be continued prosecuted and enforced by or in favour of or against the Town Council as successors to the said county council district council or other authority as fully and effectually as if the Act confirming this Order had not been passed.

(2) All deeds contracts bonds agreements and other instruments entered into or made and subsisting at the commencement of this Part of this Order and affecting any such powers duties liabilities or property shall be of as full force and effect in favour of or against the Town

Council and may be enforced as fully and effectually as if instead of the said councils or either of them or other authority the Town Council had been a party thereto.

PART III.

FINANCIAL.

Borrowing powers.

38. The Town Council in addition to any other powers of borrowing which they now have may for the purposes of—

(a) the payment of any capital sums which may be paid under the provisions of the sections of this Order whereof the marginal notes are "Financial adjustments" and "Compensation to clerks of peace &c."; and

(b) the payment of any capital sum in respect of any land buildings drainage works or others taken over by the Town Council under the provisions of Part II of this Order; and

(c) paying the costs charges and expenses of and incident to the preparing for obtaining and confirming this Order or otherwise in relation thereto; borrow such money as may be necessary for those purposes respectively Provided that any money borrowed under this section for the purposes (a) and (b) above mentioned shall be repaid within a period of twenty-five years from the date or dates of borrowing the same and that any money borrowed for the purpose (c) above mentioned shall be repaid within five years from the commencement of this Order.

Investment of reserve funds &c.

39. Notwithstanding anything in any Act or Order contained the Town Council may invest in statutory securities any reserve contingent depreciation renewal superannuation insurance or other funds belonging to or held by them on account of or in connection with any of the departments or undertakings administered by them or under their control.

Insurance fund.

40.—(1) The Town Council may if they think fit establish a fund to be called "the insurance fund" with a view of providing a sum of money which shall be available for making good all losses damages costs and

A.D. 1937.

PART III. —cont.

expenses to which the Town Council may be subjected in consequence of the whole or any part of all or any of the following risks (that is to say) :—

(i) Risk of fire in respect of buildings works premises and the contents thereof and other property whether belonging to or on loan to or under the care custody or control of the Town Council;

(ii) Risk of accident and claims by third parties in respect of any vehicles whether belonging to or hired by or under the control of the Town Council and whether drawn or propelled by man or horse or mechanical or other means or power;

(iii) Risk of explosion in respect of boilers;

43 & 44 Vict. c. 42. 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 84.

(iv) Risks under the common law the Employers' Liability Act 1880 the Workmen's Compensation Act 1925 or any Act or Acts for the time being amending or extending those Acts or otherwise in respect of accidents to the officers servants or workmen of the Town Council or to third parties;

(v) Risks of mechanical or electrical breakdown at or in connection with any of the undertakings of the Town Council;

(vi) Risks of loss due to infidelity of officials of the Town Council;

(vii) Any other risks against which in the absence of such an insurance fund the Town Council would ordinarily insure.

(2) The establishment of an insurance fund under this section shall not prevent the Town Council from insuring in one or more insurance offices of good repute against the whole or any part of all or any of the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide.

(3) In each year after the establishment of the insurance fund the Town Council shall pay into that fund either—

(a) such a sum as shall in their opinion be equal to the aggregate amount of the premiums which would be payable if the Town Council fully insured in some insurance office of good repute against the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide; or (b) if the Town Council insure in some insurance office of good repute against the whole or any part of the several risks for which the insurance fund is intended to provide such sum as will together with the premiums paid for the last-mentioned insurance be not less than the aggregate amount aforesaid.

(4) When the insurance fund shall amount to sixty thousand pounds the Town Council may if they think fit discontinue the yearly payments to the fund but if the fund is at any time reduced below sixty thousand pounds the Town Council shall recommence and continue the yearly payments to that fund in accordance with subsection (3) of this section until the fund be restored to the sum of sixty thousand pounds.

(5) The Town Council shall provide the yearly payments aforesaid by contributions from the assessments leviable by them and shall show the same in their accounts under the separate heading or division in respect of the particular undertaking or department of the Town Council which if the risks were insured against in an insurance office would be properly chargeable with the payment of the premiums of such insurance.

