LOCAL GOVERNMENT, ENGLAND AND WALES

The County of Greater Manchester (Electoral Arrangements) Order 1985

Made - - - - -	25th July 1985
Coming into Operation	1st October 1985

Whereas in pursuance of section 51(1) of the Local Government Act 1972(a), the Local Government Boundary Commission for England on 27th September 1984 submitted proposals for the future electoral arrangements for the County of Greater Manchester:—

Now, therefore, in exercise of the power conferred upon me by sections 51(2) and 67 of that Act, I hereby make the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the County of Greater Manchester (Electoral Arrangements) Order 1985.

2. This Order shall come into operation on 1st October 1985.

3.—(1) At the next ordinary election of county councillors for the County of Greater Manchester, the existing electoral divisions of that county shall be abolished and that county shall be divided into one hundred and four electoral divisions which shall bear the names set out in column 1 of the Schedule to this Order, and each such electoral division shall comprise the areas specified opposite thereto in column 2 of that Schedule.

(2) The number of councillors to be elected for each electoral division constituted by this Order shall be one.

4. Where a boundary is described in the Schedule to this Order as running along a road, railway line, footway, waterway or other similar geographical feature, it shall be treated as running along the centre line thereof.

Leon Brittan,
One of Her Majesty's Principal
Secretaries of State.

Home Office.
25th July 1985.
