Made - - - -	23*rd April* 1976
Laid before the House of Commons	28*th April* 1976
Coming into Operation	29*th April* 1976

The Secretary of State, in exercise of powers conferred by sections 1, 7 and 8 of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969(a), and now vested in him(b), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Countervailing Duty (Provisional Charge to Duty) Order 1976 and shall come into operation on 29th April 1976.

2. Goods of the description set out in column 2 of the Schedule hereto (being goods classified in the Customs Tariff 1959(c) under the heading mentioned in column 1 of that Schedule) shall be subject to a provisional charge to duty in respect of a duty of customs at the rate set out in column 3 of that Schedule.

Edmund Dell,
23rd April 1976. Secretary of State for Trade

(a) 1969 c. 16. (b) See S.I. 1970/1537 (1970 III, p. 5293).

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order imposes a provisional charge in respect of a countervailing duty on imports of certain men's leather footwear which originates in Brazil.

The making of the Order enables the Commissioners of Customs and Excise to require security for the payment of any countervailing duty which may be imposed retrospectively on such imports under section 8(1) of the Customs Duties (Dumping and Subsidies) Act 1969. If any duty is imposed retrospectively, it may only be so imposed on goods imported while the Order is in force, and its rate may not exceed the rate mentioned in the Schedule to this Order.

The Order expires automatically after three months unless previously revoked or extended (for not more than three months) by a further Order.