(6) Except so far as the insurance fund and the proceeds of sale of securities in which that fund is invested may be required to meet losses damages costs and expenses in consequence of risks for which the fund is intended to provide all moneys for the time being standing to the credit of the fund shall (subject to the provisions of this Order) be invested in statutory securities and the interest and annual proceeds arising from those securities shall be invested and accumulated until the fund amounts to the sum of sixty thousand pounds and when and so long as the fund amounts to that sum the interest and annual proceeds of the securities shall be carried to the credit of an assessment payable equally by owner and occupier.

(7) The insurance fund shall be applied to meet any losses damages costs or expenses sustained by the Town Council in consequence of risks for which it is intended to provide in the order of the dates on which such losses damages costs or expenses become ascertained and if at any time and from time to time the insurance fund shall be insufficient to make good any such losses damages costs or expenses the Town Council may with the sanction of a Secretary of State borrow at interest under and subject to the provisions of this Order such sums of money as will be necessary to make up the deficiency The amounts of the annual charges in respect of interest on and repayment of principal of any sums so borrowed and the amounts of any such deficiencies as aforesaid not made up by borrowing shall be paid out of the burgh fund of the Town Council and charged in the accounts of the Town Council under the separate headings or divisions in respect of such undertakings or departments of the Town Council and in such proportion as a Secretary of State may direct having regard to the risks through which such deficiencies arise.

A.D. 1937.

PART III. —cont.

PART IV.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Regulation of tents vans &c.

60 & 61 Vict. c. 38.

41.—(1) It shall not be lawful for any person without the consent of the Town Council acting as the local authority for the burgh under the Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897—

(a) to let or use or permit to be used any land situate within the burgh for occupation by any tent van shed or similar structure used or intended to be used for human habitation; or

(b) to place or keep on any land within the burgh any such tent van shed or similar structure;

and such consent may be given for such period and on such conditions as the Town Council think fit Provided that consent shall not be required by any person in respect of—

(i) any tent van shed or similar structure placed or kept by the occupier of a dwelling-house upon any land connected therewith and used by him or members of his household;

(ii) any tent van shed or similar structure used or intended to be used by the occupier for human habitation where such use shall not exceed a period of three months in any period of twelve months;

(iii) any tent van shed or similar structure provided by or belonging to or used by—

(a) any duly constituted religious or charitable society or body to the main objects of which the provision ownership or use of tents vans sheds or similar structures is merely subsidiary;

(b) any association incorporated by Royal Charter or any organisation constituted by any such last-mentioned association in pursuance of their charter;

(c) any portion of His Majesty's Naval Military or Air Forces or any contingent of the Officers Training Corps or any Cadet Unit of the British National Cadet Association officially recognised by the Army Council or any University Air Squadron officially recognised by the Air Council;

(iv) any tent van shed or similar structure erected or to be erected on the property of a railway company for railway purposes;

(v) any tent van shed or similar structure used or intended to be used for human habitation by a person whose regular employment or occupation is that of a roundabout proprietor or travelling showman (not being a pedlar or hawker) Provided that the period during which such tent van shed or similar structure is so used in the burgh shall not exceed a period of six months in any period of twelve months and such tent van shed or similar structure is only used in connection with his employment or occupation.

(2) Any person aggrieved by the withholding by the Town Council of consent under the provisions of this section may within twenty-one days from the date of the decision of the Town Council appeal to the sheriff and the sheriff may make such order and on such terms and conditions as to the sheriff may seem just.

A.D. 1937.

Part IV. —cont.

(3) If any person offend against any of the foregoing provisions of this section he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds and to a daily penalty not exceeding forty shillings and all offences against the said provisions may be prosecuted in the police court.

(4) Section 73 (Tents and vans used for human habitation) of the Public Health (Scotland) Act 1897 shall in its application to the burgh be extended so as to authorise the Town Council to make byelaws with respect to the number of tents vans sheds or similar structures used or intended to be used for human habitation to be permitted on any land the area to be allotted to each such tent van shed or similar structure the provision of adequate lighting of such land or area and precautions against fire and sections 183 to 187 of the said Act shall extend and apply to any byelaws made by the Town Council under this section.

