CHAP. 15.

An Act to transfer to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings the property in and control over the buildings and property of the County Courts in England, and for other purposes relating thereto.

[20th June 1870.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to transfer to the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings the complete control over the buildings and property of the County Courts in England, and to vest in the said Commissioners the buildings and property now vested in the treasurers of the said courts:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as "The County Court (Buildings) Act, 1870."

Definition of "Commissioners of Works."

2. In this Act the term "the Commissioners of Works" means the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, as incorporated by the Act of the session of the fifteenth and sixteenth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter twenty-eight, intituled "An Act to amend an Act of the fourteenth and fifteenth years of Her "present Majesty, for the direction of Public Works and Buildings, and to vest the "buildings appropriated for the accommodation of the Supreme Courts of Justice in "Edinburgh in the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings."

Transfer of property from treasurers to Commissioners.

3. All property, real and personal, (other than money and securities for money, books, papers, and records,) belonging to any county court, of or to which the treasurer of any county court or any other person is seised, possessed, or entitled in trust for a county court, under the sections of the Acts mentioned in the schedule to this Act, shall, on the passing of this Act, pass to and be vested in the Commissioners of Works, for the same estate and interest, and subject to the same covenants, conditions, agreements, and liabilities, for and subject to which the same were held by the said treasurer or other person; and such treasurer or other person shall be discharged from such covenants, conditions, agreements, and liabilities.

As to providing courts, offices, &c.

4. The Commissioners of Works, with the approval of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, shall from time to time build, purchase, hire, or otherwise provide such court-house, offices, and buildings as may be necessary for carrying on the business of any county court, and cause the same to be furnished, cleaned, lighted, and warmed, and give such directions to the registrar of each court with regard to the hiring and dismissing of servants as shall seem fit.

For the purposes of any such purchase, the Lands Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, and the Acts amending the same, (except so much thereof as relates to the purchase of land otherwise than by agreement,) are hereby incorporated with this Act, and in construing those Acts for the purposes of this Act the special Act shall be construed to mean this Act, and the promoters of the undertaking shall be construed to be the Commissioners of Works.

Provisions of Acts in schedule repealed.

5. The Acts mentioned in the schedule to this Act are hereby repealed, to the extent in the third column of the said schedule mentioned, without prejudice to anything already done or suffered or any right already acquired or accrued.

CHAP. 16.

An Act to define the boundary between the counties of Inverness and Elgin or Moray, in the district of Strathspey; and for other purposes.

[20th June 1870.]

WHEREAS doubts exist with respect to the boundary between the county of Inverness and the county of Elgin or Moray (herein-after called the county of Elgin), in the district of Strathspey:

And whereas certain parts of the county of Elgin, and certain parts of the county of Inverness, situated in the same district, and comprehending the parishes, or portions of the parishes, of Duthil and Abernethy, and of the united parish of Cromdale and Inverallan, are wholly or partially detached from their respective counties, and it will be for public advantage that the boundary between those counties in the district of Strathspey should be defined, and that the detached portions of the county of Elgin should be annexed to and form part of the county of Inverness, and that the detached portions of the county of Inverness should be annexed to and form part of the county of Elgin:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Inverness and Elgin County Boundaries Act, 1870."

Portions of counties described in schedule A. transferred to the county of Inverness.

2. Those parts and portions of the counties of Elgin and Inverness described in the schedule A. annexed to this Act, whether the same shall heretofore have been locally situated within the county of Elgin or the county of Inverness, shall, from and after the fifteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy, be held to be, and be, for all purposes whatsoever, except in so far as herein-after provided, part of the county, sheriffdom, and commissariot of Inverness.
