EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The Agriculture (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1954 provides that the Corn Returns Act, 1882 (as amended) shall apply to Scotland. The Corn Returns Act requires buyers of British corn to make returns of particulars about the corn purchased by them in certain towns. These regulations prescribe the towns in respect of which returns of purchases of British Corn have to be made and also the form of return.