(5) Nothing in this section shall prejudice or affect the powers and jurisdiction of the dean of guild.

Display of advertisements.

42.—(1) The Town Council may serve a notice on the owner or occupier of any land in respect of any serious injury to the amenities of any public open space which may be caused by the display of advertisements on such land within fifty yards of such open space requiring him within a reasonable time not being less than twenty-eight days to be specified in the notice to take such action and to execute such works including works of removal as may be necessary to abate the injury.

(2) If the person on whom the notice is served fails to comply therewith the Town Council may cause a complaint relating to the injury to be made to the sheriff and the sheriff may require the person to appear before him and if satisfied that the alleged serious injury exists may make an order requiring the person to comply with the requisition or otherwise to abate the injury and to do any works necessary for the purpose within a time specified in the order but if not so satisfied may refuse to make any such order.

(3) If any person fails to comply with the requirements of an order made under subsection (2) of this section he shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings and to a daily penalty not exceeding ten shillings.

(4) Any order made under subsection (2) of this section may also empower the Town Council themselves to undertake the necessary works and to recover the cost from the person against whom the order is made if such person fails to comply with the order.

(5) For the purposes of this section "public open space" means any land laid out as a public pleasure ground or place of public resort or recreation including an open space for rest or recreation.

(6) The provisions of this section in regard to advertisements shall be in addition to and not in derogation of the provisions of the Advertisements Regulation Acts 1907 and 1925. 7 Edw. 7. c. 27. 15 & 16 Geo. 5. c. 52.

(7) Nothing in this section shall apply to—

(a) advertisements on houses relating to the letting or sale thereof or upon land relating solely to any trade or business carried on or to any entertainment or meeting auction or sale to be held upon or in relation to such land or any property thereon or to advertisements on the doors or in the windows of a building if the advertisements do not in either case contain letters figures or advertising emblems exceeding twelve inches in height and do not (except where affixed to and not projecting above a vertical wall of a building) exceed a height of twelve feet from the ground;

(b) (for a period of five years from the commencement of this Order) hoardings or similar structures erected or in use for advertising purposes prior to that date advertising stations used by advertisement contractors at that date and any advertisement from time to time displayed thereon during that period or any other advertisement displayed at the commencement of this Order;

(c) advertisements on or upon any railway station yard platform or railway approach or any canal dock wharf lock or toll station belonging to a railway company.

A.D. 1937.

PART IV. —cont.

(8) The provisions of this section shall to the extent that the subject-matters thereof are dealt with by provisions in a town-planning scheme coming into operation after the commencement of this Order cease to have effect upon the coming into operation of such provisions.

Lopping of overhanging trees hedges and shrubs.

43.—(1) Where any tree hedge or shrub overhangs any street footway or footpath so as to obstruct or interfere with the light from any public lamp or to endanger or obstruct the passage of vehicles or foot passengers or to obstruct the view of drivers of vehicles the Town Council may serve a notice on the owner of the tree hedge or shrub or on the occupier of the premises on which such tree hedge or shrub is growing requiring him to lop or cut the tree hedge or shrub within fourteen days so as to prevent such obstruction or interference or danger and in default of compliance the Town Council may themselves carry out the requisition of their notice doing no unnecessary damage and may recover the cost as a debt from the owner or occupier upon whom the notice was served.

(2) Any person aggrieved by any notice of the Town Council under this section may appeal to the sheriff within the foresaid period of fourteen days provided he gives written notice of such appeal and of the grounds thereof to the town clerk and the sheriff shall have power to make such order as he may think fit.

Dustbins &c.

44.—(1) The Town Council may require the owners or occupiers of houses shops or other premises to provide portable dustbins for domestic refuse and such dustbins shall be of such size and construction as may be approved by the Town Council.

(2) The Town Council may purchase suitable or standard dustbins and supply the same to owners or occupiers of houses shops or other premises on such terms and conditions as may be agreed upon.

