1953 No. 442

The Control of Trade by Sea General Licence, 1953

Made - - - -	17*th March*, 1953
Laid before Parliament	17*th March*, 1953
Coming into Operation	31*st March*, 1953

The Minister of Transport in pursuance of article 3 of the Control of Trade by Sea (China and North Korea) Order, 1953(a), hereby grants the following licence:—

1. Subject to the provisions of this licence every ship to which the Control of Trade by Sea (China and North Korea) Order, 1953, applies is hereby authorised to proceed to sea from any port (whether within or outside the United Kingdom) on any voyage, other than a voyage to any port in China or North Korea or to or within the territorial waters of those countries.

2. This licence is granted subject to the condition and limitation that the ship shall not make any diversion from any voyage authorised by this licence to any port in China or North Korea or to the territorial waters of those countries.

Provided that nothing in this paragraph shall apply to a diversion which is proved to the satisfaction of the Minister of Transport to have been made under duress or caused solely by stress of weather.

3. Nothing in this licence shall be taken to authorise a ship to proceed to sea on any voyage without the authority of such licence or authorisation (other than a licence under the Control of Trade by Sea (China and North Korea) Order 1953) as may be required by law.

4. This licence shall come into operation on the 31st day of March, 1953, and may be cited as the Control of Trade by Sea General Licence, 1953.

Dated this 17th day of March, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Alan Lennox-Boyd,
The Minister of Transport.
