Provided that any licence or authorisation granted thereunder or having effect by virtue thereof, and subsisting immediately before the coming into operation of this Order, shall continue to have effect as though granted under this Order.

(2) Every person shall, notwithstanding the revocation of the said Orders, retain any record of any transaction required to be kept by him thereunder for one year from the date of the transaction.

6. Infringements of this Order are offences against the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939.

G. Lloyd-George,
Minister of Food.

Dated the 4th day of December, 1953.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order removes price control on the sale of condensed milk of all types and re-enacts those provisions of the Condensed Milk Order, 1951, which relate to the licensing of manufacturers.
