CROWN PROCEEDINGS

The Crown Proceedings (Local Courts) Order, 1950

1950 No. 95

Made - - - -	21*st January*, 1950
Laid before Parliament	23*rd January*, 1950
Coming into Operation	1*st February*, 1950

At the Court at Sandringham, the 21st day of January, 1950

Present,

The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas it is provided by section 34 of the Crown Proceedings Act, 1947(a), (hereinafter referred to as "the Act") that His Majesty may by Order in Council make such provision as appears to Him to be expedient with respect to civil proceedings by or against the Crown in any court not being the High Court or a county court and that any Order so made may in particular define the jurisdiction of the court to which the Order relates in civil proceedings by or against the Crown, and apply in relation to such proceedings in the said court any provisions of the Act which would not otherwise apply in relation to those proceedings with such additions, exceptions and modifications as appear to His Majesty to be expedient:

And Whereas it is provided by the said section that the provisions of any such Order shall have effect notwithstanding any provisions made by or under any enactment with respect to the court in question and that any such Order may provide for amending or revoking any provision so made as aforesaid:

(a) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 44.

And Whereas it is expedient that provision should be made with respect to civil proceedings by or against the Crown in the Court of Passage of the City of Liverpool (hereinafter referred to as the "Liverpool Court of Passage") and in the Salford Hundred Court of Record (hereinafter referred to as the "Salford Hundred Court"):

Now, therefore, His Majesty is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

1.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Order, and to any enactment limiting the jurisdiction of the Liverpool Court of Passage or of the Salford Hundred Court (whether by reference to the subject matter of the proceedings to be brought or the amount sought to be recovered in the proceedings or otherwise), any civil proceedings by or against the Crown may be instituted—

(a) in the Liverpool Court of Passage in respect of Admiralty causes within the limits of the Admiralty jurisdiction of the Court described in section 249 of the Liverpool Corporation Act, 1921(a), and in respect of any other proceedings in respect of any cause of action arising within the jurisdiction of the Court;

(b) in the Salford Hundred Court in respect of any cause of action arising within the jurisdiction of the Court.

(2) Any civil proceedings by or against the Crown in either of the said Courts shall be instituted and proceeded with in accordance with the rules of procedure for each of those Courts respectively and not otherwise.

2. Parts II, III and IV of the Act shall apply to civil proceedings by and against the Crown in the Liverpool Court of Passage and the Salford Hundred Court as they apply in relation to civil proceedings by and against the Crown in a county court, and as if for the references therein to a county court and to county court rules there were substituted references to the said Courts and to the Rules of procedure for each of those Courts respectively, and as if for references therein to the commencement of the Act there were substituted references to the date on which this Order comes into operation:

Provided that subsection (2) of section twenty-four of the Act (which relates to the payment of interests on costs awarded to or against the Crown in the High Court) shall apply to costs awarded to or against the Crown in the Liverpool Court of Passage and the Salford Hundred Court.

3. The provisions of this Order shall have effect with respect to civil proceedings by and against the Crown in the Liverpool Court of Passage and in the Salford Hundred Court notwithstanding any provision made by or under any enactment with respect to either of those Courts.

4. The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

5. This Order may be cited as the Crown Proceedings (Local Courts) Order, 1950, and shall come into operation on the first day of February, 1950.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order in Council prescribes the jurisdiction of the Liverpool Court of Passage and the Salford Hundred Court of Record in civil proceedings by or against the Crown originating in those Courts.

CUSTOMS

EXPORT CONTROL

The Export of Goods (Control) (Consolidation) Order, 1950

1950 No. 2138

Made - - - - 30*th December*, 1950
Coming into Operation 8*th January*, 1951

The Board of Trade, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by Section 1 of the Import, Export and Customs Powers (Defence) Act, 1939(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, do hereby order as follows:—

1. The goods specified in the First Schedule hereto are, subject to the provisions of this Order, prohibited to be exported from the United Kingdom or shipped as ships' stores.

Licensed exports and permitted ships' stores

2. Nothing in this Order shall be taken to prohibit the exportation of any goods under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Trade, or the shipment of any goods as ships' stores if the shipment of the goods is permitted by the proper officer of Customs and Excise at the port of departure for the use on board the ship, provided that all conditions attaching to the said licence or the said permission are complied with.

3. Nothing in this Order shall be taken to prohibit the exportation of—

Valuables

(a) (i) any postage stamps of philatelic interest and similar articles if each package in the consignment is sealed by or on behalf of the Board of Trade and bears a certificate given by or on behalf of the Board of Trade that the goods in the package have been passed for exportation under this Order and is despatched by or on behalf of the Board of Trade;

(ii) any postage stamps of philatelic interest and similar articles to any port or destination in any territory which is for the time being one of the scheduled territories as defined in the Exchange Control Act, 1947(b);

(iii) any consignment of the goods specified in Group 18 of the First Schedule hereto other than postage stamps of philatelic interest and similar articles, if before any such consignment of such goods is exported or despatched each package in the consignment is sealed by or on behalf of the Board of Trade and bears or is accompanied by a certificate given by or on behalf of the Board of Trade that the goods in the package have been passed for exportation under this Order, and, where the goods are despatched by post, if they are despatched by or on behalf of the Board of Trade, or, in all other cases, if the certificate is delivered to the proper officer of Customs and Excise;

(a) 2 & 3 Geo. 6. c. 69. (b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 14.
