1963 CHAPTER 6

An Act to amend the Commonwealth Scholarships Act 1959. [28th February 1963]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Power to select persons from Channel Islands and Isle of Man as candidates for Commonwealth Scholarships etc. 8 & 9 Eliz. 2. c. 6.

1. In section 1 of the Commonwealth Scholarships Act 1959 (which sets out the duties of the Commonwealth Scholarship Commission in the United Kingdom in connection with awards arising out of the Commonwealth Scholarship and Fellowship Plan), at the end of subsection (1) (under which those duties include the selection of the recipients of awards to persons coming to the United Kingdom, the placing of the recipients at educational establishments there, and the selection of candidates from the United Kingdom for awards to be granted in countries outside the United Kingdom) there shall be added the words " and references in this subsection to the United Kingdom include references to the Channel Islands and the Isle of Man."

Abolition of limit on number of awards tenable in United Kingdom and Islands.

2.—In section 2 of the said Act of 1959 (which as adapted by the Department of Technical Co-operation Order 1961 includes provision for defraying the expenses of the Secretary of State or the Secretary for Technical Co-operation in making awards arising out of the said Plan, up to the number of five hundred tenable at any one time, to persons coming to the United Kingdom) the words " up to the number of five hundred tenable at any one time " are hereby repealed.

Short title and citation.

3. This Act may be cited as the Commonwealth Scholarships (Amendment) Act 1963, and this Act and the Commonwealth Scholarships Act 1959 may be cited together as the Commonwealth Scholarships Acts 1959 and 1963.
