ANNO QUINQUAGESIMO QUINTO

GEORGII III. REGIS.

CAP. LXXXIX.

An Act to amend an Act of the Fifty-third Year of His Majesty's Reign, for making Regulations for the building and repairing of Court Houses and Sessions Houses in Ireland. [14th June 1815.]

WHEREAS in and by an Act, passed in the Fifty-third Year of His present Majesty's Reign, intituled An Act to make further Regulations for the building and repairing of Court Houses and Session Houses in Ireland, it is among other Things enacted, that whenever any such Court House shall have been erected for any County in Ireland according to the Provisions of the said Act, if it shall so happen that the same shall be built within a County of a City or County of a Town wherein the Assizes or Presenting Term for such County have been usually held, the said Court House with its Appurtenances shall be deemed and taken to be Part and Parcel of the County at large for which the same shall have been built as aforesaid: And whereas it is expedient to amend and extend the said Provision; be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That any Court House in Ireland, whether erected according to the Provisions of the said Act or not, which is or shall be built for any County at large within a County of a City or County of a Town within which the Assizes or the Commission of Oyer and Terminer of or for such County at large shall have been usually held, shall, with their Appurtenances thereof, be and be deemed and taken to be Part and Parcel of the County at large for which the same shall have been built. 53 G. 3. c. 131.

Court Houses built within a County of a City, &c. to be deemed Part of the County at large; but only while Court House is used as such for such County.

II. Provided always, and be it enacted, That whenever such Tenement shall cease to be a Court House of such County, whether by reason of the building of a New Court House or otherwise, then and from thence forward such House and the Scite and Appurtenances thereof shall be and be deemed and taken to be Part and Parcel of the County of a City or County of a Town within which the same shall be so situated.

Fuel to be provided for Court Houses, and a Salary for the Keepers.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall and may be lawful to and for the Grand Jury at any Assizes or Presenting Term in Ireland, to present such reasonable Sum or Sums as they shall think proper for providing Fuel for each and every or any Court House or Court Houses in or belonging to their respective Counties, and also such Sum or Sums as a Salary or Payment for the Keeper of any such Court House, not exceeding Twenty Pounds in any one Year for any such Court Keeper; which Sum or Sums so presented shall be levied off the County at large in the usual Mode of County Presentments.

Money how to be provided.

IV. And be it further enacted, That no Sum so presented shall be paid by the Treasurer of such County until some one Person, to whom such Sum so to be presented for Fuel shall be payable under such Presentment, shall produce to such Treasurer an Affidavit sworn by him before a Justice of the Peace for such County (which Oath every such Justice is hereby empowered to administer) stating that the Sum required to be paid hath been duly expended in the Purchase of Fuel for the Use of such Court House pursuant to such Presentment, and that the whole of such Fuel had been consumed in the said Court House, and for the Use and Benefit thereof; or if any Part of such Fuel shall not have been consumed, stating how much thereof has been consumed, and that the Residue then remains in safe keeping to be applied to the Use of the said Court House in like Manner.

Act may be altered this Session.

V. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be altered, amended, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be made in this present Session of Parliament.

LONDON: Printed by George Eyre and Andrew Strahan, Printers to the King's most Excellent Majesty. 1815.