CHAPTER 13.

An Act to make provision with respect to an additional special grant for the purpose of improving medical service in the Highlands and Islands of Scotland. [20th December 1929.]

BE it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Additional sum for Highlands and Islands medical service. 3 & 4 Geo. 5. c. 26.

1. There shall be paid to the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Fund established under subsection (1) of section one of the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Grant Act, 1913, and applied for the purposes of that fund, in addition to the sum of forty-two thousand pounds called the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Grant payable under the said subsection, such sum as may be annually voted by Parliament for the purpose.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Additional Grant Act, 1929, and the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Grant Act, 1913, and this Act may together be cited as the Highlands and Islands (Medical Service) Grant Acts, 1913 and 1929.

CHAPTER 14.

An Act to apply a sum out of the Consolidated Fund to the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty. [6th February 1930.]

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal subjects, the Commons of the United Kingdom in Parliament assembled, towards making good the supply which we have cheerfully granted to Your Majesty in this session of Parliament, have resolved to grant unto

Your Majesty the sum hereinafter mentioned; and do therefore most humbly beseech Your Majesty that it may be enacted, and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Issue of 5,410,250*l.* out of the Consolidated Fund for the service of the year ending 31st March 1930.

1. The Treasury may issue out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom and apply towards making good the supply granted to His Majesty for the service of the year ending on the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, the sum of five million four hundred and ten thousand two hundred and fifty pounds.

Power for the Treasury to borrow.

2.—(1) The Treasury may borrow from any person, by the issue of Treasury Bills or otherwise, and the Bank of England and the Bank of Ireland may advance to the Treasury on the credit of the said sum, any sum or sums not exceeding in the whole five million four hundred and ten thousand two hundred and fifty pounds.

(2) The date of payment of any Treasury Bills issued under this section shall be a date not later than the thirty-first day of March, one thousand nine hundred and thirty, and section six of the Treasury Bills Act, 1877 (which relates to the renewal of bills), shall not apply with respect to those bills.

40 & 41 Vict. c. 2.

(3) Any money borrowed otherwise than on Treasury Bills shall be repaid, with interest not exceeding five pounds per centum per annum, out of the growing produce of the Consolidated Fund, at any period not later than the next succeeding quarter to that in which the money was borrowed.

(4) Any money borrowed under this section shall be placed to the credit of the account of the Exchequer, and shall form part of the said Consolidated Fund, and be available in any manner in which such Fund is available.

(5) The interest on any money borrowed under this section shall be paid out of the permanent annual charge for the National Debt.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Consolidated Fund (No. 2) Act, 1930.
