any person recognised by the governor of a British possession as a consular officer of a foreign state.

8. The principal Act shall be construed as if there were included in the first schedule to that Act the list of crimes contained in the schedule to this Act. Addition to list of crimes in schedule.

SCHEDULE.

List of Crimes.

The following list of crimes is to be construed according to the law existing in England or in a British possession (as the case may be) at the date of the alleged crime, whether by common law or by statute made before or after the passing of this Act:

Kidnapping and false imprisonment.

Perjury, and subornation of perjury, whether under common or statute law.

Any indictable offence under the Larceny Act, 1861, or any Act amending or substituted for the same, which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act. 24 & 25 Vict. c. 96, &c.

Any indictable offence under the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-seven, "To consolidate and amend the statute "law of England and Ireland relating to malicious injuries to property," or any Act amending or substituted for the same, which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act.

Any indictable offence under the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-eight, "To consolidate and amend the statute "law of England and Ireland, relating to indictable offences by forgery," or any Act amending or substituted for the same, which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act.

Any indictable offence under the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter ninety-nine, "To consolidate and amend the statute "law of the United Kingdom against offences relating to the coin," or any Act amending or substituted for the same, which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act.

Any indictable offence under the Act of the session of the twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter one hundred, "To consolidate and amend the statute "law of England and Ireland relating to offences against the person," or any Act amending or substituted for the same, which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act.

Any indictable offence under the laws for the time being in force in relation to bankruptcy which is not included in the first schedule to the principal Act.

CHAPTER 61.

An Act to explain and amend the Crown Private Estates Act, 1862.

[5th August 1873.]

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Her present Majesty, intituled, "An Act to remove doubts concerning, and "to amend the law relating to, the private Estates of Her Majesty, her heirs and suc- "cessors," certain provisions are made concerning the private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, including under that description any manors, messuages, lands tenements, leases, and hereditaments, and other real or heritable property and estate, of whatsoever tenure the same may be, whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, which had at any time theretofore been purchased or acquired by Her Majesty, or should at any time thereafter be purchased or acquired by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, out of any moneys issued and applied for the use of her or their privy purse, or with any other moneys not appropriated to any public service, and any manors, messuages, lands, tenements, leases, and hereditaments, and other real or heritable property and estate, of whatsoever tenure the same may be, whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, which had come to Her Majesty, or should or might come to Her Majesty, or her heirs or successors, by the gift or devise or disposition of, or by descent, inheritance, or succession, or otherwise, from any of her or their ancestors, 25 & 26 Vict. c. 37.

or any other person or persons not being kings or queens of this realm, and any manors, messuages, lands, tenements, leases, and hereditaments, and other real or heritable property and estate, of whatsoever tenure the same may be, and whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, which did or should belong to Her Majesty, or her heirs or successors, or to any person or persons in trust for her or them, at the time of her or their respective accessions to the Crown of this realm, and which before such accession she or they respectively might have legally granted, sold, given, devised, disponed, or conveyed:

And whereas it may be doubtful whether, under the terms of the said Act, any such private estates of Her Majesty, or of her heirs or successors as therein mentioned, which under or by virtue of any gift, devise, or other disposition thereof made by Her Majesty, or by any of her heirs or successors, may become vested in any person who, at the time of such vesting or at any time afterwards, may be or become king or queen of this realm, will be, or, after the accession of such person to the Crown of this realm, continue to be held as his or her private estates; and it is expedient that such doubts should be removed:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Recited Act extended to manors, &c. devised by Her Majesty, &c.

1. All the provisions of the said Act of the session of the twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth years of Her present Majesty, and of this Act, concerning the private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, shall extend and apply to all manors, messuages, lands, tenements, leases, and hereditaments, and other real or heritable property and estate, of whatsoever tenure the same may be, whether situate or arising in England, Scotland, or Ireland, or in any other part of Her Majesty's dominions, which, under or by virtue of any gift, devise, or disposition made by Her Majesty, or by any of her heirs or successors, of any part of her or his private estates, shall become vested in any person who may at the time of such vesting, or at any time afterwards, be or become King or Queen of this realm, unless in or by the instrument whereby such gift, devise, or disposition shall be made, an intention shall be expressed that such manors, messuages, lands, tenements, leases, hereditaments, or other property or estate shall not be, or after the accession of any person entitled thereto to the Crown of this realm, continue to be held as such private estates.

Sect. 3. of 3 & 4 W. 4. c. 106. extended to private estates of Her Majesty, &c.

2. Section three of the Act of the session of the third and fourth William the Fourth, chapter one hundred and six, for the amendment of the law of inheritance, shall extend and apply to the private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, and to any devise or assurance by Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, of such private estates.

Section 11 of 25 & 26 Vict. c. 37. extended to certain private estates of Her Majesty, &c.

3. The provisions contained in section eleven of "The Crown Private Estates Act, 1862," relating to suits and actions, shall extend and apply to the private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, which may not be vested in a trustee or trustees, wheresoever the same be situate or arising; and any suit, action, or other proceeding in any part of Her Majesty's dominions relating to any debt or liability to, or any claim or demand by Her Majesty, or any of her heirs or successors, in right or respect of her or his privy purse, or of any personal estate or effects, subject to disposition by her or his last will and testament, may be sued, brought, prosecuted, and taken on behalf of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, by and in the name or names of any person or persons to be from time to time for that purpose appointed, in manner prescribed by the eleventh section of "The Crown Private Estates Act, 1862."

Saving rights of Her Majesty.

4. Provided that nothing in this Act contained shall take away or interfere with any right or remedy by any law or statute competent to Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, in regard to the private estates of Her Majesty, her heirs or successors, or to her or his privy purse, or to any personal estate or effects subject to disposition by her or his last will and testament.

Short title.

5. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Crown Private Estates Act, 1873."
