EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Road Vehicles and Drivers Order, 1950. The changes are:—

(a) The period of validity of permits and authorisations to act as driver or conductor of a public service vehicle, and of certain permits granted in lieu of public service vehicle and road service licences, if in force on 31st July, 1951, is extended until 31st July, 1952, or the expiry of the relevant Defence Regulations, if earlier.

(b) The provision whereby certain persons authorised to drive public service vehicles may also act as conductors of such vehicles without being duly licensed which would have expired on 31st July, 1951, is continued in force until 31st July, 1952, or the expiry of the relevant Defence Regulation, if earlier.

(23) SULPHUR

The Ground Sulphur (Prices) Order, 1951

1951 No. 934

Made - - - -	25th May, 1951
Laid before Parliament	26th May, 1951
Coming into Operation	1st June, 1951

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulation 55AB of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1950(d), hereby order as follows:—

1. A person shall not sell any sulphur to which this Order applies of any description and quantity for which a maximum price is specified in the Schedule hereto at a price exceeding the maximum price so specified in relation to that description and quantity.

2. Subject to the provisions of Article 3 hereof a seller shall not, in relation to the sale of any sulphur to which this Order applies, make any charge in addition to the price paid or payable therefor.

3. Where any sulphur to which this Order applies is delivered, at the buyer's request, at a place other than the seller's premises, the seller may, in addition to the price paid or payable therefor, charge the buyer with the amount of any reasonable expense occasioned to the seller by so delivering, if the amount of that charge is stated separately in an invoice furnished to the buyer.

4. Sulphur to which this Order applies means sulphur which has not been subjected to a further process than that of sieving or grading, but does not include sieved or graded sulphur sold with a guarantee of minimum particle size.

5.—(1) The Ground Sulphur (Prices) Order, 1947(e), and the Ground Sulphur (Prices) (Amendment No. 4) Order, 1951(f), are hereby revoked.

(2) This Order may be cited as the Ground Sulphur (Prices) Order, 1951, and shall come into operation on the 1st day of June, 1951.

Dated this 25th day of May, 1951.
