Northern Ireland to the law in force in Great Britain in relation to certain dangerous drugs and drugs capable of being converted into dangerous drugs, and it was enacted by Section 5 (3) of the said Act that the said Act should, as respects any particular provision thereof, come into operation as from such date as the Governor of Northern Ireland might by Order in Council appoint, having regard to the date appointed by His Majesty by Order in Council for the coming into operation of any provision of the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932 (passed by the Parliament of the United Kingdom) :

1935. No. 65.

And whereas His Majesty in pursuance of the powers conferred on him, by and with the advice of his Privy Council, was pleased by Order in Council on the 25th day of May, 1933, to appoint that the Dangerous Drugs Act, 1932, should come into operation on the 9th day of July, 1933 :

Now, therefore, We, the Lords Justices of Northern Ireland, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, in pursuance of the powers vested in us in this behalf hereby appoint that all the provisions of the Dangerous Drugs Act (Northern Ireland), 1932, shall come into operation on the 28th day of July, 1933.

Given at the County Court House, Belfast, this twenty-seventh day of July, 1933.

E. M. Archdale.
Richard Best.
J. Milne Barbour.

NOTE :—The above order was published in the Belfast Gazette of 4th August, 1933, but through inadvertence it was not transmitted for inclusion in the 1933 Volume.