Amendment of section 381 of Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1892. 55 & 56 Vict. c. 55.

45. Section 381 (21) of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1892 in its application within the burgh shall be read and have effect as if for the words "shakes carpets or mats from any window" there were substituted the words "shakes or beats carpets rugs mats or bedding "from any window or in or over any common stair or "common passage."

Nuisance by dogs.

46. Every person in charge of a dog in any street and having the dog on a lead who shall allow or permit such dog to deposit its excrement upon a public pavement or footway shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding forty shillings.

Byelaws as to loud-speakers &c.

47.—(1) The Town Council may make byelaws for regulating and controlling the use of loud-speakers gramophones and any other devices for the reproduction and amplification of sound (in this section referred to as "loud-speakers") used in such manner as to be audible in any street to the annoyance of the lieges or if they think fit for prohibiting the use in such a manner as to be audible in any street of loud-speakers for advertising purposes.

(2) Sections 317 to 323 of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1892 shall extend and apply to any byelaws that may be made by the Town Council under the provisions of this section.

Byelaws as to chalking on pavements.

48.—(1) The Town Council may make byelaws for prohibiting regulating or controlling the marking of streets and foot pavements by writing or chalking thereon.

(2) Sections 317 to 323 of the Burgh Police (Scotland) Act 1892 shall extend and apply to any byelaws that may be made by the Corporation under the provisions of this section.

Chairman of dean of guild court.

49. In the event of the dean of guild or depute dean of guild not being in attendance at any meeting of the dean of guild court the councillors of the dean of guild court may appoint one of their members to act as chairman of the meeting and such member when so presiding shall have all the rights powers and privileges of the dean of guild.

Reduction or suspension of salary or wages.

50.—(1) In the event of the salary or wages of an officer or servant of the Town Council being either—

(a) reduced on account of his mental or physical infirmity ; or

(b) suspended by reason of illness;

he may if he so desires with the consent of the Town Council continue to contribute to the superannuation fund of the Town Council under the Local Government and other Officers' Superannuation Act 1922 in all respects

12 & 13 Geo. 5. c. 59.

A.D. 1937.

PART IV. —cont.

as if such reduction or suspension had not taken effect and in the event of his so continuing to contribute the amount of his salary or wages for the period in respect of which he so continues to contribute shall for the purposes of the said Act of 1922 be deemed to be the amount of the salary or wages which he would have received in respect of that period if such reduction or suspension had not taken place.

(2) For the purposes of this section words and expressions to which meanings are assigned by the said Act of 1922 have in this section the same respective meanings unless there is something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

Dwelling-houses for persons in Town Council's employment.

51. The Town Council may erect purchase or take on lease dwelling-houses for such of the persons employed by them as require in consequence of the nature of their duties to reside in close proximity to the places where they are employed.

Recovery of penalties.

52. Any penalty under this Order or under any byelaws or regulations made under this Order unless otherwise specially provided for may be recovered in the sheriff court in manner provided by the Summary Jurisdiction (Scotland) Acts.

Saving for Clyde Valley Electrical Power Company.

53. Nothing in this Order contained shall prejudice or affect the agreement between the Town Council and the Clyde Valley Electrical Power Company dated the nineteenth and twenty-first days of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three or the supplementary agreement between the same parties dated the twenty-first and twenty-second days of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four relating to the electricity undertaking of the Town Council.

Order not to affect election of members to serve in Parliament.

54. Nothing in this Order contained shall interfere with the election of members to serve in Parliament for the county of Lanark and that county shall for parliamentary purposes remain the same as if the Act confirming this Order had not been passed.

Crown rights.

55. Nothing in this Order shall affect prejudicially any estate right power privilege or exemption of the Crown or shall subject to the provisions of this Order any lands buildings or works vested in or occupied by the Crown or any department of His Majesty's Government except to such extent as His Majesty or such department may voluntarily agree.

Costs of Order.

56. All costs charges and expenses preliminary to and of and incidental to the preparing for obtaining and confirming of this Order or otherwise in relation thereto shall be paid by the Town Council out of any funds (not being in the nature of capital) rates or revenues belonging to them or under their control or out of moneys to be borrowed by them under this Order for that purpose.

