V. And be it enacted, That every Offender against this Act may be dealt with, indicted, tried, and punished either in the County or Place in which he shall be apprehended, or in the County or Place where he shall have committed the Offence.

Act may be amended this Session.

VI. And be it further enacted, That this Act may be amended, altered, or repealed by any Act or Acts to be passed in this present Session of Parliament.

CAP. V.

An Act to provide for carrying on the Business of the Court of Session in Scotland when interrupted by the Death or necessary Absence of any of the Judges thereof. [13th February 1832.]

'WHEREAS by the Laws now in force for regulating the Proceedings in the Court of Session in Scotland no sufficient Provision is made for carrying on the Business of the said Court in the Event of the Death, Sickness, or necessary Absence of any of the Lords Ordinary in the Outer House, or in the Event of the Judges in either Division of the Inner House being reduced to less than a Quorum by such Casualties; whereby great Delays and Inconveniences have been suffered, and it is expedient that these should be remedied:' Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall be competent to the Judges of the Court of Session, or a Quorum thereof, in the Case of the Death, Sickness, or other necessary Absence of any of the Lords Ordinary of either Division of the Court, or of the junior Lord Ordinary acting as Ordinary on the Bills, to make such Regulations by Act of Sederunt as may be necessary for carrying on the Business of the Outer House, and that either by appointing One of the Judges of either Division of the Inner House to officiate in the Outer House or Bill Chamber during such Absence of any of the above Lords Ordinary, or by appointing a Lord Ordinary of one Division to act in such Case pro tempore as an Ordinary of the other Division.

Judges of the Court of Session empowered to make Regulations for carrying on the Business of the said Court in certain Cases.

When the Judges of the Inner House are reduced below a Quorum, they may call in One of the Lords Ordinary to assist.

II. And be it further enacted, That in case of Death, Sickness, Declinature, or necessary Absence of any of the Judges of the Inner House of either Division, the Number of Judges in such Division shall be reduced to less than a Quorum, it shall be in the Power of the Division so reduced in Number, and they are hereby authorized and required, to call in One of the Lords Ordinary of the same or of the other Division to sit and vote in the Inner House until the Number of Judges in such Division be again increased to a Quorum.
