And whereas it is expedient under the circumstances aforesaid to remove all doubts touching the validity of the marriages so solemnized in the said church or chapel:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Marriages heretofore solemnized in Chapel of St. John the Evangelist to be valid.

1. All banns of matrimony and marriages published or solemnized before the passing of this Act in the church or chapel known as Saint John the Evangelist, in the parish of Eton aforesaid, shall be as valid as if the same had been published or solemnized in a church duly consecrated and licensed for marriages.

Minister officiating not liable to censure.

2. No minister who has solemnized any of the said marriages shall be liable to any ecclesiastical censures, or to any other proceedings or penalties whatsoever, by reason of his having so solemnized the same respectively.

Registers of such marriages to be evidence.

3. The registers of the marriages so solemnized, or copies of such registers, shall be received in all courts of law and equity as evidence of such marriages respectively, in the same manner as registers of marriages in parish churches, or copies thereof, are by law receivable in evidence.
