This Order specifies certain material interests in land which are not to be outstanding material interests for the purposes of the Community Land Act 1975. An authority under that Act may, by order under section 18, be placed under a duty to acquire all outstanding material interests in land which is needed for the purposes of relevant development designated by that order. Under the Act certain planning permissions can be "suspended" under sections 19–22. These sections do not apply to planning permissions granted in respect of land in which there are no material interests outstanding.
