| Made - - - - | 8th December 1966 |
| Coming into Operation | 2nd January 1967 |

I, Gerald Baron Gardiner, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, in exercise of the powers conferred upon me by section 55 of the County Courts Act 1959(a) and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

1.—(1) The county courts mentioned in the first column of the Schedule to this Order shall have Admiralty jurisdiction and there shall be assigned to those courts as their districts for Admiralty purposes, in addition to their own districts, the districts of the county courts mentioned in the second column of the Schedule opposite the names of the first-mentioned courts.

(2) In the case of any county court held at more than one place, Admiralty jurisdiction shall be exercised only at the place mentioned in the third column of the Schedule opposite the name of that court.

2.—(1) The County Courts (Admiralty Jurisdiction) Order 1949(b) and the County Courts (Admiralty Jurisdiction) (Amendment) Order 1963(c) are hereby revoked.

(2) This Order may be cited as the County Courts (Admiralty Jurisdiction) Order 1966, and shall come into operation on 2nd January 1967.

Dated 8th December 1966.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order.)

This Order consolidates the County Courts (Admiralty Jurisdiction) Order 1949 and the subsequent amending Order referred to in Article 2, confers Admiralty jurisdiction on the Newport and Ryde (Isle of Wight) County Court and makes such amendments as are necessary by virtue of changes in the names and districts of county courts.
