The Coronavirus (Recovery and Reform) (Scotland) Act 2022 (Extension of Temporary Justice Measures) Regulations 2024

Made - - - -	5th November 2024
Coming into force - -	30th November 2024

The Scottish Ministers make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 52(3) of the Coronavirus (Recovery and Reform) (Scotland) Act 2022(a) and all other powers enabling them to do so.

In accordance with section 52(4) and (6) of that Act, the Scottish Ministers have carried out a review of the operation of the provisions in its schedule and in doing so, have consulted such persons as they consider appropriate.

In accordance with section 52(7) of that Act, the Scottish Ministers have laid before the Scottish Parliament a statement of reasons as to why this instrument should be made, the findings of the review carried out under section 52(4) of that Act and what consultation was undertaken in carrying out that review.

In accordance with section 54(3) of that Act, a draft of this instrument has been laid before and approved by resolution of the Scottish Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations modify the expiry dates for certain temporary justice measures which are contained in the Coronavirus (Recovery and Reform) (Scotland) Act 2022 ("the 2022 Act").

Regulation 2 modifies the expiry date in section 52(1) of the 2022 Act so that it reads "30 November 2025" rather than "30 November 2024". The effect of this regulation is that all of the temporary justice measures which remain in force after 29 November 2023 will not expire at the end of 30 November 2024 but instead will be extended for 12 months, expiring at the end of 30 November 2025.

A Child Rights and Wellbeing Impact Assessment for these Regulations is available online at www.legislation.gov.uk.

A Business and Regulatory Impact Assessment was published for the Bill which led to the 2022 Act and is available on the Scottish Government's website: Coronavirus (Recovery and Reform) (Scotland) Bill: business and regulatory impact assessment – gov.scot (www.gov.scot).
