EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These Regulations amend the Corn Returns (Scotland) Regulations 1970 by substituting a new form of return for the previous form. The principal change in this form is a change from hundredweights and pounds to tons and hundredweights as the units in terms of which quantities of corn purchased are to be listed. Additional particulars to be given of the purchases comprised in the return are prescribed in relation to denatured wheat.
