COFFEE

1953 No. 755

The Coffee and Chicory (Drawback) Regulations, 1953

Made - - - -	29th April, 1953
Laid before Parliament	1st May, 1953
Coming into Operation	1st July, 1953

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise in pursuance of the powers conferred on them by section two hundred and thirty of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952(a), hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. Any person intending to export, ship as stores or warehouse for use as stores on drawback any roasted coffee, roasted chicory or mixtures thereof, or any manufactured goods, shall—

(a) give to the proper officer not less than twenty-four hours' notice in writing specifying the place and time at which he intends to pack any such goods for removal to be so exported, shipped or warehoused, and giving such particulars of the goods as the Commissioners may require; and

(b) produce the goods to such officer for examination at the place and time specified in the notice, together with the relevant entry.

2. Unless the Commissioners shall in any case otherwise permit, no person shall—

(a) warehouse as aforesaid at any one time any roasted coffee in a quantity less than fifty-six pounds; nor

(b) export or warehouse as aforesaid at any one time any roasted chicory or mixture of roasted coffee and roasted chicory in a quantity less than fifty-six pounds; nor

(c) ship as aforesaid at any one time any roasted chicory or mixture of roasted coffee and roasted chicory in a quantity less than fourteen pounds; nor

(d) warehouse as aforesaid at any one time any manufactured goods in a quantity less than fifty-six pounds.

3.—(1) Any person intending to export or ship or warehouse as aforesaid any roasted chicory or any mixture of roasted coffee and roasted chicory or any manufactured goods other than those goods in the manufacture or preparation of which roasted coffee unmixed with roasted chicory has been used, shall keep an account in such form as the Commissioners may direct in which he shall enter—

(a) the weight of all chicory, of all dried chicory and of all mixtures of roasted coffee and roasted chicory and of all such manufactured goods as aforesaid in his stock on the date when he commences so to export, ship or warehouse such goods; and

(a) 15 & 16 Geo. 6 & 1 Eliz. 2 c. 44.

(b) as regards any transaction in or dealing with any such goods after that date—

(i) the weight of all chicory and of all mixtures of roasted coffee and roasted chicory which he receives, together with the date of receipt ;

(ii) the weight of all roasted coffee and roasted chicory which he mixes, together with the date of mixing ;

(iii) the weight of all chicory which he intends to subject to any process, the weight thereof after processing, together with the date of processing ;

(iv) the weight of all such manufactured goods which he receives, prepares or manufactures, together with the date of receipt, preparation or manufacture, and particulars of the weight of roasted coffee and roasted chicory used in such manufacture or preparation ;

(v) the weight of all chicory, mixtures of roasted coffee and roasted chicory and of all such manufactured goods which he delivers out of his stock, together with the date of delivery, the name and address of the consignee, the port or place of shipment or particulars of the warehouse as the case may be to which he delivers any such goods ;

(vi) the name and address of all persons from whom he receives any chicory, mixture of roasted coffee and roasted chicory or any such manufactured goods.

(2) A person keeping such account shall show therein whether duty has or has not been paid in respect of any chicory to which the account relates, and shall balance the account once every quarter, and shall produce it on demand for inspection by an officer at any reasonable time.

4. Any person who exports, ships or warehouses as aforesaid any roasted coffee, roasted chicory, mixture of roasted coffee and roasted chicory or any manufactured goods shall provide and maintain at any premises from which he removes any such goods to be so exported, shipped or warehoused, such scales and weights and such other facilities as are necessary to enable an officer to take account of the goods, and shall permit an officer at any time to use anything so provided, and shall give any assistance necessary to enable him to perform his duties.

5.—(1) In these Regulations the expression " manufactured goods " means goods (other than roasted coffee, roasted chicory or any mixture thereof) in the manufacture or preparation of which in the United Kingdom any roasted coffee, roasted chicory or mixture thereof has been used.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply for the interpretation of these Regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

6. The Coffee and Chicory (Drawback) Regulations, 1937(b), are hereby revoked.

7. These Regulations may be cited as the Coffee and Chicory (Drawback) Regulations, 1953, and shall come into operation on the first day of July, 1953.

Dated this 29th day of April, 1953.

F. N. Roberts,
Commissioner of Customs and Excise.

King's Beam House,
London, E.C.3.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note does not form part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations, made under section two hundred and thirty of the Customs and Excise Act, 1952, set out the conditions to be observed by persons who wish to obtain drawback of duty on roasted coffee and chicory exported or used for ships stores.

The Regulations revoke and substantially reproduce in modern form the Coffee and Chicory (Drawback) Regulations, 1937, made under Section 22 of the Finance Act, 1916, Section 12 of the Finance Act, 1921, and Section 8 of the Finance Act, 1923, of which the relevant parts have been repealed by the Customs and Excise Act, 1952.