A.D. 1937. The SCHEDULES referred to in the foregoing Order.

THE FIRST SCHEDULE.

DESCRIPTION OF ADDED AREAS.

AREA NO. 1.

Commencing on the western boundary of the existing burgh at a point on the eastern boundary of enclosure No. 769 on the Ordnance survey map of the parish of Old Monkland 1912 edition where a line drawn 167 yards or thereby distant southwards from and parallel to the southern boundary of the Bathgate and Airdrie Highway as shown on the said map cuts the eastern boundary of the said enclosure No. 769 thence westwards along a line 167 yards or thereby distant from and parallel to the southern boundary of the Bathgate and Airdrie Highway as shown on the said map to the centre of the Bishop Burn thence generally northwards along the centre of the Bishop Burn to the point where the southern boundary of enclosure No. 639 on the said map crosses the Bishop Burn thence north-westwards in a straight line to the south-east-most corner of enclosure No. 628 on the said map thence generally north-westwards along the eastern boundary of the Heatheryknowe branch of the London and North Eastern Railway to the south-most corner of enclosure No. 378 on the said map thence continuing north-westwards for a distance of 200 yards or thereby along the south-western boundary of the said enclosure No. 378 thence northwards in a straight line for a distance of 280 yards or thereby to a point on the southern boundary of enclosure No. 346 on the said map where a line drawn 150 yards or thereby distant westwards from and parallel to the western boundary of the Cuilhill and Whitehill Highway cuts the said southern boundary of the said enclosure No. 346 thence generally in a northerly direction along a line 150 yards or thereby distant westwards from and parallel to the western boundary of the Cuilhill and Whitehill Highway to the northern boundary of enclosure No. 327 on the said map thence eastwards along the northern boundary of the said enclosure No. 327 to the western boundary of the said Cuilhill and Whitehill Highway thence in a northerly direction for a distance of 19 yards or thereby along the western boundary of the said highway thence north-eastwards in a straight line for a distance of 12 yards or thereby to the north-west corner of enclosure No. 328 on the said map thence north-eastwards and south-eastwards along the northern and eastern boundaries of the said enclosure No. 328 to the northern boundary of the Woodend Loch being enclosure No. 331 on the said map thence generally in an easterly direction along the northern boundary of Woodend Loch to the west-most corner of enclosure No. 292 on the said map thence eastwards in a straight line to the north-most corner of enclosure No. 175 on the said map thence south-eastwards and south-westwards along the north-eastern and south-eastern boundaries of the said enclosure No. 175 to the north-eastern boundary of Gartsherrie Station Highway thence south-eastwards north-eastwards and generally south-eastwards along the north-eastern boundary of the said Gartsherrie Station Highway to the northern boundary of the existing burgh thence generally south-westwards north-westwards southwards north-eastwards south-eastwards eastwards southwards south-westwards north-westwards and south-westwards along the boundary of the existing burgh to the point of commencement.

Area No. 2.

Commencing at a point on the western boundary of the existing burgh where the southern boundary of enclosure No. 1319 on the Ordnance survey map of the parish of Old Monkland 1912 edition cuts the said western boundary of the existing burgh thence north-westwards and generally north and north-eastwards along the southern and western boundaries of the said enclosure No. 1319 to the western boundary of the existing burgh thence south-eastwards and south-westwards along the western boundary of the existing burgh to the point of commencement.

THE SECOND SCHEDULE.

Description of Wards.

First or North-West Ward.

Commencing at a point on the western boundary of the burgh where the said western boundary meets the centre line of the Bathgate and Airdrie Highway thence along the western northern and eastern boundaries of the burgh to a point on the eastern boundary of Gartgill Road where the burgh boundary turns eastwards thence along the eastern side of Gartgill Road to the north side of Gartsherrie Road thence along the north side of Gartsherrie Road to the centre line of the London Midland

A.D. 1937.

