EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order, which is made under the Local Government Act 1972, constitutes new combined probation and after-care areas in England and Wales outside London. The Order comes into operation on 1st April 1974, the date that local government re-organisation takes effect under the 1972 Act and, with three exceptions, the new combined probation and after-care areas are the same as the areas of the new counties established by that Act. The exceptions are the Hampshire, Northumbria and North Wales combined probation and after-care areas where, in each case, two new counties will be combined. The Order makes provision regarding the constitution of a committee for each new combined probation and after-care area and the appointment of a secretary for each such committee.
