EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order further amends the County Court Fees Order 1959. It increases a number of fees of which the most important are those payable on the entry of plaints for a sum of money not exceeding £9, on the issue of warrants of execution and orders of commitment and on the transfer or payment of money into a deposit account. New fees are made payable on the re-issue of suspended warrants of execution, the service of a judgment summons by the bailiff, and the provision of photographic copies of documents. The fees payable in respect of administration orders are reduced and the references to the County Court Funds Rules are amended to refer to the County Court Funds Rules 1965.
