MAGISTRATES' COURTS

JURISDICTION

The County of London Justices (Jurisdiction) Order, 1961

Made - - - - 13*th December*, 1961
Coming into Operation 1*st January*, 1962

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon me by subsections (9) and (11) of section eleven of the Justices of the Peace Act, 1949(a), I hereby make the following Order:—

1. After paragraph 2 of the Schedule to the County of London Justices (Jurisdiction) Order, 1957(b) (in which Schedule are set out the classes of case which may be taken by justices acting for petty sessional divisions of the county of London), there shall be inserted the following paragraph, that is to say:—

"2A. Proceedings under section two hundred and thirty-two of the Road Traffic Act, 1960(c), being proceedings taken in relation to an offence against section eighty-eight of that Act.".

2. This Order may be cited as the County of London Justices (Jurisdiction) Order, 1961, and shall come into operation on the first day of January, 1962.

R. A. Butler,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

Home Office,
Whitehall.
13th December, 1961.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

Under the County of London Justices (Jurisdiction) Order, 1957, justices acting for petty sessional divisions of the county of London, other than metropolitan stipendiary magistrates, may not, subject to the provisions of that Order, take any classes of case except those specified in the Order. Under this Order such justices will be enabled to hear proceedings against the owner of a vehicle for failing to give information as to the identity of the driver where the latter is alleged to be guilty of an offence relating to parking places under the Road Traffic Act, 1960.