2nd Sch. —cont.

and Scottish Railway main line thence along the centre line of the said main line to Bank Street thence generally westwards along the centre line of Bank Street and the continuation thereof known as the Bathgate and Airdrie Highway to the point of commencement.

Second or North Ward.

Commencing at a point where the northern boundary of the burgh cuts the east side of Gartgill Road thence along the northern and eastern boundaries of the burgh to the south side of the London and North Eastern Railway Airdrie Branch thence westwards along the south side of the said railway to Dunbeth Road thence southwards along the centre line of Dunbeth Road to Muiryhall Street thence westwards along the centre line of Muiryhall Street to Saint John Street thence along the centre line of Saint John Street to Main Street thence westwards along the centre lines of Main Street and Bank Street to the centre line of the London Midland and Scottish Railway main line thence northwards along the centre line of the said main line to the north side of Gartsherrie Road thence along the north side of Gartsherrie Road to the east side of Gartgill Road thence along the east side of Gartgill Road to the point of commencement.

Third or Centre Ward.

Commencing at a point on the centre line of Bank Street at Manse Street thence eastwards along the centre lines of Bank Street and Main Street to Saint John Street thence along the centre line of Saint John Street to Muiryhall Street thence along the centre line of Muiryhall Street to Jackson Street thence southwards along the centre lines of Jackson Street Coatbank Street and Whifflet Street to Dundyvan Road thence along the centre line of Dundyvan Road to Hutchison Street thence along the centre line of Hutchison Street to Dundyvan Road thence northwards along the centre line of Dundyvan Road to Manse Street thence along the centre line of Manse Street to the point of commencement.

Fourth or South-West Ward.

Commencing at a point on the western boundary of the burgh where the said western boundary meets the centre line of the Bathgate and Airdrie Highway thence eastwards along the centre line of the said highway and the continuation thereof known as Bank Street to Manse Street thence along the centre line of Manse Street to Dundyvan Road thence southwards along the centre line of Dundyvan Road to Hutchison Street thence along the centre line of Hutchison Street to Dundyvan Road thence south-eastwards along the centre line of Dundyvan Road to Whifflet Street thence southwards along the centre line of Whifflet Street to School Street thence along the centre lines of School Street and Old Monkland Road to the service road leading to Rosehall Colliery No. 10 Pit thence along the centre line of the said service road to the southern boundary of the burgh thence along the southern western and again southern and western boundaries of the burgh following the bends thereof to the point of commencement.

FIFTH OR NORTH-EAST WARD.

Commencing on the centre line of Dunbeth Road at Muiryhall Street thence northwards along the centre line of Dunbeth Road to the south side of the London and North Eastern Railway Airdrie Branch thence eastwards along the south side of the said railway to the burgh boundary thence along the northern and eastern boundaries of the burgh to the Monkland Canal thence westwards along the centre line of the said canal to Coatbank Street thence northwards along the centre lines of Coatbank Street and Jackson Street to Muiryhall Street thence along the centre line of Muiryhall Street to the point of commencement.

SIXTH OR SOUTH-EAST WARD.

Commencing at a point on the centre line of the Monkland Canal at Coatbank Street thence eastwards along the centre line of the said canal to the eastern boundary of the burgh thence along the eastern and southern boundaries of the burgh to the centre line of the service road to Rosehall Colliery No. 10 Pit thence along the centre line of the said service road to Old Monkland Road thence eastwards along the centre lines of Old Monkland Road and School Street to Whifflet Street thence northwards along the centre lines of Whifflet Street and Coatbank Street to the point of commencement.

Printed by EYRE AND SPOTTISWOODE LIMITED FOR
SIR WILLIAM RICHARD CODLING, C.B., C.V.O., C.B.E., the King's Printer of Acts of Parliament

To be purchased directly from H.M. STATIONERY OFFICE at the following addresses:
Adastral House, Kingsway, London, W.C.2; 120 George Street, Edinburgh 2; 26 York Street, Manchester 1; 1 St. Andrew's Crescent, Cardiff; 80 Chichester Street, Belfast;
or through any bookseller

Price 1*s.* 0*d.* net